To my wife Mary Ann:

Without whose interest in genealogy this book would not have been started and without whose understanding and patience it would not have been finished.

INTRODUCTION

In the late 1930's when my wife's interest in genealogy ignited mine, The Seymour Family, edited by Donald L. Jacobus had just appeared. This brought my Seymour line down to James Henry Seymour, my great-grandfather. There were unsolved problems in some of the female lines and some time was spent on them but another problem offered a greater challenge. My maternal grandmother, Sarah Jane (Smith) Morton came into our family when I was six months old. She used to tell of her parents, Augustus Phineas Smith and his wife Eliza Ann Hanchett. Grandma was gone long before I was interested in family history and the only significant clues I remembered were her story of her mother taking her from their home in Columbia Co., WI to visit Eliza Ann's brothers, Seth Carmi and Samuel Bryant (sic) Hanchett in Michigan. Further, Grandma told that while she was born in Herkimer Co., NY her father had taught school in Albany, NY and that her grandfather was P. H. Smith who came from Connecticut. This line has been studied and reported in TAG 57:232 (1981).

In my efforts to trace Eliza Ann's family I contacted every Hanchett I could locate and though none of them knew anything about Eliza Ann I began to accumulate much data on different branches of the family. During a vacation (genealogical) trip east in 1941 a stop was made at the Detroit Public Library. There a copy of Everts' and Abbott's History of Branch Co. (MI) was seen. It contained a biography of Samuel B. Hanchett parts of which I have quoted in the biography of Eliza Ann in this book. This has proved to be one of the most significant bits of evidence, which, in the absence of primary data, has served to establish Eliza Ann's relationship to the Hanchett family.

Continuing East, stops were made in Oneida and Herkimer counties at courthouses, historical societies, and cemeteries. Since Thomas, the immigrant, was known to have spent most of his life in Suffield, CT, a stop was made at the Suffield Town Hall and much Hanchett data was found there in the large volume of Suffield Records which was compiled by former town clerk Wm Loomis. Next we made our first visit to the State Library in Hartford and we found more Hanchett material than could be copied (pre-Xerox) in the available time.

In April 1943 I learned of the work of the late Junius T. Hanchett and wrote to him asking for the privilege of using his material. Junius answered that the day before my letter arrived he had received a similar letter from John C. Hanchett (No. 538) with the same request. Junius very graciously loaned us his extensive and well organized material, and between us we made copies of his material. In 1957 John published a book, The Hanchett Family by Junius T. Hanchett. The material supplied by Junius at that time and subsequently has been used extensively in guiding my work in the preparation of this book. Junius was trained as a lawyer and knew where to find, and how to use legal records.

In 1947 a letter was received from Charlotte P. Kent of Salt Lake City telling that her husband, Hiland, was a descendant of Hannah (No. 83) who married Benajah Kent, and they were very interested in Hanchett history. For more than thirty years we corresponded regularly, and many pleasant hours were spent with Charlotte and her husband. Charlotte spent hundreds of hours in the Genealogical Society Library in Salt Lake City. My file of our correspondence occupies three feet on the shelf. Her contribution to this book is immeasurable.

Many descendants of Deacon Thomas Hanchett have done important work on the family. Some were limited to single branches but Jay Bush Hanchett and Frank E. Hanchett included the whole family in their studies. Frank had a notice in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register in 1909 stating he was preparing a Hanchett Genealogy. Frank obviously carried on a large correspondence which included Junius. From that source and from material supplied by dozens of Frank's correspondants we have obtained many of his records. Frank sent many records to Ray Monroe Hanchett (No. 588) and Ray's daughter, Vessa, loaned a large box of these records to Charlotte Kent. But he had information that we have not been able to find. Two examples are his statement that Luke (No. 66) died in the War of 1812 and that Charles (C 3) was the son of Oliver and Demaris Hanchett. After many letters Frank's daughter, Gretchen, was located and in two letters she answered several questions. Some time elapsed before a letter was written to her again. She had moved and was never located again; nor has the fate been learned of the "trunkful of records" she reported she had.

Every effort has been made to find all available Hanchett data. Several weeks have been spent in Hartford at the State Library and the Connecticut Historical Society Library. The wonderful Genealogical Society Library in Salt Lake City has been visited many time, three times for a month each in recent years. Twenty state libraries have been visited, several more than once. Over the years more than a thousand descendants of Deacon Thomas have submitted family records to many different collectors and seven hundred have replied to my personal requests; some have contributed much beyond their own family. All are gratefully acknowledged. The census records have been carefully examined. Since moving to California in 1976 nearly a thousand hours have been spent at the San Bruno branch of the National Archives.

The members of the Hanchett family certainly constitute a characteristic American family. Early on almost all of them were farmers, but as time passed the Hanchetts have found their way into almost every trade and profession. Many have been teachers from kindergarten to the university. Physicians and lawyers have abounded in the family. One Hanchett served in the House of Representatives and another was appointed to the United States Circuit Court. From the Revolution to Viet Nam many Hanchetts have served their country. A few have written books; some Hanchetts have had outstanding musical talent. Originally in Connnnecticut, they have spread into every state in the Union with the possible exception of Alabama.

Both Junius T. Hanchett and Charlotte Kent have studied the English connection but without positive results. The solution to this problem will be left to others who have shown an interest.

ORGANIZATION OF THIS BOOK

The general organization of this book is that of the NEHGR with the exception that only those references especially pertinent to the development of a biography are placed in the biography. All other references are located at the end of a biography preceded by "Ref.". To save space, a list of those references used several times is given in Appendix F and referred to in "Ref." by their Roman numerals. References given in the body of a biography are not usually repeated in "Ref.". Where census references are given with no name they are for the subject of the biography, or in the case of a female Hanchett, her husband. All other census references are followed by the name of the person involved.

Where family records have been supplied by individual members of the family the name of the supplier is given in "Ref." preceded by FR (Family Record). Standard abbreviations are used including US Postal two-letter state abbreviations.

Two indexes are given. The first is for all persons who have borne the name Hanchett which includes the wives of Hanchett men. The given name of these wives is followed by their maiden name, e.g. (Smith). The second index contains all persons with a surname other than Hanchett. This includes all Hanchett women who married. Their given names appear under the surname of their husbands followed by (Hanchett).

Following the REGISTER's procedure, the immigrant, Thomas Hanchett, is given the Arabic number, 1. His family is listed in chronological order numbered with lower case Roman numbers. The children who later appear in their own biographies are also given consecutive Arabic numbers. Thus Thomas' granddaughter, Esther, daughter of Thomas' son John, is No. 8 and so appears in John's family and in her own biography. However, if a reference were to be made to this John's son Samuel, he would be No. 3 iii.

Birth dates giving day, month and year of birth are from town, church or other official records. Those which give month and year of birth are from the 1900 census while most approximate dates such as ca. 1850 are taken from the 1850 to 1880 census records or calculated from gravestones which give only year of birth or year of death and age at death.

The family name has been spelled a variety of ways. The original Thomas usually appeared as Hanchet, and this was the general practice in the family for about four generations, although some families continued longer. Several deeds and probates have been found where some of the signers appeared with a single -t while others used two. In this book the name is uniformly spelled Hanchett except when quoting documents wherein it appeared otherwise. Some families today spell the name with a final -e and where this is known it has been indicated in the biography.

THE DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS HANCHETT

THOMAS[1] HANCHETT, was born in England probably ca. 1620; died 11 June 1686 at Suffield, CT. No other vital data exist for him. That he was the younger brother of John Hanchet of Boston, appears probable but no direct evidence has been found. The reason for this conclusion is the great similarity of family names and the fact that they appear in this country about the same time. John named his elder son John and his second son Thomas, while our Thomas named his elder son Thomas and his second son John. In each family the first daughter was named after the wife while in both families the second daughter was named Hannah. It seems probable that these men were the sons of a John and Hannah Hanchet.

While John appears in the Boston records in 1634 the earliest record we have for Thomas is in 1642 when he was granted a home-lot in Wethersfield, CT. The choice of 1620 as a probable birth date for Thomas is based on the probability that he received the home-lot shortly after he became of age.

Although the birth of Thomas' son John is recorded at Westerfield no birth record is found for the son Thomas nor for either of the two daughters. Junius T. Hanchett's evidence that son Thomas was the elder is to be found in Appendix A, while the reasons for placing the order of the births of the two daughters is given in their biographies.

No record of the marriage of Thomas Hanchett has been found but there is no doubt that his wife was Deliverance Langton, daughter of George Langton. Trumbull's History of Northampton states that George Langton divided his property with his son-in-law Thomas Hanchet. Further, in his will, dated 18 Nov. 1678, George Langton left a legacy to his daughter, Deliverance Hanchet.

Thomas appears in the Wethersfield record in 1648 as a witness to the will of Leonard Chester, Gentleman, one of the earliest settlers of Wethersfield and one of the wealthy and titled men. Further we find in Wethersfield the birth of his son John, 1 Sept. 1649. Thomas appears to have made a brief stay in New London, CT for in the oldest record there we find: "The names of ye wrought at the Mill Dam." On the list of 42 one was Thomas Hanshyt. Calkins in his History of New London states that Thomas Hanshyt was a transient there.

Our next record for Thomas appears in Northampton, MA where he must have followed his father-in-law, George Langton. Trumbull in his History states, "Seven years passed after the arrival of the first emigrants before a church was formed...Now the time had come for the founding of a visible church. On 18 June 1661 the work was accomplished. The original entry from the records of the church follows: The church was gathered at Northampton 18:4:1661. The persons that began the work were numbered eight viz, Mr. Elezer Mather, David Wilton, William Clarke, John Strong, Henry Cunliffe, Henry Woodward and Thomas Hanchet.". In Northampton he became Deacon of the church and always after used the title. Thomas took the oath of fidelity at Northampton 24 Mar. 1662 and the next day was one of a group who took the freeman's oath.

In the land records for Westfield, MA in 1672 the description of land holdings listed six parcels of land for Thomas Hanchet. He became a leading citizen of Westfield appearing on the first list of selectmen in 1672. At a court held at Springfield 25 Sept. 1683 he was chosen as one of a committee of six to choose the location for a ferry across the Connecticut River at Springfield.

Deacon Thomas moved to Suffield and was one of its founders. At the time it was still part of MA. In the first record of the town we find, "At a legal meeting of the inhabitants of Suffield, 17 Nov. 1679 there was a committee of five chosen to see the performance of the work." (Building of the parsonage, KMS). The first named was Thomas Hanchet. Also at a town meeting 5 Mar. 1683/4 Deacon Thomas Hanchet was the first named of five selectmen. Thus he served successively as selectman at Northampton, Westfield and Suffield. Deacon Thomas' home-lot in Suffield which he received in 1679 remained in the family until 1873 when his descendant, Betsy Hanchett, No.52 ii, died. Deacon Hanchet's original will is gone but a copy appears in the 2nd book in the Northampton Probate Office which served Suffield at that time. It reads:

"Suffield, May 19, 1686. The last will and testament of Thomas Hanchet, sense being crazie and infirm of body but of sound understanding is as follows:

In the first place, I give my soul to the all blessed and glorious God who gave it to me and secondly I commit my body to the grave in the comfortable belief and hope (through my blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ) at the last day to be quickened again raised unto glorious life with himself in Heaven. Thirdly, I give order for a decent Christian burial, and for that portion of my estate which God hath given me, I order and dispose of it as followeth, vis.,

1st. First my will is that those parcels of my land at Westfield which I formerly (before this last will making) have in any manner of way granted and passed over and disposed of to my children shall be in the several parcels theirs according to the terms upon which I passed them over and disposed of those parcels unto them and as heretofore in their several parcels each of which have been received and possessed by them and that which was formerly done that way by me to stand firm and good without any alteration or change.

2nd. My will is that the rest of my land (in Westfield) that is yet to be dispossed of that my wife shall have it at her disposal during her lifetime and at her decease I will the one land to my daughter Deliverance Weller and what of land there shall be left by my wife at her decease ( she having by this will a liberty left to her, if her need require, to sell some of it) I give to my two sons Thomas and John by indifferent men to be equally divided between them.

3rd. As to my land at Suffield, the income of it I give to my wife during her lifetime and at her decease I give it too my two sons Thomas and John to be divided equally between them by judgement of indifferent men but I will that my two sons shall pay a legacy of twenty pounds to my daughter Hannah Lumas when they shall come into the possession of the land but the house I order to be my son John's wholly and therefore I will unto my daughter Hannah Lumas and will my son Thomas to pay the other five remaining.

4th. In this will I give all my movables to my wife during her lifetime and to her disposal at her decease.

In witness of this my last will I have set my hand."

Thomas Hanchet SEAL

John Younglove, Joseh Harmon, Nov. 16, 1686, allowed before John Pynchon.

Children probably born at Wethersfield:

2. i. Thomas[2] probably born ca. 1647.
3. ii. John, b. 1 Sept. 1649.
4. iii. Deliverance.
5. iv. Hannah.

2. THOMAS[2]HANCHETT (Thomas[1]), born at Wethersfield, CT in 1747; died Westfield, MA 6 May 1719. He married at Springfield, MA 18 Nov. 1673, Elizabeth Loomis, daughter of Lt. Samuel and Elizabeth (Judd) Loomis of Westfield. Her death notice does not appear but in the administrative papers of her son, Thomas, who died in Feb. 1737/8 are two unsigned handwritten notes. The first states, "the old widow, Eliza, mother of the deceased, is to have dower out of that which was the old man's". The second, in a different handwriting states, "old widow since dead". She must have died early in 1738.

When Deacon Thomas made the move to Suffield his two sons went with him. In 1679 Thomas Jr., received forty acres on High St. across from the property of his father and brother John. Thus both sons were also founders of Suffield. Thomas Jr., remained in Suffield until after his son Thomas and daughter Mary were born, then, probably about 1683 he returned to Westfield where he remained all his life. However, he received another grant in Suffield in 1712 and sold land there in 1718. Shortly before his death he conveyed the last of his Suffield lands to his brother John. Thomas, Jr., is the ancestor of most of the Hanchetts who lived in and around Westfield and his descendants were in Southwick in 1982.

The will of Thomas, Jr., is in the probate office at Northampton, MA and reads as follows: In the name of God Amen, the sixth day of April in the year of our Lord 1717, I, Thomas Hanchet, Sen., of Westfield, in the county of Hanpshire and province of Massachusetts Bay in New England, being aged and much impaired in body strength but of perfect mind and mortality of the body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it and for my body I recommend it for the earth to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but that at the general resurrection I shall receive it again by the mighty power of God and as touching such real estate as it hath pleased God to bless me in this life I give and devise and dispose of the same in the followig manner and form.

IMPRIMIS I give and bequeath to Elizabeth, my dearly beloved wife, the use and Improvement of one third of all my real estate during life and one third of my personal or movable estate to dispose of forever, in case that she dyeth or do leave me, I give to my well beloved son Thomas Hanchet, whom I do make and ordain my executor of this my last will one half of the lands belonging to me at my own and my wife's decease then to put in possession of, except my homestead. I give to my well beloved son Samuel Hanchet the other half of my lands, that is to say, half of all the lands which shall or doeth belong to me or that I shall possessed of at my own and my wife's decease and the housing and homestead in Westfield where I now stay, my son Samuel to pay to my son Thomas 10 pounds in money to be put in possession of it at our decease.

Item. I give to my daughters 15 pounds apiece, but in case my movable estate doth not amount to 15 pounds for each of my four daughters, viz., Mary Hanchet, Sarah Hanchet, Hannah Hanchet and Deliverance Hanchet, I do order my two sons to make up their portions of 15 pounds apiece. My daughter Hannah Hanchet being neglected in naming my daughters I have interlined her name in this instrument before it was signed and sealed and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke, and disannul all and every other former testament, wills, legacies, bequests and executions by me in any way before this time willed or bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my will and testament. In witness therefor I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year written above.

THOMAS HANCHET SEN.

Signed sealed and publically pronounced and declared by the said Thomas Hanchet, Senr. as his last will and testament in the presence of us subscribers, viz. Joseph Madsley, Nehemiah Loomis and John Rott.

Children, 2nd and 3rd born at Suffield, others at Westfield:

3. JOHN[2]HANCHETT (Thomas[1]), born at Wethersfield, CT 1 Sept. 1649; died at Suffield, CT 22 Oct. 1744. He married (1) at Westfield, MA 6 Sept. 1677, Esther (Hester) Pritchett (Pritchard) daughter of Sgt. William and Hannah Pritchett, born probably at Ipswich, MA; died at Suffield, 29 Nov. 1711. He married (2) in 1713 Mary (Skinner) Harmon, widow of Nathaniel Harmon. She died 17 Sept. 170 and he married (3) Sarah (Brooks) Taylor, born at Springfield, MA, 4 May 1658, daughter of William and Mary (Burt) Brooks and widow of Jonathan Taylor. She died at Suffield, 6 Jan. 1732 and he married (4) 3 July 1733 the widow Sarah Southwell.

Wethersfield records show the birth of John as "John Hanset, son of Hanset by Deliverance, his wife, was born Sept. 1, 1649." He probably was one of the three children of Deacon Thomas admitted to the church at Northampton, MA although no names were given. His next appearance on the records is again at Northampton when he is on a list of contributions (tax) to the support of Harvard College in 1672/73. His contribution was "toe lb. flax, 2 sh.". However John had probably already followed his father to Westfield.

John's migrations can only be vaguely followed. He appears in 1672 on an inventory of property in the Westfield town book. He went with his father and brother Thomas to Suffield where he received a grant of 40 acres on High St. near his father. When the family actually made this move is uncertain. All three Hanchett men appear on the 13 Jan. 1678 list of those who signed the oath of allegiance to the King at Westfield. Also the births of Thomas Jr's first daughter and John's son John, both born in 1679, appear on the Westfield records. It would appear that the move was made about 1680 for Thomas' son Thomas and John's son Samuel, both born in the spring of 1681, are recorded in Suffield. John remained in Suffield for the rest of his life and his descendants were there for nearly two hundred years. John assumed his father's place in the Church and in civil matters. Like his father he became a deacon in the Church and a selectman. At his father's death he received half of his father's land and the home was left to him, undoubtedly because he remained in Suffield while his brother returned to Westfield. When his mother lost her second husband, Deacon Burt, she went to live with John on the old homestead. An old diary started by John in 1705 and in the possession of his descendant, David No. 175 in 1904, lists items of John's support of his mother. Deacon John made his will 18 Jan. 1733/34 but he lived until 1744, dying at the age of 95, the last survivor of the founders of Suffield. His will is recorded at Northampton as follows.

Dated, Jan. 18th. 1733/34. John Hanchet Sr., of Suffield, aged: 1st. To my well beloved son, John Hanchet, and his heirs and assigns forever, all such lands, rights and ... as I shall be seized and possessed of at my decease within the township of Suffield and elsewhere and rights in commons and after divisions. My said son John, whom I appoint executor performing and paying whatever I shall by my last will order and appoint him to do, perform and pay as follows:

My son John to improve my lands during my life and to render me one-half of the income thereof and what said income fall short of being a comfortable maintenance for me and my family with my own labor, my said son John to make up to me sufficient for a comfortable maintenance. Also to find my firewood yearly during my life. I bequeath also the buildings to my said son which are upon my said lands at my decease, saving that preserved for my well beloved wife the use of one fireroom in my now dwelling house during her widowhood. I bequeath to my six grandchildren, the children of my daughter Esther, deceased sometime, the wife of Samuel Granger, deceased, namely to Samuel Granger, John Granger, Jeremiah Granger, Esther Kent, wife of Josiah Kent, Deliverance Granger, to each of them 5.8 pounds apiece. To Robert Granger 5 sh. To my grandson Benjamin Granger, son of my daughter Hannah, deceased, sometime wife of Abraham Granger, 40 pounds. To Batshue (sic) the wife of Joseph Fuller, 50 pounds. To my daughter Mehitable, wife of Samuel Sikes, 50 pounds. Of the above legacies one-half within the year and all within four years out of movables so far as that will pay and the remainming to be paid in vendible species at ordinary and common price. To pay all debts.

All estates real and personal and debts receivable to be paid to said executor his heirs and assigns upon their paying the debts and legacies aforesaid.

(signed) JOHN HANCHET.

In the presence of Ebenezer Devotion, Josiah King & Joshua Mather. The above will was proved Nov. 13, 1744. The witnesses testifying that they saw the testator, Deacon John Hanchet, sign.

Children, all by 1st wife. The 1st born at Westfield, others at Suffield:

8. i. Esther[3], b. 1 Aug. 1678.
9. ii. John, b. 16 Nov. 1679.
iii. Samuel, b. 7 Apr. 1682; d. 11 Sept. 1682.
10. iv. Hannah, b. 7 Dec. 1683.
11. v. Bathsheba, 19 Mar. 1685.
12. vi. Mehitable, b. 22 Jan. 1685.
vii. Ebenezer, b. 13 Jan. 1686; d. 22 Nov. 1711.
viii. Deliverance, b. 10 Aug. 1693; d. 27 June 1715.

Ref. III; VIII; XCVIII; TAG, 38:129. (1962).

4. DELIVERANCE[2]HANCHETT(Thomas[1]), birthplace unknown, probably Wethersfield, CT; died at Westfield MA 22 Nov. 1711. She married Dea. Nathaniel Weller of Westfield who died 13 Nov. 1712. Although no birth record have been found for the two daughters of Dea. Thomas Hanchett it is probable that Deliverance was the elder. 1st, she bears her mother's name. 2nd, while her marriage date is not known her first child was born four years before her sister's marriage. 3rd, she died nine years before Hannah.

Children:

i. Thankful[3], b. 15 Oct. 1674.
ii. Sarah, b. 1677; d. Westfield, 21 July 1709. m. 1695 Samuel Dewey, b. 25 June 1670, son of Thomas and Content (Hawes) Dewey.
iii. Deliverance, b. 1679; d. 24 Apr. 1697.

5. HANNAH[2]HANCHETT (Thomas[1]), no birth record, probably born at Wethersfield, CT; died at Suffield, CT in Aug. 1720. she married (1) Sergt. Samuel Loomis at Westfield, 4 Apr. 1678. He was the son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Judd) Loomis. He died 6 Nov. 1711 and Hannah married (2) in Westfield, 27 Feb. 1716, James King, bapt. Ugborough, Devonshire, Eng., 7 Nov. 1647, the son of William and Agnes (Elwill) King. He died in Suffield 13 May 1722. He was an original proprietor of Suffield.

Children:

i. Samuel[3], b. 28 Apr. 1681; d. 27 Oct 1758. m.(1) Rebecca Noble, 3 Feb. 1703. m. (2) Hannah ----
ii. James, b. 25 Feb. 1683; d. 20 June 1684.
iii. James. b. 8 Oct. 1686; d. 11 May 1694.
iv. Hannah, b. 29 Jan. 1691; m. John King, 17 June 1718.
v. Deliverance, b. 13 May 1694; d. 23 Apr. 1697.
vi. Joshua, b. 21 July 1696; d. 11 Jan. 1701/2.

6. THOMAS[3]HANCHETT (Thomas[2,1]), born at Suffield, CT 16 Mar. 1681; died at Westfield, MA before Feb. 1737/38. He married an Elizabeth about 1712. Her birth and death are not known except that she survived her husband. We know very little about this man. That he remained in Westfield is shown by several deeds and his death recorded there.

This Thomas left no will. Since he died at fifty-six and left a fairly large estate it would appear that he died unexpectedly. Three Elizabeth Hanchetts appear in the settlement of his estate. First, his mother, as discussed in his father's biography, then Elizabeth, his wife, and finally his daughter, a spinster, who was the executor. His inventory was dated 14 Feb. 1737/38 and the following settlement, ratified and confirmed 12 Sept. 1738 is quoted by Junius Hanchett as follows:

"SETTLEMENT OF THE ESTATE OF THOMAS HANCHET LATE OF WEST-FIELD, County of Hampshire, deceased. The whole estate real and personal amounts to 803 pounds, 7 sh. 4 d. of which 538 pounds, 4 sh. is real estate and 265 pounds, 3 sh. 4 p. is personal estate. Out of the personal estate must be deducted the sum of 43 pounds 14 sh. 2 d, debts due from the estate, and the administrators accounts allowed and the sum of 20 pounds being an allowance made to the widow of the deceased out of the necessary bedding, utensils and implements of household, which sums being subducted there remains the sum of 201 pounds, 9 sh. 2d. of which the widow Elizabeth Hanchet is to have one third part forever being 67 pounds 8 sh.

"AND THOMAS HANCHET, only son of said deceased is to have a double share of the whole remaining sum, all out of the real estate, which double share is 197 pounds, 4 sh. 8 d. and the remaining part of the real estate being 134 pounds, 11 sh. 2 d. is to be equally divided to Elizabeth Hanchet, Abigail Hanchet and Mercy Hanchet, the three daughters of the deceased, which is 53 pounds, 17 sh. to each of them, and the remaining part of the personal estate being 134 pounds, 6 sh. is likewise to be equally divided among the three daughters, which is 44 pounds, 6 sh. to each of them, which with the aforesaid sum of 53 pounds, 17 sh. to each of them of the real estate makes the sum of 98 pounds 12 sh. 4 d. which is the whole single share."

Among other papers of the estate is a bond of Elizabeth Hanchet as guardian of her children, Abigail and Mercy, minors above the age of 14 and heirs of Thomas Hanchet, late of Westfield, deceased. The widow signed with her mark and the sureties were Thomas (son of the deceased, JHT) and Samuel Hanchet (brother of the deceased, JTH).

Children:

13. i. Thomas[4], b.23 Jan. 1713, ii. Elizabeth, b. 25 Oct. 1715. The Elizabeth who died at Westfield 18 Aug. 1761, may be this person or her mother.
14. iii. Abigail, b. 3 Feb. 1717.
iv. Sarah, b. 1 Oct 1719; d. 25 Oct. 1725.
15. v. Mercy, b. 16 June 1723.

7. SAMUEL[3]HANCHETT (Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 14 Apr. 1692; died between 23 Aug. 1769 when his will was signed and 7 May 1779 when it was probated. He married (1) at Westfield, 4 Feb. 1718, Mary Fowler, probably the daughter of Samuel and Abigail Fowler, born 22 Feb. 1689. She apparently died for he married (2) at Westfield, Oct. 1738, Eunice Judd, of Northampton, born Feb. 1702, the daughter of Samuel and Martha (Strong) Judd. She died between May 1770 and Sept. 1795. Samuel's will recorded at Northampton was abstracted by Junius Hanchett as follows:

"Dated Aug. 23 1769, Samuel Hanchet of Westfield, being advanced in years, etc. To my wife Eunice 1/3 real and personal estate except that hereafter disposed of. To daughter Sarah Strong, wife of Joel Strong, 10 pounds besides what she already has been paid. Wife Eunice and son Moses were made executors. Signed in presence of Eldad Taylor, Thankful Taylor and Thankful Taylor, Jr. The will proved in court held 7 Nov. 1768."

From the above will it appears that son Moses obtained the major portion of the estate and the daughter Sarah was to have obtained her share during her father's lifetime. That the latter did not occur is shown by the following abstract of the will of Eunice supplied by Junius T. Hanchett.

"I, Eunice Hanchett, lately of Westfield in the County of Hampshire, now of Northampton, widow, being aged, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, do this tenth of May 1770, make and publish this last will and testament in the following manner. I give to my only son, Moses, of Westfield, one shilling lawful money to be paid to him within one month from and after my decease by my executrix, etc. And all the residue of my estate, real and personal, I give etc. to my only daughter Sarah, the wife of Joel Strong of Northampton to have, etc. forever.

"The reason for making the difference in the distribution, being that my husband, father of Moses and Sarah left almost all of his estate to Moses and Jane, intending to alter the will but dying before carrying out his purpose. Daughter Sarah being the executrix. Witnesses, Quartus Pomeroy, Martin Ely and Joseph Clark."

Her

Mark

Jane must be an error for Lois, the wife of Moses. Both the Loomis Genealogy and the Strong Genealogy state that the wife of Joel Strong was Eunice Hanchet. That this is an error is shown by the fact that both Samuel and his wife, Eunice, refer to their daughter, Sarah, as the wife of Joel Strong. Further, Eunice specifically refers to Sarah as her only daughter and Moses as her only son. This indicates that both daughter Eunice and son Samuel Jr. had died.

Children of 1st wife:

i. Samuel[4], b. 29 Apr. 1723, Westfield, MA. Apparently dy.

Children of 2nd wife, b. Westfield:

ii. Eunice, b. 10 Apr. 1740; d. 5 Apr. 1747.
16. iii. Moses, b. 4 Aug. 1741.
17. iv. Sarah, b. 1 Oct. 1742.

8. ESTHER[3]HANCHETT (John[2]Thomas[1]), born 7 Aug. 1678 at Westfield, MA; died at Suffield, CT, 29 June 1715. She married at Suffield, 16 May 1700, Samuel Granger, born 2 Aug. 1668 at Newbury, MA, son of Lancelot and Joanna (Adams) Granger. He died at Suffield 22 Apr. 1721. Samuel was a farmer. It should be noted that The Granger Genealogy confuses Esther's father with the John Hanchet of Boston. In the Barbour Collection of Suffield records in the Granger section this Esther is five times referred to as Ellen and only three times as Esther. In the record of her marriage to Samuel she is called Ellen while in the record of the intentions she is Esther. In the same Collection in the Hanchett section she is always called Esther.

Children, all born in Suffield:

9. JOHN[3]HANCHETT (John[2]Thomas[1]), born at Westfield, MA 16 Nov. 1679; died at Suffield, CT, 14 Oct. 1761. He married at Suffield, 26 Feb. 1706/07 Lydia Hayward. She died in Suffield in June 1777, aged 94. Her ancestry is established by the following data. 1. The only children of Joseph and Elizabeth Hayward recorded in the Concord, MA records are James, born 3 Jan. 1681 and Simeon, born June 1691. No evidence for the hiatus in the records between 1681 and 1691 has been found. 2. On 2 Jan. 1699/1700 Joseph Hayward gave bond for the guardianship of his minor children in connection with the settlement of the estate of their maternal grandfather, Nathaniel Treadway. The children named were; Ebenezer, age 20, James age 19, Simeon, age 16, Lydia, age 14 and Prudence, age 2. (Middlesex Records, Docket 10986.) 3. In a deed acknowledged 14 July 1715, John Hanchet and his wife Lydia, of Suffield, CT grant their share of the property left by Nathaniel Treadway, (Middlesex Deeds, 17:499). 4. Walter Haynes and his wife Elizabeth came to New England, sailing from Southampton, England on the Confidence, 14 Apr. 1638. Their daughter, Suffrance, married Nathaniel Treadway. (Walter Haynes and His Descendants. Francis Haynes. 1929.)

John was born in Westfield but his family moved shortly to Suffield, CT where he remained all his life. Since John was the only son of Deacon John to raise a family he is, with his father, the ancestor of all of the Suffield branch of the family. No will has been found for John and it would appear that the estate was distributed before his death.

The following quotation from the Hanchett history prepared by David Hanchett, No. 175, given by Junius T. Hanchett, is significant: "Previous to his (Deacon John's) death he had made arrangments with a son for his own and for his wife's support. After his death, the son died before the mother and the son's widow married a second time. The papers for her support became missing and she was turned out of the house and home. Her son John then took her to his home and with his brother, Joseph, supported her." David was not completely accurate in his statement for two of John's sons died not only before their mother but before the death of John. Thus the widow who turned out Lydia from her home must have been either the widow of Zacheus or Ezra. This is confirmed by David's statement that the widow remarried shortly. Junius states that the widow of Zacheus married Samuel Granger and Ezra's widow married Charles Granger. The latter marriage is found in the Suffield records but the only evidence for the former is a deed signed in Suffield in 1777 where all the children of Zacheus, Sr., but the son Zacheus, sign a quit claim to property of their mother, Mary Granger. That Ezra's widow was the one who turned Lydia out is sugested by the fact that Deacon John's home-lot was in the possession of Betsy Hanchett, No. 52 ii, the grandaughter of Ezra, at her death.

Two deeds involving descendants of Deacon John give much information about them. A deed signed in Suffield, 6 Feb. 1772 (Suffield Deeds, BK 5:393) in which heirs of Deacon John Hanchett, late of Suffield, quit claim to John Hanchett, of Suffield, certain parcels of land in Suffield was signed by Ebenezer Hanchett, John Roe, Lidea Roe, Joseph Hanchett, Beulah Hanchett, Seth Hanchett, Lidea Roe, Hannah Stannard and Zacheus Hanchett. Lidea, Hannah and the Hanchett men are all children of Deacon John. Beulah was the daughter of the deceased Zacheus. The second deed signed 4 June 1778 (Suffield Deeds, BK 5:394) in which heirs of Deacon John quit claim to John Hanchett, of Suffield, parcels of land formerly the property of Deacon John was signed by Timothy Burbank, Esther Burbank, Rhoda Hanchett, Abigail Hanchett, Elias Harmon, Eunice Harmon, Ezra Hanchett, John Landon, Mary Landon, Silvanus Hanchett, Daniel Curtis, Abel Curtis, Sibel Hanchett, Ebenezer Sheldon and Huldah Sheldon. Of these Esther was the daughter of Deacon John, Rhoda, Abigail and Ezra were children of the deceased Ezra and the rest were children of the deceased Zacheus and the spouses of the girls.

Children, all born in Suffield:

13. THOMAS[4]HANCHETT(Thomas[3,2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 23 Jan. 1713; died there in 1764. He married, 20 Sept. 1753 Abigail Stiles, born 26 Mar 1724 daughter of Isaac and Mary (Bucks) Stiles. She died at Westfield, 7 Apr. 1754 and he married (2) at Westfield, 3 Oct. 1754, Eleanor Campbell who survived him and married 8 May 1765, Samuel Hayes. Although JTH apparently searched extensively and KMS checked the Westfield and adjacent records more recently no evidence of the parentage of Eleanor has been found. It is probable that the Robert Campbell who witnessed Thomas' will was a relative.

Thomas, born in Suffield, appears many times in the Springfield Deed Books as of Westfield. Especially significant are four deeds made the same day, 27 Apr. 1757, which were apparently made in preparation for a move to Blandford, a new town cut out of Westfield. In a deed dated 3 Apr. 1758, Thomas Hanchet, of Blandford, sold land in Westfield which had belonged to his father (Springfield Deeds, BK Z:265). Thomas did not remain long at Blandford for he sold his holdings there in 1761 when he was "of Westfield". After his return to Westfield he bought property with Matthew Laflan on which there was a sawmill and a grist mill. The deed dated 9 Apr. 1961 was for 170 pounds. The next year, 5 July 1762, they sold the property for 380 pounds, a good profit. He did not live long after this. No date has been found for his death but he made his will in 1763 and it was admitted to probate, 8 Nov. 1764. His will which was copied from the original in Northampton, MA Box 66, File 49, by JTH, reads as follows:

In the Name of God, Amen, I, Thomas Hanchet of Westfield, in the County of Hampshire and Province of Massachusetts Bay in New England this 20th of April, 1763, in the third year of his Majesty's reign, being weak in body but sound of mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body do make and ordain this my last will and testament. My soul I recommend to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial and as to my worldly estate that God hath blessed me with in this life give, demise and dispose of in the manner and form following:

Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife, Eleanor Hanchet, 50 pounds lawful money out of the note that Elias and Stephen Wilcoks owe me when payable as will appear by the same.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife, Eleanor, the whole improvement of my real and personal estate until my daughter, Eunice Hanchett, arrives at 18, provided she live so long and then it is my will that my wife have the improvement of one third of my whole estate real and personal during her natural life.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son Thomas Hanchet 2/3 of my real and personal estate when he shall arrive at the age of 18 years and after my wife's decease then I give and demise to my son Thomas the other third part of my estate to him forever, provided he pay my daughter, Eunice, a legacy of 40 pounds which I shall hereafter give her. In case my son fail in paying my said daughter said legacy after he arrives at the age of 21, then for her my daughter to take the land as if I had made no will.

Item. I give to my daughter, Eunice Hanchett, the improvement of the third part of my real estate and personal estate after she arrives at the age of 18 years until my son arrives at the age of 21 years and also I give and bequeath to my well beloved daughter, Eunice Hanchett, 40 pounds of lawful money when she arrives at 21 years.

Item. It is my earnest will and meaning that my just debts and funeral charges be paid out of my personal estate.

Item. I now ordain and make and constitute my well beloved wife Eleanor Hanchett sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

I hereby ratify and confirm this last will and testament the year and day afore mentioned.

16. MOSES[4]HANCHETT (Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 4 Aug. 1741; died there 5 Jan. 1825. He married at Westfield, 21 Dec. 1767, Lois Loomis, born at Westfield, 10 Aug. 1744 daughter of Joshua and Abigail (Langdon) Loomis. She died 7 June 1792.

There are a great many deeds recorded in Springfield, MA to and from the three Moses Hanchett, father, son and grandson. JTH apparently examined most of them and KMS looked at all of them on film at The Genealogical Society Library in Salt Lake City. It is not possible to be certain which Moses is involved in all cases. None are especially significant except one from Moses, Sr. to Moses, Jr. dated 6 Apr. 1819 is important. It must be from this Moses to Moses (29) and in it is the statement, "reserving to himself the improvement of the whole during his life". Moses, Sr. was 78 at the time and this deed probably explains the fact that no will has been found for him.

This Moses also appears in the Suffield, CT deed book but there is no other evidence that he was ever in Suffield. Apparently this was land he inherited from his father, Samuel.

Children:

27. i. Samuel[5], b. 20 Sept. 1768.
ii. Eunice, b. 5 July 1771; d. 5 July 1772.

17. SARAH[4]HANCHETT (Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 1 Oct. 1742; died there 20 Jan. 1799. She married 30 May 1764 in Westfield, Joel Strong born 1 Sept. 1736 son of Nathaniel Jr. and Miriam (Sheldon) Strong. Apparently Joel was married earlier to another Sarah for in the Westfield Records, B:8 are recorded two children of Joel and Sarah Strong, Ruth, born 15 Mar. 1762 and Eleazar born 26 Sept. 1763. After Sarah's death he married (2) 27 Mar. 1800. Peggy Loomis. The Loomis and Strong genealogies have stated that Eunice not Sarah Hanchett married Joel. That this is an error is shown by the following facts. l. A Eunice Hanchett is reported in the Westfield VR as dying 5 May 1747. 2. Neither Samuel nor his wife, Eunice, mentions a daughter Eunice in their wills while both of them mention their daughter, Sarah, wife of Joel Strong. This error is continued in the Alvord genealogy where Luther Alvord is reported to marry Eunice Strong, daughter of Joel and Eunice Strong. Joel was a farmer in Westfield and Northampton.

Children:

i. Child[5], d. Apr. 1765.
ii. Nathaniel, bp. 7 Sept. 1766; d. 5 Apr. 1766.
iii. Eunice, bp. 2 Mar. 1777; m. Luther Alvord of Northampton.

18. JOHN[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT. 1 Nov. 1709; died there 8 or 9 Dec. 1796. He married at Suffield, 5 July 1733, Mary Sheldon, born in 1713 daughter of Thomas and Mary (Smith) Sheldon. She died 7 Aug. 1795, aged 82.

We quote from JTH's record of David's (No. 175) history, "He (John) left the home of his father and grandfather when about 21 years of age, in 1730, and went about two miles west and a little north and settled a choice piece of new land in the then dense forest for a home for himself and posterity. Here he raised a family of nine children and made improvements upon his farm erecting buildings, subduing the forest, laboring hard and preparing a home for the coming generations. His house and barn remained until since my recollection (Note, David Hanchett was born in 1820). The barn was owned and used by my father for storing hay and stable stock. Here also he died after attaining the age of 87 years. His wife was spared as his companion for over 60 years and shared with him the toils and privations of pioneer life in the forest."

Although Lt. John never was a selectman nor a deacon he was a Surveyor of Highways and in 1747/48 he was a tithing man. He was early known as Ensign and on the gravestone of his daughter, Mary, appears, "Mary Hanchet, daughter of Ensign John Hanchett, who died Oct 20 1751, aged 17 years." Later he was known at Lt. John and his stone in the West Suffield cemetery reads, " In memory of Lt. John Hanchet, who died 8th Dec. 1796, aged 87 year." John helped administer the estates of his brothers, Zacheus and Ezra and was guardian of Seth and Joseph, minor children of Zacheus.

Again we quote from David's history, "My great-grandmother was noted as a very zealous Christian in her day. She was connected with the Congregational Church but insisted upon her right to speak out in meeting, which they did not allow. So she was once led out of meeting for transgressing their rules. As she was led down the steps from the church, she said to the two men who led her, 'If either of you die a natural death the Lord has not spoken to me.' An old man of Suffield who had known of this told it to me when I was young and gave the names of the men and said neither died a natural death. She was one of five to constitute the first Baptist Church in Suffield."

John's will was proved at Hartford. Junius reports his will as follows:

"Will of John Hanchet, of Suffield, deceased, exhibited by David Hanchett, executor. Inventory is dated Dec. 29, 1796, and describes John as of Suffield. The personality amounted to 75 pounds. The will is dated Dec. 23 1793. Leaves to his wife Mary 5 shillings having made provision for support and maintence by a lease from David, June 26 1787. To son Luke 5 sh. and a deed of part of estate. To Oliver, 5 sh. To daughter Rachel 31 pounds besides what she has before received. To daughter Hannah 20 pounds besides what she has received. To daughter Mary 30 pounds besides what she has received. The rest to David the executor. The will was allowed at court held Jan 2, 1787."

20. LYDIA[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT Sept. 1714. No death date found. She married, at Suffield, 25 Feb. 1733/34, Isaac Remington born at Suffield, 9 Aug. 1712, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Dudley) Remington. He died at Suffield 27 Dec. 1755. The inventory of his estate was made by Joseph Hanchett, Lydia's brother. After his death she married (2) 13 May 1758, John Rowe (Roe) son of John and Joanna (Burbank) Rowe. John and Lydia signed a deed, 3 Oct. 1771, quit claiming her right as the heir of her father's property. There is no evidence of any children by Rowe.

Children, all born at Suffield:

i. Isaac[5], b. 25 Nov. 1734/35; d. 15 Nov. 1755.
ii. Simeon, b. 21 Feb. 1736; d. 23 Aug. 1758.
iii. Benjamin, b. 14 Nov. 1739.
iv. Elihu, b. 11 Aug. 1743.
v. Lydia, b. 19 Apr. 1746.
vi. Mary, b. 11 Sept. 1750.
vii. Dan, b. 25 Aug. 1753.

21. EBENEZER[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 1 Sept. 1716; died at Salisbury, CT 1 May 1788. This date is given on his gravestone in Lime Rock cemetery and states, aged 72 years. He married Sarah Fuller at Suffield, 19 July 1739.

Ebenezer remained in Suffield until after the birth of his third child but on 11 Sept. 1744 he shows in the Canaan, CT deed book and his fourth child Lucy, was born 18 Aug. 1745 in Canaan. Soon he moved to Salisbury, CT for he bought land there by a deed dated 15 Apr. 1746. Just when he moved is uncertain for in this first deed he is referred to as "a bloomer of Canaan." However, he sold land in Canaan 23 Sept. 1747 and was then "of Salisbury".

The first evidence of his lifelong association with the iron industry was the above deed where he was called a bloomer. In 1748 Ebenezer joined with a group consisting of his brother, Joseph, a brother-in-law Timothy Burbank (husband of his sister Esther) and Thomas Austin in the purchase of "Lamb's Forge" the principal forge in Salisbury. Undoubtedly this forge was involved in the forging of the chain which was strung across the Hudson River during the Revolutionary War to interfere with the British ships going up the river.

About 1761 the men of Salisbury and Sharon became involved in the forming of settlements in Vermont. There is no evidence that Ebenezer ever left Salisbury but several times he was elected selectman of the town of Middlebury, VT at meetings held in Salisbury. The town records of Middlebury remained in Salisbury until 1783. Ebenezer's son Jonah did live in Addison Co., VT and another son, Amos owned land there. There is no evidence that Amos went to VT but his son, John did.

Ebenezer's will, dated 18 Mar. 1788 in Salisbury, was filed in Sharon but the original is now in the Archives in the State Library in Hartford, CT. Junius Hanchett never saw the original will and his knowledge of it came from a transcription sent to George Edwin Hanchett (No. 362) by the Sharon town clerk. Two errors were made in the transcription. First, the date of the will was misread as 1755 instead of 1788. Examination of the original document reveals why this error was made, the writing is poor. Second, the second son was reported as Timothy instead of Simeon. This error was even more careless but the S does look like a T and the transcriber apparently added the word "My" of "My third son" which followed Simeon, to the end of Simeon to get the thy of Timothy. This is an excellent example of how careless transcription can lead to error and confusion. A further error was the statement that the will was not presented for probate until 1795. Ebenezer's sons Ebenezer, Jr., and Jonah with Simeon Jaqua were bonded for inventory 4 June 1788. The 1795 date was for the probate of the will of Ebenezer, Jr.

The children of Ebenezer were carefully named in order in his will and all were given an equal share, which came to 143 pounds, 7 shillings and 10 1/2 pence at the distribution. Special provision was made for the 2nd daughter, Lucy, who was then forty-three and unmarried. To quote the will, "Reserving the priviledge of so much of my house as my daughter Lucy shall necessary want for herself to live in as long as she pleases and to have her provisions out of my stock of provisions for one whole year after my death. She doing her equal part of the harvesting." From this Junius concluded that she never married. However, that she married Samuel Gridley of Berlin, CT 2 Oct. 1799 is shown by Salisbury VR and by her mention as Lucy Gridley in the will of her Uncle Joseph Hanchett, dated at Salisbury 22 Nov. 1799.

Another significant document is a Salisbury deed dated 22 Mar. 1791 in which heirs of Ebenezer sell the Forge inherited from Ebenezer to Samuel and Ezra Tupper of Salisbury. Samuel is probably the only child of Ebenezer's daughter Sarah and Ezra was his cousin. The signers of the deed were: Sarah Tupper, Ebenezer Hanchett, Lucy Hanchett, Hannah Walker, Zebulon Walker, Simeon Hanchett, Simeon Jaqua and John Hanchtt, all of Salisbury.

All the signers of the deed were children of Ebenezer, Sr., except Zebulon Walker who was the husband of Hannah, Simeon Jaqua, the husband of Amos' daughter Ruth and John Hanchett who was the son of Amos. The reason why Simeon Jaqua and John Hanchett signed becomes clear from the following. On 22 May 1788 Amos Hanchett, of Salisbury, signed a deed conveying his rights he inherited from his father Ebenezers' estate to Simeon Jaqua and his son John Hanchett of Salisbury.

Children, 1st three born at Suffield, the 4th at Canaan, others at Salisbury.

36. i. Amos[5], b. 16 Feb. 1738/39.
    ii. Ebenezer, b. 6 June 1741; d. 18 Nov. 1741.
37. iii Sarah, b. 15 Feb. 1742.
    iv. Lucy, b. 18 Aug. 1745; m. 2 Oct. 1799, Samuel Gridley of Berlin, CT.

38. v. Ebenezer, b. 7 Feb. 1747/8, vi. Hannah, b. 27 May 1750; m. 7 June 1773 Zebulon Walker and lived in Salisbury. Had four children according to the 1800 census.
39. vii. Simeon, b. 3 July 1753.
viii. Ruth, b. 3 July 1755; d. 6 Nov. 1759.
40. ix. Jonah, b. 30 Jan. 1758.

22. ZACHEUS[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 30 Apr. 1715; died before 20 Nov. 1758 when the inventory of his estate was presented. He married, at Suffield, 10 Apr. 1738, Mary Sikes, born at Suffield, 14 Sept. 1714 daughter of Victory and Mary (King) Sikes. After the death of Zacheus she apparently married Samuel Granger. No date has been found but the records of Wm L. Loomis in the Suffield Town Hall state that she married a Granger. At a court held 13 Sept. 1762, Samuel Granger was appointed guardian of Eunice and Beulah Hanchett and refered to as their step-father. No death date has been found for Mary but she must have died before Mar. 1777 when her children disposed of her thirds.

Dying at thirty-nine Zacheus had not been active in civil matters but served as Surveyer of Highways for Suffield in 1747/48. He appears several times in the Suffield Deed book but the most interesting feature is the variety of names under which he appeared. Usually he was Zach but in one deed (Suffield Deeds BK 1:21) he is called Zacharias Hanchett but the signature was Zachis.

At the time his probate was presented at Hartford, CT, 20 Nov. 1758. his wife, Mary, was awarded administration and gave bond with John Hanchett of Suffield. Although Zacheus' father was still alive this was probably John, Jr. Certainly Ensign John was the one appointed guardian of Zacheus' son Seth. aged 15, 5 Dec. 1766 for Deacon John was then dead.

On 19 Apr. 1759, Zacheus, Jr., though not yet 21, presented an inventory of his father's estate and was appointed joint administrator with his mother, Mary Hanchett, of his father's estate. This record of Mary as Hanchett with the above mentioned record of Samuel Granger's appointment as guardian of her daughters places the date of their marriage quite closely.

After the death of Zacheus and the remarriage of his wife many of the children followed their Uncles and Aunts to Sharon and Salisbury. Abiel married Daniel Curtis at Sharon in 1762 and her sister, Mary married John Landon, also of Sharon the same year. Their brother, Sylvanus also married in Sharon.

Children, all born at Suffield:

41. i. Zacheus[5], b. 5 Sept. 1738.
42. ii. Abiel, b. 15 July 1740.
43. iii. Mary, b. 13 Dec. 1742.
44. iv. Sylvanus, b. 24 Mar. 1745.
45. v. Eunice, b. 25 Apr. 1747.
46. vi. Beulah, b. 19 Nov. 1749.
47. vii. Seth, b. 3 Dec. 1751.
48. viii. Joseph, b. 16 Jan. 1753.

49. ix. Huldah, b. 3 Jan. 1755.
50. x. Sib(b)le, b. 4 Jan. 1758.

23. EZRA[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 29 May 1721; died there 10 Nov. 1758. He married at Suffield, 16 Apr. 1754, Abigail Coe, of Durham, CT daughter of Joseph and Abigail (Robinson) Coe. After Ezra's death she married (2) 29 May 1760, Charles Granger at Suffield, the son of Benajah and Obedience (Smith) Granger. They had six children.

As we saw in the biography of his father, No. 9, it appears that John had deeded his home-lot to Ezra with the condition that Ezra was to care for John and his wife Lydia during their lifetime. Ezra's untimely death and the apparent loss of the document providing for the parent's care resulted in the ejection of Lydia from her home.

We know little about this man. His estate was probated in Hartford and his wife, Abigail, was made administrix with John Hanchett, probably her husband's brother although Ezra's father was still alive. Ezra's oldest child, Rhoda, was only three at his death and Ezra, Jr., was a posthumas child. A number of guardianships are recorded in Hartford.

Ezra served several short periods in the army as reported in the Massachusetts Archives of the French and Indian Wars.

Children, born at Suffield:

51. i. Rhoda[5], b. 8 Mar. 1755.
ii. Abigail, b. 10 May 1757; m. 10 Mar. 1780, Amos Noble, b. Apr. 1756, son of John & Elizabeth (Remington) Noble. He died 5 Dec. 1834.
52. iii. Ezra, b. 10 Dec. 1758.

24. JOSEPH[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 12 Apr. 1723; died there 8 Dec. 1800. He married at Suffield, Sept. 1759, the widow, Mrs. Sarah Thompson, of Goshen. In 1748 he was joint owner of Lamb's Forge in Salisbury with his brother Ebenezer, Timothy Burbank, (the husband of their sister, Esther) and Thomas Austin. The iron industry was important in Salisbury at that time.

When his mother, Lydia, was turned out of her home, he joined with his brother, John to support her. The name of Joseph Hanchet appears on grants made to Salisbury men for land in Vermont. It is uncertain whether this man or his nephew, the son of Zacheus, was meant but it appears probable that it was this man. However, there is no evidence either man ever went to Vermont.

Joseph stayed in Salisbury until he was quite old but he returned to Suffield and died in the home of his nephew, Capt. Oliver Hanchet who executed his will written in Salisbury, 22 Dec. 1799 and probated 8 Jan. 1801. His wife must have died earlier for she was not mentioned in the will. That he had no children is stated by his grand nephew, John Harmon, and borne out by his failure to mention any in his will. Certainly he was not the father of Oliver, No. 32, as surmised by Junius. He bequeathed land and money to his living brothers and sisters and to many nephews and nieces. He also mentioned Charles, Samuel and Ezra Thompson of Nine Partners, NY. These may have been sons of his wife by her first husband and at least must have been her relatives.

Ref. III; LI; Joseph's original will on file in the Archives of the CT State Library.

25. HANNAH[4]HANCHETT (John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 1 Oct. 1728 at Suffield, CT. She married there, 9 Nov. 1748 to John Stannard, Jr. In the will of her brother, Joseph, made in 1799 he refers to his sister, Hannah Huxley, but no evidence of such a marriage has been found.

Children, all born in Suffield:

i. Hannah[5], b. 6 May 1749.
ii. Eunice, b. 14 Nov. 1750.
iii. Rebecca, b. 11 Nov. 1752
iv. John, b. 4 Nov 1754.
v. Libeus, b. 7 Dec. 1756; m. Eunice Pomeroy, b. 26 May 1760.
vi. Rosil, b. 1 Feb. 1759.
vii. Pliney, b. 22 Sept. 1760.
viii. Jeheil, b. 3 Dec. 1762.
ix. Claudeus, b. 12 Sept. 1764.
x. Lydia, b. 29 Aug. 1767.
xi. Chloe, b. 31 Oct. 1769.

26. THOMAS[5]HANCHETT (Thomas[4,3,2,1]), born 13 Apr. 1759 at Westfield, MA; died at Southwick, MA 15 Aug. 1804. No marriage has been found but his will mentions his wife Susannah. Further, in the Southwick Congregational Church a record of the death of a wife of Thomas Hanchet, 5 Jan. 1791 is found. Thomas, No. 13, died at an unknown date but his estate was probated in 1738. His widow was mentioned in the early hearings but was reported dead before the last report. Thus, since no Thomas other than this man and his son were alive in 1791 this Thomas must have had a first wife who was the mother of the first three children.

After the death of this Thomas, Susannah married, in the Suffield Church, 31 Jan. 1805, Nathaniel Eaton, born July 1761, son of Nathaniel and Kezie (Lawrence) Eaton. On 1 Oct. 1805 when the court awarded her dower she was referred to as "Susannah Eaton, lately wife of the deceased." The Nobles lived in Southwick at least until 1817 when they appeared there in a deed. Later they moved to West Springfield where Nathaniel died 1 Dec. 1823 as shown in his probate record. No death record has been found for Susannah. This Thomas Hanchett was the fifth Thomas in direct line from Deacon Thomas. Since his son, Thomas, died unmarried the sequence stopped here.

We quote from Junius Hanchett, "The first we hear of young Thomas is as a Revolutionary soldier. He was a private in Capt. Nathan Rowlee's Company, Lt. Col. Timothy Robinson's detachment of Hampshire County Militia---He also enlisted 21 Sept. 1777, discharged 17 Oct. 1777. This record shows that he was at Ticonderoga shortly before Burgoyne took the stronghold but was not there at the time. The Saratoga record shows that he was not there in time for the first of the two great battles but took part in the second, one of the most brilliant battles of the War which led to the surrender of Burgoyne and his entire Command."

The first evidence of Thomas in Southwick is found in a deed dated 17 Apr. 1780 when, listed as "of Southwick" he sells land in Westfield to John Phelps of Westfield. The only deed found in which he purchased land in Southwick is one dated in 1781 where he bought land jointly with Timothy Noble. This Timothy, with his brother Amos, witnessed Thomas' will and Timothy was appointed guardian of the Hanchett children after Thomas' death. One might surmise a relationship with Timothy but none has been found. Thomas Hanchett's will which is on file in Northampton, MA, is quoted by JTH as follows:

"IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN, I, Thomas Hanchet, of Southwick, in the County of Hampshire and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, yoeman, being weak in body but sound in mind, calling in my mind my own mortality in belief of the doctrines of the Gospel of Christ, am apprenhensive that I have not long to live in this world and after commending my soul to God that gave it--and my body to the grave--do make and ordain, appoint and constitute this my last will and testament, viz.:

"In the first place I give and bequeath to my wife Susannah Hanchet one-third of all my real estate during the term of her natural life for her use and improvement and then to be disposed as I shall order and direct in this my last will and testament.

"Also I give and bequeath to my eldest son Thomas Hanchet Jr., the whole of my real estate of every kind not herein otherwise disposed of.

"Also I give and bequeath to my 2nd son Heman Hanchet $100 to be paid by my executor at the time he shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

"Also I bequeath to my third son Henry $100 to be paid by my executor at the time he shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

"Also I give and bequeath to my fourth son Ebenezer Hanchet $50 to be"paid by my executor at the time he shall arrive at the age of 21 years,

"Also I give and bequeath to my fifth son Salem Hanchet $10 to be paid by my executor at the time when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

"Also I give and bequeath to my sixth son Amos $50 to be paid by my executor at the time when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

"And I give and bequeath to my eldest son Thomas Hanchet the one third part of my real estate which I have already given to my wife Susannah his use and possession at her decease.

"Furthermore, I herby order, ordain and direct my eldest son Thomas Hanchet to pay my just debts and also I hereby constitute and appoint my son Thomas Hanchet executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 8th day of August, 1804

THOMAS HANCHET

"In the presence of Isaac Coit, Amos Noble and Timothy Noble."

While we have no date for either of Thomas' marriages nor for the birth of any of his children, except Ebenezer, we can fix approximatetly all of these dates. From his will we obtain the order of the birth of his sons. In the Southwick Church the deaths of two Thomas Hanchetts are reported, the first, 15 Apr. 1804, which must the father, and the second, 20 Apr. 1813 which must be Thomas Jr., the son. In the biography of Heman we see he died 10 Feb. 1843, aged 59 y, 6 m, 10 d, according to his stone. The Southwick Church reports Henry's death in 1826 aged 38 y. It appears most probable that Thomas Jr., was born late in 1782 and Heman probably about Aug. 1783 and Henry about 1788. Ebenezer, the ancestor of Junius, was the first child of Susannah and born 6 May 1794. Salem's birth is uncertain but he must have been born about 1795. Amos appears in the 1850 census as 54, which would make his birth as ca. 1796. In the Southwick Church is the record of an unnamed child of Thomas Hanchet, died 15 Aug. 1803, age 3 y.

Children of unknown 1st wife:

i. Thomas[6], b. prob. late in 1782; d. 20 Apr. 1813 at Southwick, MA. No evidence of a marriage.
53. ii. Heman, b. ca. Aug. 1783.
54. iii. Henry, b. ca. 1788.

Children of Susannah:

55. iv. Ebenezer, b. 6 May 1794.
56. v. Salem, b. ca. 1795.
57. vi. Amos, b. ca. 1796.
vii. Child, d. 15 Aug. 1803, age 3 y.

27. SAMUEL[5]HANCHETT (Moses[4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 20 Sept. 1768; died there 11 June 1806. Intentions to marry for Samuel and Esther were published in Westfield 29 Jan. 1792. She was born at Westfield 31 May 1772 the daughter of James, Jr. and Elizabeth (Laflin) Rising. After Samuel's death she married a Bailey.

Few official records have been found for this family. However, important information came from a letter received by Junius Hanchett from Miss Annie May Hanchett, daughter of Fred Hanchett of West Lebanon, VT and grandaughter of Henry, the son of Samuel. While she did not know the name of Henry's father she knew that his mother was Esther. She also knew that Henry was a small child when his father died and that Henry had a brother Fred. Furthermore, she stated that Esther Bailey survived her second husband and lived with her son Henry in Plainfield, NH.

Children:

i. Frederick[6], b. ca. 1793/94. He m. 3 July 1823 at Suffield, CT Sophia Howe of West Springield, MA. She d. in Feb. 1824. He is said to have gone to Pollet, VT but no record has been found. He served in Foote's Regiment in the War of 1812.
ii. Girl, d. 22 Feb. 1795.
58. iii. Henry, b. 15 May 1797.

28. LOIS[5]HANCHETT (Moses[4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born 14 May 1776 at Westfield, MA; married at Westfield in 1796, Jonathan Larabee, born at Westfield, 9 Jan. 1774, son of Tyler and Abigail Larabee. He died in Westfield 13 Oct. 1831, aged 56. This family appears in the Federal census for Westfield, as follows:

1820. Males: 1-10/16, 1-45 plus. Females: 2-u/10, 1-10/16, 1-26/45.
1830. Males: 2-u/10, 1-50/60. Females: 1-5/10, 1-15/20, 1-50/60.

The younger children in 1830 must be grandchildren. One of the males under 5 in 1830 may be the Jonathan Laraby who appears in the 1850 Westfield census, age 32 with a wife Mary age 31 and four children.

Ref. VIII; XV.

29. MOSES[5]HANCHETT (Moses[4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born in Westfield, MA 29 July 1779; died there 4 Jan. 1856. He married at East Granby, CT 21 Feb. 1806 Elizabeth Trask, who died 4 Jan. 1833, aged 45 years.

Numerous deeds are recorded in Springfield, MA involving the three Moses Hanchetts but none contain significant data. The Westfield Records contain the births of the children in this family with the statement, "The foregoing entered at the request of Moses Hanchet, Sept. 8 1836."

In the 1850 census Moses Hanchett appeared in the Westfield poorhouse and apparently died there in 1856 aged 75 y, 5 m, and 15 d.

30. LUKE[5]HANCHETT (John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 3 Feb. 1837/38 at Suffield, CT; died there 22 Sept. 1821. He married 16 Oct. 1766 Sarah Harmon, born at Suffield 4 Mar. 1744 daughter of John and Mary (Austin) Harmon. She died at Suffield, 14 Sept. 1834.

No will exists for Luke but a large file of admininistration papers are in the Archives at the Connecticut State Library. These were made as the result of a petition his son Enos presented at a Court held in Suffield 22 Nov. 1821. Distributions were made at this court and subsequent Courts held 14 Feb. 1823 and 14 Feb. 1827. In these distributions no mention was made of sons Isaac and Luke, Jr., nor of the daughters Sarah and Lydia. From gravestones we know that these girls died before their father. We have no death dates for the sons although Luke Jr. was said by Frank E. Hanchett to have died in the War of 1812 but no such record has been found. An Isaac Hanchett with two females appeared in the 1800 census for Cayuga Co., NY, but nothing further has been found and probably he died before his father.

32. OLIVER[5]HANCHETT (John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 8 June 1741 at Suffield, CT; died there 26 May 1816. He married 29 May 1766, Rachel Gillet, born Mar. 1746, the daughter of Daniel and Rachel (Southwell) Gillet; died 28 Mar. 1821 at Suffield.

Oliver Hanchett's military career began as early as 4 Mar. 1757 when he enlisted in Col. Lyman's Regiment. He became a Sergeant shortly and by 10 Aug. of that year, just after his sixteenth birthday he was made Lieutenant. With the outbreak of the Revolution Suffield formed a company in which Oliver was an Ensign and his brothers were privates. The company set out for Boston and apparently some of them were at the battle of Bunker Hill but is not known if any of the Hanchetts were there. John Harmon who was the Captain of the 10th Co., 2nd (Suffield) Reg. resigned and Oliver was commissioned Captain.

The commission was signed by John Hancock and remained in the families of Oliver's descendants until late in the 1970's when it was presented to the Suffield Historical Society by John C. Hanchett, No. 538, and his brother Thomas. We quote from Junius T. Hanchett regarding Oliver's military career:

"This 10th company was detached Sept. 1 1775 with Capt. Oliver Hanchett commanding to join the Quebec Expedition. Upon the capture of Fort Ticonderoga in 15 the project of invading Canada became popular both in Congress and in the Army. Gen. Montgomery being authorized to make the attempt by way of Lake Champlain, Washington organized an Expedition to cooperate with him by way of Kennebec and the Maine Woods. This force was composed of 13 companies of volunteers from the several New England Regiments around Boston and the Pennsylvania and Virginia riflemen lately arrived in camp. The total numbers of officers and men was about 1300. Col. Benedict Arnold was assigned to the command....The Connecticut company was commanded by Capt. Hanchett. "The fortunes of the day are aptly described in Capt. Hanchett's own words addressed to the Connecticut Legislature in a Memorial Address. 'Having arrived before Quebec, in endeavoring to take the city by storm, the Memorialist and most of his company who survived the attempt were taken and made prisoners and himself put in irons and continued in captivity until the month of October 1776.' During the captivity the men being out of funds and having to buy their supplies from their captors, Capt. Hanchett advanced of his own funds about $100 for which he was subsequently reimbursed by the Legislature."

Capt. Oliver's will, dated 1 Mar. 1815, filed in the Probate Office in Hartford refers to him as "late of Suffield". His son John Wilkes Hanchett was appointed executor at a court held 14 July 1816. His widow, Rachel, received her thirds while his daughters Lydia, Rachel and Nancy received $10 and daughter Julia $1. The residue went to the sons, John W. and Oliver Cromwell. The inventory filed 2 July 1816 was for $2284.64.

Children, all but the first born at Suffield:

74. i. Oliver[6] b. 19 Sept. 1763 st Stockbridge, MA, the illegitimate son of Oliver Hanchett of Suffield, CT and Sylvia Woodbridge, born 12 May 1745, daughter of Timothy and Abigail (Day) Woodbridge of Stockbridge, MA, (See Oliver, Jr.'s biography).
ii. Son, b. 26 July 1766; d. same day.
iii. Rachel, b. 3 June 1767; d. 18 Aug. 1769.
75. iv. Lydia, b. 11 June 1769.

33. DAVID[5]HANCHETT (John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, 8 June 1743; died there 4 Sept. 1819. He married at Suffield, 24 Oct. 1765 a Deborah Sheldon. The Sheldon Magazine states she was the daughter of David and Mary (Harmon) Sheldon, born 11 Dec. 1745. However, the only Deborah Sheldon, of the right age found in Barbour's Suffield records was born 15 Dec. 1745, the daughter of Phineas and Deborah (Hathaway) Sheldon. Both of their stones are to be found in the West Suffield Burying Ground. The old house built by David in 1765 at about the time of his marriage was standing in 1903 when Junius visited there. Their son Phineas raised his family in this house. David Hanchet, No.175, was born there and gives the following account of his grandparents.

"Here also David Hanchett, my grandfather, raised his family of twelve children. Building nearly opposite and across the street from his father in 1765, and after living in this house with his son for 54 years, grandfather died in his 77th year in the house he had built as a young man. In the same house my father (Phineas), was born and died. On a recent trip east I saw and entered the old house and perceived a line of fence built of chestnut rail timber in the spring of 1764 between himself and his brother Luke."

Junius further quotes from the record of David who reported that his grandfather was in the first Company that went from Suffield to Boston at the time of the Lexington Alarm. The Connecticut Military records credit him with four and eight days in this connection.

David's will on file at Hartford was dated 23 Nov. 1815 and states he was "of Suffield". He left property to his sons, John, David, Seth, Erastus and Phineas and to daughters, Deborah, Mary, Olive, Hannah and Betsey. Erastus was made executor.

Again we quote from David Hanchett's history. "I have an account book kept by my grandfather. This has dates from 1766 to 1813. At the last date my father was 21 and he seems after this to have kept the accounts. Arrangements were made about this time between grandfather and father by which father received a certain portion of the farm and became bound for the support of both grandfather and grandmother until their death. The balance of the farm was divided between Uncle Erastus and father by their payment of specific legacies to the other heirs. At the time of grandmother's death we tried to ascertain the number of her descendants and found between 260 and 270."

Children, all born in Suffield:

80. i. John[6], b. 10 Sept. 1766.
81. ii. Deborah, b. 17 May 1768.

35. MARY[5]HANCHETT (John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 16 Dec. 1749 at Suffield, CT; died at Rupert, Bennington Co., VT 10 Feb. 1841. She married 4 July 1771, Joel Sheldon, born at Suffield the son of Daniel and Mary (Harmon) Sheldon. He died at Rupert 25 Dec. 1829, age 84 years.

Children, all recorded at Rupert:

i. Mary[6], b. 15 Oct. 1773; d. 25 Aug. 1775.
ii. Joel, b. 28 Feb. 1775.
iii. Oliver, b. 16 Feb. 1777; d. 1779.

36. AMOS[5]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 16 Feb. 1739 at Salisbury, CT. The date of his death is uncertain. Junius Hanchett reasoned that because his name does not appear on the deed in which the heirs of his father disposed of their legacies in 1791 that he was dead at that time. We saw in his father's biography that Amos had disposed of his rights in 1788. Further, Amos was alive in 1799 as shown by a judgment recorded in the Orange Co. courthouse against Amos and his son Reuben, 3 Apr. 1799. Clarissa Hanchett, No. 193 ii, reported that Amos died in 1805. His marriage is recorded in Salisbury to Hannah Hawley or Holly, of Sharon, 1 Jan. 1761. She was born 15 June 1742 the daughter of Israel and Sarah (Cross) Hawley (Holly). The family name for his wife appears in the records spelled both ways and they had descendants with given names of Hawley and Holly.

New Hampshire records show that Amos, his father Ebenezer, his Uncle Joseph and his cousin Zacheus all were patentees of the town of Addison, VT. Town meetings were held in Salisbury, CT. Ebenezer was elected a selectman. However, there is no evidence that any of these men ever went to Vermont although Amos' son John and his brother, Jonah did. Amos served fourteen days in Capt. Lyman's company for the relief of Fort William during the French and Indian Wars.

Children, all data except for Ruth from Salisbury, VR:

90. i. Ruth[6], b. 29 Nov. 1761. Family bible.
91. ii. John, b. 28 Aug. 1764.
92. iii. Reuben, b. 6 Mar. 1769.
iv. Lydia, b. 5 Mar. 1771. Probably m. a Skinner*.
v. Amos, b. 31 Mar. 1773; d. 1803 at Deansboro, NY.
93. vi. Daniel, b. 14 Sept. 1775.
vii. Hannah, b. 5 Mar. 1778; d. at Sherburne, Chenango, Co., NY. 2 Aug. 1847; m. Dea. Simeon Powers who d. 27 Jan. 1847, age 69 y, 9 m. Child: Simeon, Jr., b. ca. 1798.
94. viii. Silas, b. 20 June 1780.
ix. Holly, b. 1789; d. 15 Jan. 1806.

*A letter from Nelson Daniel Hanchett, No.190, Lydia's (above) nephew, written in 1889 stated that his Hanchett aunts married Powers, Skinner and Jackways. We know that Ruth married Simeon Jaqua and Hannah married Simeon Powers. Thus it appears that Lydia married a Skinner, perhaps a brother of Mercy, Reuben's wife.

According to Dr. De Alton Hanchett, No 338, a grandson of Daniel, Amos and Holly died close together of a fever.

37. SARAH[5]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 15 Feb. 1742 at Suffield, CT. She married 1 Jan. 1766 Nathaniel Tupper, as his second wife. He was born at Sandwich, MA 24 Apr. 1726; died in Salisbury, CT 2 Jan. 1790.

Child of Sarah:

i. Samuel[6], b. 4 Nov. 1766.

38. EBENEZER[5]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Salisbury, CT 7 Feb. 1747; died there 6 May 1795. He married 31 Dec. 1767 Phoebe Holly (Hawley), the sister of the wife of his brother Amos. Ebenezer apparently lived his rather short life in Salisbury. George E. Hanchett, No. 362, of Monroe Co., WI who collected much Hanchett data, and who knew Cyrus Hanchett, No. 99 viii well, since they lived in the same county in WI, reported that Anson was the son of a Baptist clergyman. There is no other evidence for this but members of this branch of the family were Baptists.

Ebenezer apparently suffered a lengthy last illness which consumed much of his assets. The papers in the settlement of his estate included a list of debtors numbering 36 of whom at least five were identified as doctors serving him in his last illness. His estate was administered by his wife, Phoebe and Benjamin Thomas, probably the husband of his eldest daughter. His assets were inventoried at 340 pounds but his debts totaled more than 244 pounds. On 9 Mar. 1796 Phoebe and Benjamin Thomas were granted permission to sell land left by Ebenezer to meet the debts and did sell certain property for 200 pounds.

Children, all born in Salisbury:

i. Aseneth[6], b. 31 Dec. 1768; d. 8 Feb. 1844, at Groton, NY; m. Benjamin Thomas who d. 10 Feb. 1844. Both are buried in East Groton Cem. Children: 1. Hiram. 2. Marilla; m. Oriem Clark. 3. Matilda; m. Thomas Blodgett.

95. ii. Zilpha, b. 1 Dec. 1770.

iii. Enos, b. 9 Nov. 1772.

iv. Beulah, b. 2 Oct. 1774; bp. 2 Dec. 1774.

96. v. Cyrus, b. 5 Oct. 1776.

39. SIMEON[5]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 4 (or 7) Feb. 1753. No death record. He married 15 Aug. 1774 Mary Remington of Sheffield, MA, the daughter of Thomas Remington. In the list of men in the Sixth Brigade of CT Militia in the CT Military Record the name of Simeon Hanchet of Salisbury appears in the 14th Regiment commanded by Charles Burrel.

Children:

100. i. Ephriam[6], b. 7 Jan. 1770.

ii. Sarah, b. 25 Mar. 1775*.

iii. Simeon, Jr., b. 25 Dec. 1779*.

40. JONAH[5]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 30 Jan. 1758 at Salisbury, CT; died at Ridgeville, OH 6 May 1845. He probably married in 1781/82 Sarah Squires, born 11 May 1759 at Canaan, CT the daughter of Odel and Sarah Squires. No marriage nor death date for Sarah has been found. In 1790 Jonah's family included three males under 10 and four females.

In, Official Roster Soldiers of the American Revolution Buried in the State of Ohio, Columbus, 1928, we find, page 171, "Hanchet, Jonah (Cuyahoga Co.) Orderly Sgt. under Capts. Beebe and Bolens, Cols. Strong and Wadsworth, Conn. Line. Born 1768, Salisbury,Conn., married Sarah Squires, 1782. Died 1860. Cleveland, OH." The fact that the birth and death dates are in error casts doubt on the other data. Many DAR members have joined on the service of Jonah and all give Sarah Squires (or Squares) as his wife. Mrs. Winora Garney who joined the DAR in 1913 is perhaps the earliest to list Sarah as Jonah's wife. She filled out a pedigree chart (for KMS) in 1953 in which she listed Sarah as Jonah's wife. At the time KMS was still pursuing his own line and had not yet begun seriously collecting general Hanchett records and failed to ask for her evidence. Jonah's birth appears in Barbour's Salisbury records but no records of the birth of his sons are there although Jonah certainly remained in Salisbury until the early 1790's. None of Jonah's deeds in Salisbury nor in Addison Co. VT have a wife's signature. That Jonah's wife was Alma in his later life is shown by their tombstones in Ridgewille, Twp., Lorain Co. OH. Also in 1843 Jonah and wife Alma deeded property in Lorain Co., to Sylvester Powers and his wife Phebe on condition that the Powers were to care for the Hanchetts. The obituary of his wife Alma states she was born in NY which makes it unlikely they were married in CT although they may have been married in VT for he was just across Lake Champlain. Much effort has been spent on this problem but still the mother of Jonah's chkldren is uncertain. The hiatus between the birth of Jonah, Jr. in 1791 and of Lucy in 1796 suggests that Sarah may have died at the birth of Jonah Jr., or soon after, and Jonah may have married Alma about 1795. The fact that Sarah's father, Odel Squires was in Addison Co., VT in the 1790's, when Jonah was there, may be significant.

Jonah inherited from his father who had been granted land in Vermont but apparently never went there. Whether Jonah received any of this land is not known but he purchased land in Addison, Co. VT, at a public auction 3 Feb. 1789. He purchased more land there 3 May 1790, Addison Deed BK 2:36. Both times he is listed as of CT. In the 1790 census he appeared in Salisbury, CT, with 3 males and 4 females. He last sold land in Salisbury 14 Apr. 1791, Salisbury Deed BK 8:235, but he sold land in Sharon, CT in Feb. 1792 when he was, "of Salisbury", Sharon Deed BK 10:357. He purchased more land in Addison Co., 18 Mar. 1795 when he was "of Ferrisburg", Addison Deed BK 4:107. On 7 Jan. 1796 he bought land in the same county but in New Haven when he was "of New Haven". Addison Deed BK 3:44.

On 10 Mar. 1797 Jonah bought land in Pleasant Valley, NY, Clinton Deed BK

A:328. Before 1800 he moved his family to Essex Co., NY where he appeared in the census for Elizabethtown as follows: Males; 2-u/10, 1-10/16, 2-16/26, 1-26/45. Females; 3-u/10, 2-10/16, 1-26/45. In the 1810 census he was in Ticonderoga, Essex Co., NY with: Males; 1-10/16, 1-16/26, 1-26/45. Females; 2-u/10. 2-10/16, 1-26/45.

He moved to Ridgeville, Cuyahoga Co., OH (later Ridgeville was in Lorain Co.) by 1817 for in his pension application in 1833 he stated he had lived in Lorain Co. for sixteen years. In 1820 he was in Ridgeville with: Males; 1-over 45. Females; 1-16/26. 1-over 45. In the 1840 census for Lorain Co. a J. Hanchett, age 80/90 appears between Squire Hanchett and Sylvester Powers who appears to be Jonah's son-in-law. Further, in the same census on page 202 Jonah Hanchett, age 83 is listed in the Lorain Co. Revolutionary Pensioners.

Brown in his History of Elizabethtown (Ref. LIII) states that Jonah was the father of Ebenezer, Squire and Jonah Jr. The only daughter positively established as Jonah's is Lucy, born 10 Sept. 1796, whose record is supplied by a descendant, Mrs. Jeanne Denham. The evidence for the other probable daughters will be found in their biographies and the evidence that Jonathan was a member of this family is in his biography.

Children, 1st four born in CT, last probably in NY, others in VT:

i. One or more daughters born before 1790, names unknown.

103. ii. Jonathan[6], b. 1782/83.
104. iii. Squire(s), b. 4 Apr. 1784.
105. iv. Ebenezer, b. 15 Oct. 1785.
106. v. Jonah Jr., b. 19 June 1791.
107. vi. Lucy, b. 10 Sept. 1796.
108. vii. Sylvia, b. ca. Sept. 1797.
viii. Clarissa, b. Late 1790's; A Clarissa Hanchett m. Nehemiah Bowen 28 July 1818 in Cuyahoga Co., OH. Since no other Hanchett was known to have been in the area at the time she is included in this family.
109. ix. Phebe, b. ca. 1802.

41. ZACHEUS[5]HANCHETT (Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 5 Sept. 1738; died at Worthington, MA Oct. 1800. He married at Springfield, MA 11 June 1761, Chloe Purchase, born 7 July 1742 daughter of Jonathan and Margaret (Worthington) Purchase of Springfield. She died at Manchester* 21 Apr. 1820. Zacheus was only twenty when his father died but in spite of this was made administrator of his father's estate with his mother. He remained in Suffield at least until his fourth child was born in 1771. However, when the other heirs of his father conveyed their rights to him in 1777 he was listed as of Springfield, MA. When Zacheus' eldest daughter, Chloe, married in 1779 she was "of West Springfield".

Three deeds filed in Springfield, all in 1779, add to the confusion about when he left Suffield. In one, dated 7 June, Zacheus "of Suffield", buys land in Springfield, in another dated 24 May he, "of West Springfield" sells land. Finally, in a deed dated 22 Dec. Zacheus "of Worthington" sells land in Springfield. In all later deeds he is "of Worthington".

His will probated 20 Dec. 1800 is recorded at Northampton, MA. This states his wife was insane and takes particular care for her support. All of his real estate went to his son.

Children:

110. i. Chloe[6], b. 6 Mar. 1762.
ii. Zacheus, b. 13 June 1764; dy.
iii. Mary, b. 8 Oct. 1768. Her father's will refers to "dau. Polly Much."
111. iv. Zacheus, b. 21 Jan. 1771.
112. v. Harvey, b. ca. 1779.

44. SYLVANUS[5]HANCHETT (Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 24 Mar. 1745 at Suffield. No death record found. He married at Sharon, CT 28 May 1771 Sarah (Sara) Stoddard, born 11 Feb. 1752 at Salisbury, daughter of Josiah and Sarah (Roberts) Stoddard.

The children were all born in Sharon but a Sylvanus Hanchett bought land in Stanfield, Trumbull Co., OH (Book I:128) 4 Nov. 1808. He is celebrated as being the first person who formally invited the Methodist preachers into Sharon in 1788. It was at his home that the first Society of Methodists was formed by the Rev. Freeborn Garretson, and where public worship was celebrated for several years. He removed to the state of NY where he died. Sylvanus has not been found in the census records of NY.

Children:

i. Sarah[6], b. 24 Apr. 1775; d. 16 May 1795; m. John Foster, Jr. A Sally Hanchett was baptised in Sharon 23 Feb. 1805 by John & Irene Foster who were stated to be her grandparents.
ii. Seth, b. 21 Nov. 1777; d. 2 Dec. 1791.

47. SETH[5]HANCHETT (Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT. No death record. Seth was only seven when his father died. At ten he was under the guardianship of his mother. At fifteen his Uncle John was his guardian. The last we hear of him in Connecticut is in 1777 when he, of Salisbury, deeded land in Suffield set out to him from his father's estate.

The reason he seemed to vanish is revealed in the letter about the Hanchett family written by John Harmon (the 9th son of Seth's sister, Eunice) quoted elsewhere. He wrote,"My Uncle Seth emigrated to the Mississippi country before the Revolution with General Lyman who had been a British General in the French War. Thence he went to Opelousas. LA, married and had two sons, Caesar and David (or Joseph) who grew to manhood. He outlived them both and was living until 1832 or 3. He also had a daughter who married and left a family ." No evidence has been found of a David but Joseph and Ceasar owned land in LA. Seth and Joseph L. Hanchett were privates in the War of 1812 while Ceasar was a 2nd Lieutenant.

No record has been found of Seth's first marriage but a record appears in Opelousas Parish for his marriage to Margaret Seman or Rider, 9 Feb. 1809. The two names appear in different entries and it would appear she was a widow and one was her maiden name.

The Charlotte Hanchette who married John Andrus in Opelousas and had a son Lewis born 13 Sept. 1806 is probably Seth's daughter. The Hanchett name appears in Louisiana census records in the latter decades of the 1800's but no connection has been made. It should be noted that William Hanchett (No.400) and his children are in Louisiana in 1880 and 1900.

Children:

115. i. Caesar[6].
ii. Joseph L. Bought land in LA in 1810. Served in War of 1812. No further data.
iii. Charlotte; m. John Andrus, had Lewis, b. 13 Sept. 1806.

48. JOSEPH[5]HANCHETT (Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 16 Jan. 1753 at Suffield, CT; died at Milton, Saratoga, Co., NY, 27 Oct. 1832. His stone is in the West Bloodville Cemetery, Saratoga Co. He married (1) 21 Mar. 1774, Mary Sprague, born 12 Mar. 1751/52 at Sharon, CT daughter of Ebenezer and Hannah (St. John) Sprague. No record of her death has been found but she was apparently alive in 1790. He married (2) Hannah (Bryan)Wood, 24 Nov. 1806. Hannah was born about 1773/74 in Saratoga Co., NY the daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Talmadge) Bryan. She was the widow of Dr. David Wood who died in Saratoga Co., 24 Dec. 1804. The only record of the marriage of Joseph and Hannah is a civil action in Saratoga Co., dated 17 Dec. 1814 wherein Joseph and Hannah sue several persons for money owed to Hannah " before her marriage to Joseph Hanchett which occured on Nov. 24 1806 at Milton". Hannah died 17 Nov. 1832 within a month of Joseph's death. It is possible that they were victims of a bubonic plague epidemic which swept the area at that time. She is buried in St. James churchyard, Milton Hill, beside David Wood and their son, Noel who died 18 Sept. 1805 in his fifth year.

David and Hannah (Bryan) Wood had at least three other children as shown by guardianship papers in Saratoga Co., Hiram born ca. 1801, David, born ca. 1804 and a daughter, Lydia who died in Lockport, NY in May 1830 as shown by an entry in the autograph album of her half-sister, Eliza Ann.

Joseph was only six years old when his father died and he was placed under the guardianship of his mother. She shortly married Samuel Granger and perhaps did not live long. At least Joseph's Uncle Lt. John Hanchett was made his guardian in 1768. When Joseph married Mary Sprague, of Sharon, in 1774, he was "of Salisbury". In 1777 Joseph signed a deed in Cornwall, CT, disposing of his share of his mother's dower. No evidence has been found as to when his family moved to New York. This search was hindered because present Saratoga Co. was part of Albany Co. until 1791 and a fire in Albany destroyed many early records.

No town nor church records have been found for births of any of Joseph and Mary's children. However, descendants of Dr. Luther and Joseph Jr., have supplied birth dates for these men from family bibles. Some of Luther's descendants report he was born in New Canaan, NY while Joseph Jr's decendants give his birthplace as Salisbury, CT. It is unlikely that both are correct. The latter is more probable. Luther's first marriage occured in New Canaan and it may be that over the years the place of marriage may have been confused with his birthplace.

No record of Mary's death has been found. In 1790 Joseph's family in Saratoga Co. there was one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen and two females. In 1800 he had one male over forty-five, one female 10/15 and one female 26/45. There is no positive evidence that Mary had a daughter but for reasons given below Salome has been assigned as her child. Salome was married before 1800 and could not be the female in that census. In both 1790 and 1800 the young girl could be a "hired girl" and not even the same person. However, the second female in the 1790 census may well be Salome. That Salome Hanchett who married Gad Warner belongs in this family is concluded from the following evidence. Gad and Salome's first child, Mary Salome, was born in Ballston Springs, Saratoga Co. in 1795. A son Hiram was born in 1797. Salome is buried in the South Otselic Cemetery in Chenango Co., NY. Her stone reads, died 1851 age 71 The fact that their daughter was born in Saratoga Co. in 1795 strongly suggests Salome belongs in this family. She was in the right place at the right time. The only other Hanchett family even close to the area was Jonah but he was not married until 1778, Seth was in Mississippi and Sylvanus had children born in 1777, 1780, 1782 and 1784. Thus the only possible father for Salome among Joseph's brother's would be Zacheus. Zacheus' will states that his wife Chloe was insane. If Salome was her daughter the insanity may have developed when Salome was a baby and Joseph and Mary took her to raise. It is strange that, with all the family records from descendants of Joseph and Zacheus no mention has been found of Salome. There seems to be no place for Salome in the family of any other Hanchett family of the period. Until more information is found Salome is arbitrarily assigned to this family. That Salome had children, Mary and Hiram seems significant.

There is no doubt that the four boys belong in this family although the birth dates for Elijah and Hiram are uncertain. Two letters from family members are significant. First, a letter written by Volney Hanchett, No. 395, 26 Apr. 1902 states."Dr. Luther had three own brothers and two half-brothers. They are, commencing oldest; Elijah, then Dr. Luther, then Joseph and then Hiram; half-brothers Bryant and Seth. Bryant Hanchett died in Quincy last year. Seth died near Detroit and has sons living there." A second letter, from John Harmon, the son of Eunice, a sister of Joseph Hanchett, Sr. states, "I believe Uncle Joseph had four sons, 1st Elijah, a doctor, lived and died in Talmadge, Ohio.

2nd, Luther, also a doctor lived near Akron, OH, and moved to Branch Co., MI and died there. 3rd Joseph, I understand settled in Branch Co. and probably died there. 4th Hiram, a merchant in Cleveland, OH. In 1812/13 he went to Canada as a surveyor and died there."

We see that there are errors in both letters but the data from such different sources established the identity of the four sons. Perhaps the major error is the assignment of Hiram as the youngest. Note that Volney had the order wrong for the half-brothers. Unfortunately we have no certain dates for the birth of either Elijah of Hiram. The History of Summit Co., Ohio. W.H. Perrin, Editor, states that Dr. Elijah was born in 1776 in Connecticut and died in Talmadge, OH in 1843. In the 1810 census Hiram was in Buffalo, NY and had a son 16/26 who therefore was born not later that 1794. Hiram must have been born by 1775. More data about the sons ages will be found in their biographies. The data for the children of Joseph's second family comes from family records. Eliza Ann was the great-grandmother of KMS.

52. EZRA[5]HANCHETT (Ezra[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT. 15 Dec. 1758, a month after the death of his father; died there 7 Mar. 1847. He 11 May 1788, Moriah Kent, born in Suffield, 10 Oct. 1760 the daughter of Dudley and Hannah (Granger) Kent. She died at Suffield, 21 July 1826.

In 1795 Ezra Hanchett of Suffield bought land in Granville, Addison Co., VT and in 1813 he acquired more land in Kingston, Addison Co., but there is no evidence that he ever went to Vermont.

As was discussed in his father's biography he apparently inherited the original grant of Thomas, No. 1, in Suffield. Since his four sons died before he did the two daughters became the owners. Cynthis died first and Betsey, No. 52 ii, in an effort to keep the property in the family willed it to a rather distant relative as shown by the following statement from her will.

"I give, bestow and devise to my kinsman Silas Adams of Rome, Oneida County in the state of New York, the house and farm now in my possession and which I inherited from my father, Ezra Hanchett, of Suffield, he being the fifth generation from Deacon Thomas Hanchett, the original proprietor of said farm.

If either of the sons or grandsons of said Silas are willing to take the surname of Hanchett and occupy said farm, it is my choice the title should be vested in him though I would not make it obligatory upon them to do so." Dated Oct. 15 1869.

The Silas Adams must have been a descendant of Betsey's Aunt Rhoda who married Gideon Adams. Since Rhoda did not have a son Silas this man must have been at least a grandson. It would appear that none of the Adams wished to return to Connecticut for the property was sold shortly.

53. HEMAN[6]HANCHETT (Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), was born about 1783 as his stone in the River Styx Cemetery in Medina Co., OH reads, "Died Feb. 10 1843, aged 59 y. 6 m. 9 d." No birth record has been found but his parents lived in Southwick, MA. His father's will dated 8 Aug. 1804 refers to him as his second son. His, and his younger brother's legacies were all to be paid, "at the time he shall arrive at the age of 21 years." This statement was not appended to the legacy of Thomas, the eldest son. We may conclude that the date on his stone was essentially correct. While these data would make Heman a few days past 21 when his father's will was signed it was probably prepared a few days before the signing.

The next reference found for Heman is in 1817 when he was appointed Hogreeve for the town of Southwick. In the same year we find two deeds involving Heman on file in Springfield, MA. In a quit claim deed dated 13 Apr. 1817 Heman releases, for $300, to Gideon Stiles of Southwick, land in Southwick, it being the whole of the real estate whereof his brother Thomas died seized. Later he sold to his brother, Henry Hanchett of Southwick, two lots of land in Southwick for the sum of $1400. One parcel contained 16.5 acres and buildings and the other 44 acres. The deed was dated 20 June 1817.

Next we hear of Heman moving to Ohio. In, History of Medina Co., OH, by Northrup, we find, "In 1818 Heman and Amos Hanchett came into Wadsworth township." Also in, Pioneer Women of Western Reserve, by G. V.Wickman, "In August 1818 Mary Elizabeth Mason and her husband Mr. Heman Hanchett with their four-year-old daughter came from Massachusetts to Ohio. They had a span of horses, a wagon and household possessions. They reached Wadsworth in the middle of October and built a log house."

Lacking birth records we must construct the family of Heman and Mary from other data. We have seen that they had a four year old daughter in 1818. The 1820 census for Guilford, Medina Co., OH shows no male children but two girls under ten. In 1830 the census shows: Males; 1-u/5, 1-10/15 & 1-30/40/ Females; 1-5/10, 1-10/15 & 1-20/30. In Heman's probate filed in Medina Co., in 1843, besides the widow, Mary E., those mentioned were; Mason Hanchett, Garett Van Fleet and Charles Nixon. In 1898 Ansel Hanchett died in Medina Co., and mentioned in his will; a niece, daughter of Mason, a nephew, son of brother Mason, Catherine Nixon, sister and William Van Fleet, a nephew.

In Medina Co., marriage records we find: 1. Catherine Hanchett, m. Charles Nixon, 19 Aug. 1832. 2. Mary Hanchett, m. Garret Van Vleet. Thomas Mason Hanchett, b. Ohio, age 26 appears in the 1850 Hillsdale, Co., MI census. In the River Styx Cemetery are stones for: 1. Catherine, wife of C. Nixon, d. Oct. 20 1898, age 82 y, 9 m, 11 d. 2. Ansel H. Hanchett, b. 1 Oct. 1827, d. 29 July 1898. 3. Amelia, wife of Ansel Hanche Oct 31 1830, d. July 31, 1916.

Children 1st born at Southwick, MA others in Medina Co., OH:

124. i. Catherine[7], b. 1814-1816.
ii. Mary, b. ca. 1818; m. 15 Aug. 1839, Garrett Van Fleet, b. ca. 1825 in NY. This name also appears as Van Vleet. In the Sharon Twp. Medina Co., OH 1860 cen. he was a carpenter. Children: 1. Charles, d. 30 Aug. 1851, age, 4 y, 2 m. 2. George, b. ca. 1853. 3. Emily, b. ca. 1853. 4. William, b. ca. 1854. 5. Charles, b. 1855-59.
125. iii. (Thomas) Mason, b. ca. 1822.

(Deshler) Bauman, dau. of David and Catherine (Loubough) Deshler, widow of David Bauman whom she m. in 1848. She d. 31 July 1916. No children. His will and entensive probate proceedings on file in Medina Co., provided much information on his siblings. His will mentioned his wife; Catherine Nixon, a sister of River Styx; Florence Baish, dau. of Luther, Catherine's son, and Mariette Hackenberger "if that is her right name, dau. of my brother, Mason". In the file is a receipt from Mrs. Hackenbarge.

54. HENRY[6]HANCHETT (Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born ca. 1788 in Southwick, MA; died there in 1826, age, 36 y. He married at West Springfield, MA 5 Dec. 1806 Eunice Hubbard, born 1 Feb. 1791 at East Haddam, CT daughter of Jesse and Eunice (Coe) Hubbard. After Henry's death she married (2) 21 July 1852, at West Springfield, Jonathan Morgan, born ca. 1782 at Springfield son of Ebenezer Morgan. The only evidence that Henry and Eunice had any child is a death notice in the Southwick Church for 1828 of the death of a child of widow Hanchett.

55. EBENEZER[6]HANCHETT (Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born 6 May 1794 in Southwick, MA as recorded in his own hand in the Bible once owned by Junius T. Hanchett. Except as noted all data herein came from the said Junius. Ebenezer died in Dracut, MA 18 Apr. 1838. His father, Thomas, died in 1804 and Timothy Noble was made guardian for Ebenezer and his younger brothrs. Thomas, the eldest son, inherited the farm subject to his mother's dower rights. She remarried and Thomas bought her rights in 1806. When Thomas died, intestate, his property was inherited by his four brothers. In 1818 Ebenezer deeded his fourth to a Mr. Rising for $700. At the same time his brother Henry deeded his share to the same man and Heman sold his share for $1400, which would indicate that he had acquired the share of his brother, Amos. Note that this was just the time when Heman and Amos moved to Ohio.

However, Ebenezer had already moved to Dracut for, on 12 July 1817, his intention to marry Lavina Kally, daughter of George and Polly (Malone) Kally, was published there. The marriage occured 11 Sept. 1817. George Hanchett, the father of Junius, in 1904 talked to a Mr. Hovey, aged 94 years, in Dracut who remembered when Ebenezer arrived in Dracut. He said Ebenezer was a peddler but that he shortly opened a general store and, in time, became a prosperous merchant.

Ebenezer's first wife died 11 Oct. 1829 leaving him with a small family. In 1835 (Int. 28 June 1835) he married Abigail (Fox) Howe, the widow of Alonzo Howe and the daughter of Peter and Abigail (Wilson) Fox. She was born 13 Sept. 1805 and after Ebenezer's death married William Hackett. She died in Dracut, 18 Aug. 1886. Much on the life of Ebenezer and his descendants can be found in, "Descendants of Ebenezer Hanchett of Dracut", by Junius T. Hanchett, a typewritten document on file in the library of the Genealogical Society in Salt Lake City.

Children of the first wife:

126. i. Ebenezer[7], b. 10 Sept. 1818.
127. ii. William Thomas, b. 4 Jan. 1820.
128. iii. Franklin, b. 22 June 1821.
iv. Justin, b. 13 Nov. 1823; d. 8 Nov. 1825.
129. v. Peter Shephard, b. 9 Mar. 1825.

Child of second wife:

130. vi. vi. Joshua, b. 26 Oct. 1835.

56. SALEM[6]HANCHETT (Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born ca. 1795, probably at Southwick MA. The only mention of Salem in the Southwick records is in his father's will.

The biography of Dr. Alsoberry Hanchett in "The Builders of Hawaii", states, "His grandfather, Salem Hanchett, located on the island of Kauai in the early '40's coming to Hawaii from Massachusetts as the Captain of a whaling ship." Early Hawaiian records are very sketchy and family records are no better. In the 1960's James L. Hanchett (No. 433) with the aid of Joseph Crowell, a grandson of Salem's second wife by her first marriage, collected considerable data on Salem's family.

Hawaiian records show Salem was granted citizenship, 17 May 1848. Further, they show that on 27 Dec. 1866 a "Samuel Hanchett" was granted a license to operate a ferry on the Wailu river on Kauai. No other mention of a Samuel

Hanchett has been found in Hawaii at that time and Salem must have been meant for in the book, "Kaomalu" by Ethel Damon, Salem Hanchett is mentioned as the ferryman on the Wailu River, " a sailor whose wooden leg strapped behind him on horseback was a constant wonder to the Hawaiians."

Descendants of Salem Panole state his mother was Aluhua Aka while the descendants of Mele give her mother as Keouli Maikooloa and state that she married Salem in 1860.

In addition to Salem Panole, Salem had at least one more son. In a letter written to the above James Hanchett, 19 July 1961 Joseph stated, "According to my sister, Salem P. Hanchett had another half-brother that Dr. Hanchett called Uncle. This younger brother was called Joseph Uahi Hanchett and with his wife, Moku, had one son, Joseph Jr. This would indicate that Salem, Sr., had a third wife. In the 1900 census Salem P. Hanchett, a widower, born Mar. 1852 was head of a family consisting of himself and brother, U. Sam Hanchett, born Aug. 1880.

Children, all born on Kauai:

131. i. Salem Panole[7], b. Mar. 1851 or 1852.
ii. Mele (Mary), b. 11 Sept. 1864 Agnes m. Mannike Kelekoma, son of Ohule and Pauelue (Kaihenue) Kelekoma. He died in 1917. Mele was supposed to have had leprosy and was sent to Kalaupapa. Later it was shown that she did not have leprosy but she did not return to Kauai. Children: 1. Kulupahaualani. 2. Loke (Rose), b. 16 Apr. 1884. 3. Hamebile (Billie). 4. Kananimuloa, b. 1 Apr. 1887; m. Hong Chung Wong.

132. iii. Joseph, b. 1879-80.

57. AMOS[6]HANCHETT (Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born ca. 1796/97 in Southwick, MA. No record has been found of his death. He last appeared in the Medina Co., OH census in 1850, aged 54. Many of the male members of his family died rather young and he probably died before 1860. As seen in the record of his brother, Heman, he arrived in Wadsworth Twp., Medina Co. in the fall of 1818. He married 29 Dec. 1818, shortly after his arrival, Sarah (Sally) French, probably daughter of Philo French.

Amos and Sally appear in the Medina Deed book in the 1820's. An interesting deed appears in Book I:116, where we find, "That whereas on the 28th day of December for the consideration of two dollars, fifty-five cents and three mills by Sally Hanchett paid to Gustavous Williams, County Treasurer of Medina County for the land hereinafter described, sold to Sally Hanchett on the said 28 Dec. 1828 for arrearage of tax due from Amos Hanchett to the state of Ohio for the years 1828-1829 for the land entered in the name of said Amos Hanchett for taxation to-wit. In range 13 lot 5 tract 9 containing 50 acres." The next deed in the book is the sale of the above property by Amos and Sally Amos and Sally do not again appear in the Medina deeds.

On a large white stone in the River Styx Cemetary, in Medina Co., appears, "Sally, wife of Amos Hanchett, died Aug. 20, 1851." No stone appears for Amos but large spaces exist between stones giving the appearance that stones have disappeared. Amos was a farmer.

Children, born in Wadsworth Twp., Medina Co.:

i. Elizabeth[7], b. ca. 1825; m. 15 May 1841, Thomas Spaulding.
133. ii. Mary Ann, b. ca. 1827.

58. HENRY[6]HANCHETT (Samuel[5]Moses[4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born 15 May 1797 at Westfield, MA; died 18 Mar. 1879 at Plainfield, Sullivan Co., NH. He married 1 Jan. 1822 at Springfield, MA Phebe Ann Avery, born 15 Feb. 1803 at Groton, Middlesex Co., MA daughter of James and Mercy (Allyn) Avery. She died 15 Mar. 1869 at Plainfield.

Henry moved to Hartland, Windsor Co., VT between 1822 and 1824 but went to Plainfield before 1829 and died there. He was a farmer.

Children:

i. Phebe Ann[7], b. 24 Oct. 1822; m. 25 Sept. 1843, Veranus Allen.
ii. Belinda Short, b. 24 Aug. 1824; d. 1869 in Meriden, CT; m. 5 Dec. 1848, James S. Miller, a blacksmith of Hartland, VT, b. 1822 and d. 1912. Child: John Henry, b. 1850; d. 1863.
135. iii. Henry Morrison, b. 24 Aug. 1826.
iv. Mary Jane, b. 10 Jan. 1829; m. Oct. 1853, Abner Bacon. Child: Charles Abner.
136. v. Frederick Bailey, b. 12 Sept. 1830.
vi. James Avery, b. 10 Oct. 1833; d. 11 Feb. 1864 at Plainfield, VT; m. Abbie Collins and had Edith, b. 1852. After James' death Abbie m. Levi D. Johnson and lived in Vineland, NJ.
137. vii. George Samuel, b. 20 Oct. 1835.
viii. Horace Everett, b. 15 Feb. 1838; d. 13 Sept. 1839.

59. FRANCIS (FRANKLIN)[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[1]), born 17 Apr. 1806 at Westfield, MA; died there 5 Dec. 1885. He married Sarah Blakeslee, born 3 Aug. 1807 in New Haven, CT daughter of Matthew and Rhoda (Dormer) Blakeslee. The family apparently remained at Westfield but little is known about them and the data is confusing.

In the Westfield census records we find a Francis Hanchett in 1830 and a Franklin in 1840 as > 1830: Males; 1-0/5, 1-20/30. Females 1-0/5, 1-5/10, 1-20/30.

> 1840: Males; 1-0/5, -5/10, 2-10/15, 1-30/40. Females; 1-0/5, 1-5/10 2-10/15, 1-20/30, 1-30/40.

The 1830 census agrees with the family below except for a female 5/10. In 1840 the agreement is poorer. The male under five is unknown and may be a child who died. The rest of the males agree in number but not in age. The females fit less perfectly. The female under five is Julia but the only other girl known is Abi who would be 10/15.

The census record after 1840 is incomplete and confusing. In 1850 Julia, age 15, is in the family of her sister, Abi, wife of Steven Everton in Westfield A Sarah Hanchett, age 43, born in MA, who would seem to be the wife of Francis, is in the poorhouse. Francis or Franklin has not been found in 1850 census. However, a Franklin Hanchett appears in the city directory of New Haven, CT between 1845 and 1850, once as a mason and otherwise as a laborer. Some of the time one or more of the boys, Albert, Alfred and George are in the New Haven directory. A Frank Hanchett, age 53, appears in a boarding house in Westfield in 1860. In 1870 Franklin is in Westfield living with his grandson, Adelbert, the son of daughter, Abi. In 1860 a Sarah Hanchett is in the insane asylum in Westfield. It would appear the family broke up before 1850. See biographies of the children for details.

Children:

139. i. Abi(a)[7], . ca. 1828
140. ii. Alfred E. b. ca. 1830
141. iii. Albert L., b. 1831-32.
142. iv. George Ernest. b. ca 1834.
v. Julia, b. ca. 1835 at Westfield, MA. Living in 1850 with sister Abi Everton; m. (1) Edwin Monroe Day, b. 5 June 1828, at Chester, MA son of Ira and Clarisa (Cady) Day. Said to have m. Leslie Dyke of CA. Prob. the Julia A. Phelps, later Julia Dyke who obtained the guardianship for her brother's orphan, Franklin. If so she m. Edward F. Phelps. See biography of her brother, George.

60. SAMUEL[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born 6 Mar 1818 in Westfield, MA; died there 11 Feb. 1856. He married Elizabeth Herrick Preston said to have been from Washington, D.C. In the 1900 census she was listed as born in Maryland and 43 years of age. After Samuel's death she married Henry Noble.

The family lived south of Pine Hill cemetery in Westfield where Samuel was a butcher. In the late 1830's and 1840's Samuel was involved in many land transfers. On 11 May 1846 William Bates, Master in Chancery for Hampden Co., MA declared Samuel Hanchett to be an insolvent debtor. During 1847 the court disposed of many parcels of his land. However, in 1854, after his death his wife Betsey Hanchett sold land in Westfield.

Children:

i. Mary Ann[7], b. ca. m. (1) Joel W. Thomas, 28 Nov. 1849 at Westfield. In 1850 they appear in the family of Daniel Lewis, Joel was 27 and she was 21. In 1860 they were in the family of Henry Sackett, whose wife was Mary Ann's sister. Both times they were in Westfield. Later she m. William Meeker and lived in Northamptonmpton, MA. Child by Joel: Mary Ann, b. ca. 1852.

ii. Sophia, b. 16 Sept. 1832 at Westfield. She m. 28 Dec. 1847, Henry Sackett, b. June 1819 in MA son of Samuel Sackett. He was a butcher in Westfield. In 1870 he was retired with property worth $17,000. In 1900 Frances Sackett, daughter-in-law, with a six-year old child, Florence, was in the family and Sophia had had one child, none living. Child: Frederick, b. ca. 1863; m. Frances.

iii. Elizabeth, b. ca. 1838; m. 27 Nov. 1850, Timothy Allen, son of Gad Allen.

iv. Mellisa Sarah, b. ca. 1836-38; m. 9 Nov. 1863, William Brown, b. in RI, ca. 1836 son of William and Susan Brown. They lived in Westfield where he was a painter. Children: 1. Samuel, b. ca. 1864. 2. Reuben, b. ca. 1870; 3. Sumner, b. ca. 1874.

v. Samuel, b. ca. 1841; m. Mary L —- . Child: Emma L., b. ca. 1867. Lost both legs below the knee in Civil War. Went West.

vi. Henry Preston, b. 24 Apr. 1844; m. No children. Killed in an accident near Boston.

vii. Isabella.

61. MOSES[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born 13 May 1814 in Westfield, MA; died there 15 July 1890. He married (1) 1 Feb. 1838, Hannah (Gibson) Smith, referred to by Dewey as the widow of Gilbert Smith. She had a child, Ellen Smith, age 15, in Moses' family in 1850. Hannah died 17 Nov. 1857, age 43, and Moses married (2) in Granville, MA, Philena Spelman, the daughter of Luke and Zilpha Osborn. She had married 23 Sept. 1832 in Blanford, MA to Leeman Spelman. No evidence has been found but there must have been a divorce for Spelman married Achsa Loomis, 2 Feb. 1842.

Children of Hannah:

i. Charles Thomas[7], b. ca. 1839; d. 1863 in Civil War.

ii. Sarah Aseneth, b. ca. 1841. Dewey states she m. Leonard Andrews.

143. iii. Lester Dwight, b. ca. 1844.
iv. Emily Ann, b. 23 Aug. 1845; d. 2 Jan. 1850.
144. v. Lewis James, b. Aug. 1847.
vi. Sophia, b. Westfield, 14 June 1851; m. 16 Mar. 1869, Lewis or Louis Bush. He was a whipmaker in Mundale, MA. Children: 1. Louis J. b. ca. 1871. 2. Charles, b. ca 1872. 3 Edna D., b. ca. 1880.

62. OLIVER[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 13 Jan. 1817; died there 12 Apr. 1887. He married 23 July 1838, Naomi Williams daughter of Parke Williams of Middle Farms. She died at Westfield 6 May 1872. Oliver was a farmer.

Children:

145. i. Samuel James[7], b. 15 Dec. 1839.
146. ii. Mary Jane, b. Jan. 1845.
147. iii. Sarah Ann, b. 26 Nov. 1846.

63. ELIZA[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 28 Nov. 1818. She married Horatio Wyman*. They lived in Westfield until after 1860 when they moved to Astabula, OH. Horatio was a blacksmith.

Children, all born at Westfield:

i Elizabeth[7], b. ca. 1835.
ii. William, b. ca. 1841.
iii. Mary, b. ca. 1843; m. Chapman.
iv. Sophronia, b. ca. 1847.
v. Franklin, b. ca. 1850.
vi. Camelia, b. ca. 1851.
vii. Ely, b. ca. 1855.

* Intentions published in Westfield, 6 Apr. 1835.

64. HORATIO WYMAN[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 15 Nov. 1823; died at Springfield, MA Mar. 1895. He married (1) 18 July 1846, Mrs. Polly (Baker) Gillet who had a child, Julia Gillet, age 7, in 1850. Polly was 39 in 1850 and died at Blandford, MA 8 Dec. 1863. He married (2) Johanna Huntington daughter of William and Emily Huntington of Middletown, CT.

Horatio was called a blacksmith by Dewey but in the 1860 census he is listed as a whipmaker, age 38, with wife Polly, age 45, and a Julietta Fuller, age 17, who although listed as doing housework, would appear to be Polly's daughter by Gillet. However, there was no Fuller husband.

Child of Polly:

i. May A.[7], b. 12 Aug. 1848.

Child of Johanna:

ii. Elizabeth; d. 1 Jan. 1865, age 1 y.

65. MARY (ANNA)[6]HANCHETT (Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born at Westfield, MA 30 Aug. 1826. Dewey states she married a minister and died in Ashtabula, OH. In Early Marriages in Portage Co., OH, we find Mary Hanchett and Joshua Osborn, married 21 Mar. 1846. In the Historical Gazetteer of Tioga Co. NY, (1888) there is a biography of Jeremiah Osborn whose wife was Susanna S. Woodruff. Their 7th son was Josiah Olmstead Osborn, born at Candor, NY 17 Oct. 1823. He married in Apr. 1846, Mary Ann Hanchett. He had been a Methodist preacher from 1853 until the fall of 1885 when his health failed. He lived in 1888 in Mc Kean, Erie Co., PA.

A biography of Willis C. Osborn in, History of Erie Co., PA (1884) stated he was born in Ashtabula Co., OH, 18 Dec. 1853 the child of Rev. Josiah C. Osborn and Mary A. Hanchett. Further it stated his mother was a native of MA and he was one of three children, Franklin, Edwin and Willis.

Children:

i. Franklin[7].
ii. Edwin H.
iii. Willis C., b. 18 Dec. 1853.

66. LUKE[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born in Suffield,, CT 20 Feb. 1779. He married 20 Mar. 1799 Susanna Trumbull daughter of Eli and Susanna (Moses) Trumbull. Little is known of this man. Even the statement of the family genealogist, Frank E. Hanchett that he died in the War of 1812 has not been verified. Very probably he was the Luke Hanchett in a surveying party in Ohio for the CT Land Co., in 1796. A Luke Hanchett bought land in Oneida Co., NY 6 Jan. 1801 (Oneida Deeds, BK 18:280). An L. Hanchett appears in the 1810 census for Oneida Co., NY as follows: Males; 3-0/10, 1-16/18, 1-18/26, 1-26/45. Females; 2-16/26/. Since no other Hanchett with the initial L. was known to exist at that time this was probably Luke.

Luke Hanchett, Sr., died intestate in Suffield, 22 Sept. 1821 but a very complete distribution is on file in the CT Archives at Hartford. No mention was made of the sons, Luke Jr., and Isaac, both presumed to have been dead. It is strange no mention was made of Luke Jr.'s heirs.

67. DANIEL[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 15 Feb. 1771; died 30 Nov. 858 at Pompey, Onondaga Co., NY. He married (1) Mary (Polly) Frost daughter of Timothy Frost. She died 8 Feb. 1803 and he married (2) 1 Jan. 1804, Susannah Bush daughter of Georg Conradt and Mary (Watson) Bush. She died 6 Mar. 1870, aged 85 y, 1 m, 2 d. They are buried in Pompey Hill Cemetery, Onondaga Co., NY. They first appear Oneida Co., in 1800, although his first two children are recorded in Suffield. He was a farmer.

Child of Mary:

i. Polly (Mary)[7], b. 29 Jan. 1803; d. ca. 1885; m. 8 Dec. 1825, Lester Nelson. He was a farmer in Canandaigua, Ontario Co., NY. Children: 1. James. 2. Cordelia, b. ca. 1831. 3. Carlos. 4. Henry, b. ca. 1836.*

Children of Susannah:

148. ii. Conrad Watson, b. 25 Dec. 1804.
149. iii. Charlotte, b. 14 Apr. 1807.
150. iv. Nancy, b. 16 Apr. 1808.

69. JOSEPH THOMPSON[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 11 Jan. 1777; died at Pompey, Onondaga Co., NY 1 Dec. 1858. He married 20 June 1800, Polly Pratt daughter of Jacob Pratt of Longmeadow, MA as shown in the deed (Hampden Deeds BK 55:348) in 1814 where she and her siblings disposed of part of their inheritance. He was a farmer in Onondaga Co., NY.

Children:

154. i. Emily[7], b. ca. 1801.
ii Belcy, b. ca. 1802. Jay Bush Hanchett said she m. Eber Ellis. The only other knowledge of Belcy comes from her father's will where she is reported as dead leaving two sons named Ellis. Children: 1. Orlando, living in Winona, MN in 1858. 2. Horace, of full age in 1858 in Covington, KY.
iii. Harriet, 22 Mar. 1805; m. Seneca Smith, b. ca. 1805 in NY. In 1850 he was a merchant in Canandiagua, Ontario Co., NY. Ellen Redfield, age 14, and Sarah Doolittle, age 19, were in the family but no relationship was shown.

70. EUNICE[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT, 11 June 1779; she married, probably ca. 1809, Justus Rose, born in Suffield 16 Mar. 1782 son of Joel and Annora (Hale) Rose. They appear in the 1820, 1830 and 1840 Ontario Co., NY census records which indicate they had more children that have not been identified. They were not found in the 1850 census.

Children, born in Suffield:

i. Child[7], b. 30 Sept. 1809.
i. Cornelius Justus, b. 27 Jan. 1811.
iii. Lydia Hanchett, b. 7 July 1812.

Ref. III & XIII.

71. MARY[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 9 June 1781 at Suffield, CT; died 1820 at Rockford, IL. She married at Suffield 1 July 1802 Alexander Harmon born at Suffield, 11 Sept. 1779 son of Samuel and Abiel (Sheldon) Harmon. He died at New Marlbourough, MA 25 Feb. 1854.

Children, born at Suffield:

i. Isaac Hanchett[7], b. 17 Mar. 1804; d. 24 Mar. 1855 at Oxford, OH.
ii. Alexander Henry, b. 12 Feb. 1806; d. 1885, Oxford, OH; m. Sarah White.

72. PHOEBE[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT, 5 June 1783; died at Pompey, Onondaga Co., NY 9 Aug. 1880. She married Azor Phelps born in Pompey 30 July 1780 the son of Timothy and Persis (Baxter) Phelps. Timothy served in the Revolution. Azor died in Pompey, NY, 20 Jan. 1853, aged, 73 y. 5 m. 21 d. Junius Hanchett seemed to believe that Phelp's name was Ezra and Azor was a corruption. However, his gravestone, the census records, The Phelps Genealogy and his descendants all give Azor. He was a farmer.

Children:

i. Sarah Ann[7], b. ca. 1811; d. 12 Apr. 1856.
ii. Lydia C., b. ca. 1813; d. 10 Sept. 1879.
iii. Timothy Baxter, b. ca 1816.
iv. Almina, b. ca. 1820; d. 1922.

73. ENOS[6]HANCHETT (Luke[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT in 1780; died there 28 Feb. 1847, aged 62 (stone West Suffield cemetery). He married Eunice Spencer. No date is given but the marriage appears in the Suffield Ecclestical Society Church records directly below one dated 23 Feb. 1806. She was born 14 Dec. 1786 the daughter of John and Eunice (Phelps) Spencer. In the 1840 census for Mantua, Portage Co., OH we find Eunice Spencer with two females, 1-50/60 and 1-70/80. In the same place in 1850 we find Hanchett, Eunice, 65, born in CT with Spencer, Eunice, 85, born CT. These fit exactly with Eunice who married Enos and her mother, born Dec. 1766. No record has been found either in CT or OH but there must have been a divorce for Enos married Mrs. Clarissa Warner, 28 June 1832 whose stone in the West Suffield Cemetery reads, "Died 21 Oct. 1878, aged 74 y. 7 m." Enos was a farmer.

Enos appears in the Suffield census records as follws:

1810. Males; 1-0/5, 1-10/16, 1-16/26. Females; 1-16/26.
1820. Not found in CT or OH.
1830. Males; 1-15/20, 1-20/30, 1-40/50. Females; 1-30/40, 1-70/80.
1840. Males; 1-5/10, 1-30/40, 1-50/60. Females; 2-0/5, 1-10/15, 1-15/20, 1-30/40.

In 1850 Enos is dead and Clarissa appears with John F., 44, Sarah, 14, Marie, 11, Nancy, 8 and Albert, 3. These data are difficult to interpret. That John F. is the son of Eunice is shown by the 1880 census where he appears in the family of Albert as John F., 73, half-brother, cripple from birth. In 1810 the male under five is John F. but the older boy cannot be Enos' son. Again there is the extra male in 1830. These may be hired men.

Child of Eunice:

157. i. John Francis[7], b ca. 1806.

Children of Clarissa:

158. ii. Isaac, b. ca. 1833.
iii. Sarah Ann, b. ca. 1836; m. William De Forest. In Albany, NY in 1883.

iv. Mariah Diantha, b. ca. 1840; m. a Kefner, lived in Ontario, Can.
159. v. Nancy, b. ca. 1841.
160. vi. Albert Enos, b. 18 Jan. 1847.

74. OLIVER[6]HANCHETT (Oliver[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 19 Sept. 1763 at Stockbridge, MA the illigetimate son of Oliver Hanchett of Suffield, CT and Sylvia Woodbridge daughter of Timothy and Abigail (Day) Woodbridge of Stockbridge. Sylvia was born 12 May 1745 and died, probably at Stockbridge 3 Dec. 1806. She later married Capt. Phineas Morgan and had a family.

Sylvia Woodbridge appeared before the Court of Berkshire Co., MA and confessed that "on the nineteenth day of October Anno Domini 1862 she committed the crime of Fornication within the said county" for which she paid a fine of twenty shillings and costs. Further the court record shows, "Sylvia Woodbridge of Stockbridge in the County of Berkshire, Spinster & Single woman vs Oliver Hanchett of Suffield in the County of Berkshire, Yoeman, complains that at said Stockbridge on the nineteenth of September past was delivered of a Male bastard child begotten there ... where she prays said Oliver be adjudgaed by this Court the Reputed Father of said child." Finally the record reads, "the said Court adjudged that the said Oliver is the reputed father of the said bastard child and that he stands charged with the Maintenance thereof."

The boy Oliver was apparently raised by his grandparents for he was baptised in the Stockbridge Congregational Church, 28 Dec. 1865 as the grandson of Timothy Woodbridge and his wife.

His Revolutionary record appears in "Mass. Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution" pages 202, 380 and 715. He served out of Stockbridge six months in 1778 and six months in 1789. He also served twice from Vermont as recorded in "The State of Vermont Rolls of Soldiers in the Revolutionary War" pages 749 and 599. Oliver served in Vermont under Co. Ira Allen. This is an interesting bit of evidence connecting Oliver with one of his presumed sons. See the biography of Swan Hanchett, No. C 25.

Oliver married Demaris Grommon in Sharon, CT., 8 Feb. 1787. He bought and sold land in Addison Co., VT several times during the 1790's. He last appears in the Addison Co., records in Deed BK 4:92 where he sold his land.

In the Clinton Co., NY (now Franklin Co.) Mortgage BK A:382 Oliver Hanchet of Chatealuquay mortgaged land "in the county of Clinton ... being part of Lot 18 in the general division of township No. 6 of a tract of land appropriated as bounty land to the officers and soldiers of NY". Ack. by Oliver Hanchet 6 Nov. 1798. Again he mortgaged part of Lot 17 in the same section 23 Feb. 1800. Oliver does not appear in the Clinton census for 1800 which was taken in August. He must have left the area by that time.

No record has been found for any children of Oliver but strong circumstantial evidence indicates that several men who lived in New York state but came from Canada were his sons. The late Frank E. Hanchett stated that a Charles Hanchett who Frank reported died in Norwich, Ontario in 1826, was born in 1792 in Norwich, CT, was the son of Oliver and Demaris Hanchett. Further, he said that this Charles had a brother John. This information was given to KMS by Gretchen, daughter of Frank. She gave no authority and almost certainly the birthplace was in error. Norwich, CT records show no such birth and quite probably the place of death was confused with the birthplace. However, Frank must have had evidence for assigning him to Oliver. Oliver's probable sons will be listed and then the evidence will be presented.

Children (probable) of Oliver and Demaris:

C 1. i. Erastus[7], b. ca. 1787. 1850 cen. for Mendon Co., NY, gives b. NY.
C 2. ii. James, b. ca. 1789-90. In USA by Can. cen.
C 3. iii. Charles, b. ca. 1792
C 4. iv. Hiram, b. 1794-1797 in VT.
C 5. v. John L., b. ca. 1807.

Erastus, the eldest probable son of Oliver appears in the 1850 census for Mendon, Monroe Co., NY, aged 63 and born in NY, while his wife Nancy was born in Canada. The second son, James, lived and died in Canada but the 1851 and 1861 census for Glengary, Ont. Can. both list him as born in USA. In 1851 he was 62 and in 1861 he was 71 so was born ca. 1789-90. The third son, Charles, was stated by Frank to have been the son of Oliver. John, the fourth son, was said by Frank to have been the brother of Charles. Nothing certain has been found on him. A John L. Hanchett married 24 Apr. 1831 at Avon, Livingston Co., NY to Marie Chapel, (Livingston Register, 27 Apr. 1831). She died there 6 July 1833, age 25 y, daughter of Daniel Chapel of Avon, (Livingston Register, 10 July 1833). This John appears later in Chicago and witnessed a legal paper for a Nancy Hanchett, the widow of Hiram Solon Hanchett the son of Charles.

It is improbable that these men were sons of Luke, No. 30 who was in the Oneida Co., census for 1810, for with one exception, Luke's sons were all under 10 in 1810. The John L. above is the most likely son of Luke, however, we shall see there is much evidence that all of these men were brothers.

Two of these men, Erastus and Charles, were in Livingston Co., NY in the second decade of the 19th century and while James remained in Canada at least two of his sons, William and Oliver, were later in Livingston Co., near Erastus. These men conveyed land to one another. Daniel, No. C 7 and Charles No. C 9, were living adjacent in the 1865 NY State census. Further, the men used many of the same names, Erastus had sons James and William Miles, James had sons Miles and William while James' son William had a son Miles.

Aside from Luke mentioned above there is no other known Hanchett male who could be the parent of these men. Therefore, while it cannot be considered proved they will be assumed to be the children of Oliver. However, because of the uncertainty of the connection to the Thomas line the descendants of these men will be placed in Appendix C.

Hiram was at one time considered a possible son of Hiram, No. 117. However, his stated birthplace of VT and the fact that he lived in Livingston Co., where other probable sons of Oliver lived seems to require his consideration as a member of the family. Further, his descendants state he came from Canada. Other evidence for family relationships will be found in the individual biographies of these men.

91. JOHN[6]HANCHETT (Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]born, 28 Aug. 1764 at Salisbury, CT; died 24 Apr. 1837 in New Haven, Addison Co., VT. He married 24 Jan. 1788 Sylphina Hamlin of Sharon CT. The marriage was also recorded in Dutchess Co., NY where she was called Tiny or Piney Hamlin. She was the daughter of Nathaniel and Lucy (Foster) Hamlin of Sharon. She died 10 Apr. 1800 and he married in 1807 (2) Desire (Phelps) Buttolph daughter of John and Desire (Holt) Phelps and the widow of Ezekiel Buttolph. She died in New Haven 22 Dec. 1848, age 74 y. John and Desire Hanchett of New Haven, VT sold land she inherited from her father, John Phelps, 2 Feb. 1822. (Canaan, CT. Deed BK 13:296).

John moved his family from Salisbury to New Haven in the last decade of the 18th century. He bought land in New Haven 6 Jan. 1796 (Addison Deed BK 3:44). John and Desire were members of the church in New Haven, Desire joining 6 Dec. 1822 and John 12 June 1831.

92. REUBEN$^{6}$HANCHETT (Amos$^{5}$Ebenezer$^{4}$John$^{3,2}$Thomas$^{1}$), born at Salisbury, CT 6 Mar. 1769; died in Orange Co., PA before 1810. According to The Skinner Kinsman he drowned in the Delaware River. He had typhoid fever and in a delerium fell or jumped into the river. He married Mercy Skinner born 12 Mar. 1769 in Wayne Co., PA daughter of Daniel and Lilly (Healy) Skinner. She married (2) a Wilcox as shown in her father's will dated 22 Feb. 1813

Reuben appears in the 1800 Orange Co. census as follows: Males; 1-0/10, 1-16/26. 1-26/45. Females; 4-0/10, 1-26/45. The male under 10 has not been accounted for. The male 16/26 must be a relative or a "hired man" for Mercy would be only 15 at his latest possible birth. It is possible that Hiram Hanset (Appendix D) reported to have been born in Schoharie Co., NY between 1803 and 1807 may be their son. The four daughters are known. No 1810 census has been found for Reuben; he was probably dead.

At the Feb. 1799 session of an Orange Co. Court Timothy Seidmore obtained a judgement against Reuben and his father, Amos, for $96.30 and the same man obtained another judgement against Reuben alone in Feb. 1801 for $88.63.

Mercy Wilcox was living with her daughter-in-law Pauline (Hemingway) Hanchett in Sheboygan Co., WI in 1860. She was listed as age 90, which agrees with her birthdate.

Children:

i. A son under 10 in 1800.

180. ii. Sally$^{7}$, b. 4 Oct. 1794.
181. iii. Mahala, b. ca. 1796.
182. iv. Cynthia, b. ca. 1799.

93. DANIEL[6]HANCHETT (Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Salisbury, CT 14 Sept. 1775; 2 Feb. 1806 in Forge Hollow, Oneida Co, NY. He married 15 Aug. 1799 Lovisa Daniels, born 6 Feb. 1781 at Brandon, Rutland Co., VT daughter of Nathan and Sarah (Tuttle) Daniels. After Daniel's death she married Elias Howe and moved to Ellisburgh, Jefferson Co., NY. On 11 Mar. 1823 Elias Howe and his wife, Visa, sold land which was her right as widow of Daniel Hanchett, Oneida Deed BK 37:22. Daniel was one of the cofounders of Forge Hollow where he followed the family tradition and operated an iron foundry.

Children:

185. i. Daniel[7], b. 19 Sept. 1800.

94. SILAS[6]HANCHETT (Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 20 June 1780 at Canaan, CT; 29 Oct. 1848 at Marshall, Oneida Co., NY. He married 3 May 1804 Lydia Daniels, the sister of his brother Daniel's wife. She was born 14 May 1785 in VT and died 8 Oct. 1881.

Information for this family comes from several sources most of which should be knowledgeable but there are several discrepancies. Mrs. Jackman, No. 193 ii, who wrote a lengthy memoir stated that Silas had ten children and gives a list but no dates. Her list of males agrees with other sources completely in name and order but she names three girls, Angeline, Emeline and Betsey Maria. The first two names are out of order and Betsey is hardly Lydia Ann.

97. BEULAH[6]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Salisbury, CT 2 Oct. 1774; died 16 Feb. 1845. She married (1) Oliver Luther of Bangall, Dutchess Co., NY. They lived in Dutchess Co. until about 1806 when they became charter members of the Baptist Church in Locke, Cayuga Co., NY. Beulah and Luther's names appear directly below that of her sister, Aseneth Thomas in the church register. Oliver Luther, born at Twerton, RI 22 July 1780 son of Ezra Luther, died at Groton 14 Aug. 1818. After his death Beulah married (2) Aaron Hoag. They moved to Harbor Creek, Erie Co., PA.

Children by Luther:

i. Harmon[7], b. in NY; d. 20 Sept. 1844, Harbor Creek, PA
ii. Marie, b. ca. 1806.
iii. Eunice, b. Groton, NY, ca. 1811.

98. LUCY[6]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born in Sharon, CT 14 July 1787. She married about 1802-03 to Theron Hamlin born 8 Mar. 1783 at Sharon son of Thomas and Mary (Jewett) Hamlin. The Hamlin Genealogy by Andrews states Theron married (2) ca. 1833 Mrs. Perkins but gives no death date for Lucy. Theron was a cooper in Sharon, in Groton and in Moravia where he died 3 Sept. 1834.

Children, all born in Tompkins Co.:

i. Clarissa[7], b. 23 Mar. 1804.
ii. Hawley Hanchett, b. 15 Feb. 1806.

99. ANSON[6]HANCHETT (Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Salisbury, CT 3 Apr. 1789; died 27 Oct. 1860 at Bolivar, Allegany, Co., NY. There has been confusion about Anson's parentage. Junius Hanchett, following Frank E. Hanchett, placed him as the son of Reuben, No. 92. However, in the petition of his wife, Mary, for the settlement of Anson's estate reference is made to Cyrus Hanchett of Groton as a brother, to Alline Hopkins of Moravia, as a sister and to Eunice Nickerson of DeKalb Co. IL as a sister. Since these three are established as children of Ebenezer Jr., Anson is his son.

He married first about 1812 to Sylvia Sharp. She died 26 June 1826, shortly after the birth of her ninth child. Anson married second, Betsey Nickerson, as recorded in the Poughkeepsie Telegraph and Observer for 6 Sept. 1826, "on Tuesday afternoon 29th ult. by the Rev. C.P. Wilson, Mr. Anson Hanchett of Homer, NY, to Miss Betsey Nickerson of Cornwall, CT." What happened to Betsey is not known. In the notes of Junius we find the following from a letter written by George E. Hanchett, No. 362. "In regard to Anson Hanchett there is one fact which the family seems to try to keep in the dark, that Anson was married three times....Anson did marry a second wife...They separated soon after marriage."

Anson married as his third wife Mary E. Brown, born 16 June 1797 at Canaan, CT daughter of Jacob Brown, Sr. and his wife Anna. Mary died 27 Aug. 1863. Anson is said to have been in Moscow, NY (later Mc Lean village) in 1802. This is surprising for he would be only thirteen but he had two older married sisters in the area so it is probably correct. He is listed as charter member, in 1806, with his sisters, of the First Baptist church of Locke, NY, later the First Baptist church of Groton. He bought land in Cayuga Co., NY 17 Apr. 1815 (Cayuga Deed Bk Q:185) and with his wife sold part of this (Lot 100) 3 Jan. 1816 (Ibid, BK S:117). In 1818 he bought land in Homer (Courtland Co. Deed BK O:420) and he and his wife Mary sold land there in 1847 (Ibid, BK K:575). Information about his children comes from many sources but a most valuable document is the will of his eldest son, Wadsworth, who, with no children, mentioned with addresses, all of his living siblings and the children of his deceased brothers.

102. EZRA[6]HANCHETT (Simeon[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born in Litchfield Co., CT. He was baptised as an adult, 8 Apr. 1807 in the Baptist Church of Pittsfield, MA and dismissed from this church to the Sand Lake Church in Rensselear Co., NY. His wife was Judith. He apparently lived several places but the longest at Sand Lake. He is said to have been a Baptist minister. The list of children was by George E. Hanchett, No. 362, who was given the data orally by Ezra's son Dan. It is not known if it is chronologically correct.

Children:

i. Clarissa (Clara)[7].
ii. Almira.
iii. Dan(iel), b. 1815-17. He and his wife Catherine, lived in Poestenkill, Rensselaer Co. NY, and appear in the census records from 1850 through 1880. The two children appear in these records. No further records of these have been found. Neither Dan nor his wife mention them in their wills so they must have died before their parents. Children: 1. Sally, ca. 1844. 2. Dan, b. ca. 1858.
iv. Mary.
vi Sarah.
vi. Lydia.
vii. Lucinda, b. ca. 1829; m. 24 Aug. 1849 at Pownal, VT (she of Poestenkill) Israel Crankwright.

103. JONATHAN[6]HANCHETT (Jonah[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born between 1781 and 1783 in CT. The last record for this man is the 1850 census when he was in the poorhouse in Lewanee Co., MI. He married (1) Diantha Harmon, born 23 Feb. 1789 at Bennington, Rupert, Co., VT daughter of Martin and Tryphena Harmon. The Harmon Genealogy says she died in 1838 in MI. He married (2) at age 58, 2 Dec. 1839 in Hillsdale Co., MI Sally Birch, age 66.

In the 1810 census he appears in Essex Co., NY with one son and one daughter, both under 10. The Harmon Genealogy states that Jonathan and Diantha had four children but evidence has been found for only two.

That the man in Michigan is the one in New York follows from the fact that his wife is known to have died there; the only other Jonathan found to date is Jonathan Gavin Hanchett, No. 619, born in 1950. That Jonathan was the son of Jonah, No. 40, is based on purely circumstantial but nevertheless quite strong evidence.

1. He was born in Connecticut ca. 1782 when Jonah was in the state and Jonathan fits into the family. The only other Hanchett men in the state at the time whose families could accomodate a son at this date are Amos, No. 36, Ebenezer, No. 38, and Sylvanus, No. 44, but their families are so well documented it seems unlikely Jonathan could have been the son of any of these.
2. He married Diantha Harmon of Vermont, ca. 1800. Jonah was in this state between ca. 1792 and ca. 1800.
3. He appears in the 1810 census for Elizabethtown, Essex Co., NY on the same page with, and very close to, Ebenezer and Squire, known sons of Jonah. No other Hanchett was in this area at that time.
4. Sarah Squires who is believed to have been Jonah's first wife had a brother and a grandfather named Jonathan.

Children:

213. i. Elam Martin[7], b. ca., 1808.
ii. Tryphena.

104. SQUIRE[6]HANCHETT (Jonah[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 4 Apr. 1784 in CT as recorded in a petition made by Squire in 1854 re his father's pension. Squire's son Jerome was granted administration on his estate in Lyons, Wayne Co., NY 14 Mar. 1871. There is no evidence that he died there. Little appears in the probate record but it states that Squire " died intestate leaving goods within the State". Apparently he had bounty rights in Wayne Co. The record states further, "He left no widow and no children born after Mar. 3 1834." The significance of this statement is not clear. The petition states that the next of kin were "your petitioner, Jerome B. Hanchett, of Cleveland, OH, Laura Knight of Ridgeville, OH, Waite Hanchett, Elizabethtown, NY, Minerva Simonds of Pleasant Valley, NY and Marsha Ann Rook of Plymouth, WI."

He married Anna Waite born about 1790 in NY. He appears in Ridgeville, Lorain Co., OH in 1840 with 3 males and 4 females. In 1850 he was living with his brother, Jonah, Jr., in Walworth Co., WI, while his wife was in the family of their daughter, Laura, and her husband Jonathan Knight in Ridgeville, OH.

Children:

214. i. Wait(e)[7], b. ca. 1808.
ii. Lydia Minerva b. 26 July 1811 at Elizabethtown, NY; d. there Feb. 1897; m. 10 Oct. 1833, William Simonds, b. 10 Sept. 1808 son of Erastus and Lydia (Rowe) Simonds. They operated a hotel in Elizabethtown for many years. Children: 1. Sarah Jane, b. ca. 1836; m. Theodore Lamson. 2. Helen, b. Sept. 1838; m. Orlando Kellogg. 3. James H., b. ca. 1842; d. ca. 1860. 4. 108. SYLVIA[6]HANCHETT (Jonah[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born VT ca. 1797. She married Pliny Conkey born in VT ca. 1793. They lived in St. Lawrence Co., NY until after 1830 when they moved to Warrensville, Cuyahoga Co., OH. He was a farmer.

There is no positive proof of Sylvia's parentage. That she was a Hanchett is shown by The Jewett Genealogy. She was born in VT when Jonah was there and later lived in St. Lawrence Co., NY when he was there, then moved with her husband to Cuyahoga Co., OH near Jonah. Propinquity and fit makes it probable but not certain she was Jonah's daughter.

Children, first three born in NY, others in OH:

i. Almeda[7], b. ca. 1825.
ii. Andrew, b. ca. 1830.
iii. LaFayette, b. .
iv. George, b. ca. 1834.
v. Charles, b. ca. 1838.
vi. S. Marie, b. 25 July 1941.
vii. Almira, b. ca. 1850

109. PHOEBE[6]HANCHETT (Jonah[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1802, probably in VT; she married Sylvester Powers who died in Ridgeville, OH 6 Oct. 1852 where he had been a farmer. She was living alone in Ridgeville in 1860, age 65, born in VT while in 1850 her birthplace was given as NY.

In addition to the evidence given in her father's biography the following suggests a relationship between Phoebe and Jonah. The History of Lorain Co., OH (1879) page 161, reads, "Asahel and Sylvester Powers settled in Stony Ridge in 1814 or 1815 and Jonah Hanchet ... came about the same time." The death records for Sylvester and Phoebe Powers who died in Lorain Co., OH also appear in the vital records in the Essex Co., (NY) Hist. Soc.

Children:

i. Adeline[7], b. ca. 1827; m. Marcus Tevruice.
ii. Joseph.

111. ZACHEUS[6]HANCHETT (Zacheus[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Suffield, CT 21 Jan. 1771; died in Mayville, Chautauqua Co., NY in 1857. He married Lucy Cottrell of Worthington, MA in 1793. She was born in Lanesborough, MA 17 Apr. 1773. He appears in Herkimer Co., NY in the 1810 census. The History of Chautauqua Co., states that he came to that county in 1812 where he had taken up 350 acres of land north of Hartfield in 1810.

113. DEBORAH[6]HANCHETT (Sylvanus[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 26 Apr. 1780 at Sharon, CT; died at Marshall, MI 12 Dec. 1865. She married Erastus Pardee of Sharon, son of Elijah Jamar Pardee. The Pardee Genealogy states, " He lived in Pittstown, NY, but probably moved to Livonia, NY where his widow and children lived many years." In 1850 she was living in the family of her son, Erastus, in Nottawa Twp., St. Joseph Co., MI.

115. CAESER[6]HANCHETT (Seth[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), probably born in MS; he married 22 Feb. 1825 Sarah Corkran, the widow of Wm Burdick. Caeser bought land in St. Landry Parish, LA on 4 Oct. 1811 and again on 5 Jan. 1816. In the first grantee book of St Landry Parish is a statement made by Caeser Hanchett and Sarah Cockran from which we quote, "who declared that they had been living together in a state of concubinage about 24 months, during which time they had a daughter, born to them which they call by the name of Mary Charlotte Hanchette, now aged about 16 months, of which said child they the said Cesar* Hanchett and Sarah Cockran hereby acknowledge and declare themselves to be the father and mother...and they being about to unite in the bonds of matrimony have made this public acknowledgement in order that the said Charlotte Hanchette may, after the marriage, enjoy all and singular, the legitamate rights of which she might or could have."

Data for several Hanchetts appear in the records of St. Landry Parish. They are assumed to be children of Caesar but some may be children of his brother Joseph about whom nothing has been found later than his service in the War of 1812. Caeser was a 2nd Lt. in that War. John Hanchett, No. 45 ix, stated that both Caeser and Joseph died before their father.

Children:

i. Mary Charlotte[7], b. ca. 1823. May be the Marie Hanchett who m. Henri Barzac, 21 Oct. 1841.
ii. Caesar, b. ca. 1825; m. ca. 1845, Emela---. He was a planter in Landry Parish, LA in 1850. Children: 1. Joseph, b. ca. 1846. May be the J.C. Hanchett, age 32 in St. Landry Parish in 1880 with wife, Eliza, age 27, dau. Alice age 1, and nephew, Augustine Cropper, age 5. J.C. was a pilot on a boat. 2. John, b. 1848. 3. Possible dau. Martha Ann, b. ca. 1850; m. Nathaniel Cropper 2 July 1868 at Washington, LA.

116. SALOME[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 4 July 1774, probably at Sharon, CT; died 15 Mar. 1851 and is buried in the Valley View Cemetery in South Otsilic, Chenango Co., NY. Her stone gives, age 76 y, 10 m, 1 d. She married in Ballston, Saratoga Co., NY, Gad Warner son of Daniel and Martha (Case) Warner. He died 23 June 1844 and is buried in the same cemetery. The evidence that she is probably the daughter of Joseph is in his biography.

Children:

i. Mary Salome[7], b. 15 Aug. 1795; m. 19 Oct. 1823, David Stoddard.
ii. Hiram, b. ca. 1798; m. Sally Hyde. Children, order unk.: Caroline, Hiram, Sally, Salome, Louise, James, & prob. Smith, Mary Etta, Charles, Gad & Ivana.

117. HIRAM[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born probably in Sharon or Salisbury, CT ca. 1775; died before 6 Mar. 1823 when his widow, Mary Smith Hanchett married Andrew Johnson.

Hiram's family has been difficult to trace. The History of Buffalo and Erie Co., NY states that he taught school in the "Middaugh House" in Buffalo in the winter of 1806-07. He was in Buffalo in the 1810 census with two males, one 16/26 and one 26/45, and two females, one 10/16 and one 16/26. No other census record has been found for him but he was later in Canada and was probably there in 1820. John Harmon, whose letter was quoted in Joseph's, No. 48, biography, wrote, "Hiram was a merchant in Cleveland, OH, in 1812-13. went to Canada afterwards, as a surveyor and died there, leaving two sons, one of whom I believe went to Natchez, MS."

A Hiram Hanchett, tax collector for Adams Co., MS, who died in Natchez in Aug. 1838 (Mississippi Free Trader & Natchez Gazette, 2 Aug. 1838) may have been his son. The Pratt Genealogy states that a Capt. Samuel Pratt took his family from Westminister, VT to Buffalo, NY in 1804 and that his niece, Miss Polly Smith, went with them and later married Hiram Hanchett. She must have been Hiram's wife in the 1810 census but could not have been the mother of his children then in the family.

Much evidence establishes that Hiram and Mary had two daughters, Adeline and Mary. The History of Summit, Co., OH, by Perrin (1881) states that James Wallace married Adeline Hanchett, daughter of Hiram and Mary (Smith) Hanchett, who was born near Raisen River, WI. No Raisen River is found in WI but there is one in Ontario, Can., and since Hiram is known to have been there after 1813 it is probable she was born there. Hiram's probate, which was not presented until 1835 in Portage Co. OH, lists Adeline, age 17, and Mary, age 14, as heirs. Further, Hiram was then referred to as "late of Malden, Upper Canada".

As further evidence Hiram bought Lot No. 73 in Buffalo in 1810, Erie Deeds BK 2:42. In 1845 James Wallace and his wife, Adeline, and Mary Hanchett, heirs to Hiram Hanchett, were involved in a suit concerning Lot 73, Erie Deeds, BK 83:20. In the History of Cuyahoga Co., OH, Cresfield Johnson, 1879, reference is made to Hiram Hanchett, his wife Mary, and five children. The two children in the 1810 census with Adeline and Mary account for four but no other child is known except for John Harmon's reference to two sons.

Children of unknown 1st wife:

i. Hiram[7], b. before 1794; prob. d. in Natchez, MS in 1838.
ii. A dau. b. ca. 1800.

Children by Mary:

118. ELIJAH[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1776, probably in Salisbury, CT; died at Talmadge, Summit Co, OH between 22 Feb. 1842 when his will was signed and 19 Sept. 1843 when it was presented for probate. He married (1) Mercy Mann, 7 Apr. 1779 at Hebron, Tolland Co., CT daughter of John and Margaret (Pettis) Mann. She died 8 Sept. 1848. They separated and although no record has been found must have been divorced for he married (2) Elizabeth Durkee, born 18 Feb. 1797 at Hampton, Windham Co., CT daughter of Eliphet and Elizabeth (Martin) Durkee. No birth record has been found for Elijah but Perrins's History of Summit County, CT. states, "Elijah Hanchett, born 1776 in Conn. died at Talmadge, Ohio, 1843." This agrees with the fact that he bought land in Saratoga Co., NY in 1801. Also his 1830 census for Herkimer Co., NY gives Males; 1-5/10, 1-50/60. Females; 1-5/10, 1-40/50.

Elijah was a physician who began his practice in Saratoga Co., NY in 1798. He went to Middlebury, OH in 1832 at the request of his brother, Luther, also a physician. He remained there until 1836 when he moved to Talmadge, OH where he remained until his death.

Children by Mercy:

i. Mary Ann[7], b. 26 Oct. 1804 at Salisbury, NY; m. 1 Dec. 1829 at Milton, Saratoga Co., NY, Russell Mann, b. Orford, NH, 1 Apr. 1803 son of John and Lydia (Dutton) Mann. He died 7 Jan. 1867. He was a merchant in Troy, NY. Children: 1. Mercy, b. 29 Aug. 1830; d.13 Feb. 1837. 2. Mary, b. 1 Mar. 1833, dy. 3. George Russell, b. 1 Mar. 1833; m. in NY City, 10 Jan. 1853, Mary Frances Davis. 4. Julia Frances, b. 25 May 1836; d. 8 Oct. 1849. 5. William Augustus, b. 1 Oct. 1839; m. 7 Sept. 1868 in Raleigh, NC, Frances Lee Smith. 6. Ellen, b. ca. 1842.

Children by Elizabeth:

ii. Elizabeth, b. 9 Mar. 1816 at Salisbury, NY; m. 31 Dec. 1833 at Middlebury, OH, Augustus Tyler, b. Marcellus, NY, 8 Sept. 1808 son of William Tyler. He d. at Plattsburg, Grant Co., WI 11 Nov. 1875. They lived in Nowata Prairie, St. Joseph Co., WI between 1836 and 1847. He operated a hotel in Galena, IL for a time. Children: Mary Elizabeth, b. 4 Dec. 1834. 2. William Elijah, b. 16 Dec. 1836; d. 1840. 3. Flora, b. 28 Nov. 1839. 4. Adeline, b. 20 Sept. 1841. 5. Helen, b. 12 Nov. 1843; d. 3 Aug. 1849. 6. Kate, b. 4 June 1845. 7. Ellen, b. 27 May 1847; d. 1865. 8. George Hiram, b. 14 June 1849. 9. Martha, b. 24 Aug. 1853.

iii. Flora, b. ca. 1820; m. Dr. Elijah Curtis, 14 Nov. 1837.

iv. Hiram Napoleon, b. ca. 1823 Salisbury, NY; m. Lucy Ann--b. ca. 1828; d. in Akron, OH 3 Sept. 1873. Most of the data for Hiram's family comes from census records. In 1850 he was a merchant while in 1860 he was a laborer. None of his children appear to have married. Charles was single and a merchant in 1880 and both girls were still single in 1900, Flora was a nursery matron and Mary clerked in a drug store. Children: 1. Flora, b. Feb. 1849. 2. Charles, b. Oct. 1850. 3. Mary b. Oct 1853.

119. LUTHER[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 10 May 1780, probably at Sharon or Salisbury, CT; died 25 Oct. 1841 at Allen, Hillsdale Co., MI. He married (1) at New Canaan, NY 5 Dec. 1802 Betsey Rodgers born 23 Apr. 1781; died 18 Apr. 1811 at Long Island, NY. He married (2) 11 Sept. 1811 Betsy Brabrook, born 18 Nov. 1790 at Middletown, CT. She died 9 Nov. 1814 at Lower Sandusky (now Fremont) OH and on 12 Oct. 1815 he married (3) Anna (Kent) Buckland born 30 Oct. 1788 at Middletown, CT daughter of Zenas and Anne (Plumb) Kent and widow of Ralph Buckland. She died 23 Apr. 1858 at Fremont, OH. Luther was a physician and served at Fort Stephenson in the War of 1812. From the birthplaces of his children he appears to have been a rather itinerant physician until he settled in Talmadge, OH in 1814. The last years of his life were spent in Hillsdale Co., MI.

Children of 1st wife:

240. i. Charles O.[7], b. 6 Nov. 1803, Pittstown, Rensslear Co., NY.
ii. William Henry, b. 20 July 1805, prob. Greenwich, Washington, Co., NY; d. at Eugene, OR 11 Jan. 1877; m. (1) Abigail Tupper, 28 Jan. 1827. She d. in Portage Co., OH. He m. 120. JOSEPH[6] HANCHETT (Joseph[5] Zacheus[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born probably at Salisbury, CT 18 Apr. 1782; died 7 Nov. 1848 of yellow fever at Natchez, MS where he had gone to visit a son, probably Lewis Beebe Hanchett. He married 23 Oct. 1804 Nancy Beebe born 9 July 1784 daughter of Dr. Lewis and Miriam (Kellogg) Beebe. She died 3 Apr. 1845 at Beloit, Rock Co., WI.

Joseph was commissioned as 1st Lieutenant in the Saratoga Co., NY company 23 Mar. 1804 by Gov. Clinton. He apparently did not maintain this commission for he served as a private in Co. H, Capt. Dennis Riley's Company of the NY State Militia in the War of 1812. When the Articles of Incorporation for the Methodist Church of Detroit were signed 2 Mar. 1822 Joseph was a signer. On 9 Aug. 1823 the citizens of Wayne Co., MI met to choose a delegate to Congress. Joseph Hanchett was a member of the committee to carry out the actions of the meeting. He moved to Branch Co., MI in 1832 and he and his wife were among those who organized the Methodist Church 19 June 1831 in what is now Coldwater. In 1842 Joseph and his wife Nancy of Bristol, Elkhart, IN sold property in Hillsdale Co., MI to a Hiram J. Hanchett of Allen, Hillsdale Co. This must be Joseph selling to his nephew, the son of his brother, Luther.

Children:

121. ELIZA ANN[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Milton, Saratoga Co., NY in 1809; died at Arlington, Portage Co., WI, 14 Mar. 1854. She married 26 Aug. 1833 at Milton, Augustus Phineas Smith, born ca. 1805 in Sharon, CT or in Amenia, NY, the child of Peter W, and Sarah (Sally) (Griswold) Smith of Amenia, NY.

They lived first in Saratoga Co. where Mr. Smith was a teacher. In 1836, A. P., as he was called, was elected President of the "Teacher's Association" formed at Charlton, Saratoga Co. Later he taught in the Albany, NY schools. He appeared in Hoffman's Albany Directory for 1840/01 as "Smith, Augustus P., teacher, residence, School Building, Washington St."

The 1840 census for Albany lists: A.P. Smith: Males; 1-0/5, 1-5/10, 1-30/40. Females; 1-0/5. 1-20/30, 2-30/40. The identity of these persons is established by comparing the family below and the fact that A.P.'s sisters, Caroline and Juliette, in an Oneida Co., NY deed dated 7 Aug. 1843 (Oneida Deed BK 120:153) gave their address as Albany. The two boys are the sons, Lewis and James, the young girl is Harriet who died young, the female 20/30 is sister Juliette, born in 1819 and the two older women are Eliza Ann born in 1809 and AP's sister Caroline, born ca. 1800.

The family moved from Saratoga Co. to Albany between 7 Feb. 1836 when James was born in Charlton Village and 1 May 1837 when A.P. and Eliza Ann sold land in Herkimer Co., NY giving their address as Albany. They left Albany during the summer of 1843 when he bought land in Herkimer Co. Upon the death of A.P.'s father in 1849 they moved to Columbia Co., WI and appeared in the 1850 census there. They lived mainly in Arlington but between 1860 and 1862 they lived in Lodi and finally they lived in Poynette where A.P. and Eliza Ann are buried. He was one of the incorporators of the First Presbyterian Church in Poynette. After the death of Eliza Ann he married (2) 11 Sept. 1854 Caroline A. Foster, b. ca. 1835, the daughter of Josiah A. and Mary Ann Foster. He died 7 Jan. 1870 in Arlington.

No official record establishes Eliza Ann as the daughter of Joseph and Hannah Hanchett. The evidence is circumstantial but very convincing.

First, Sarah Jane, the daughter of Eliza Ann and A.P. Smith (and grandmother of KMS) recalled going with her mother from the home in Columbia Co., WI sometime between the move from NY in 1849 and the death of Eliza Ann in 1854, to visit Sarah Jane's Uncles, her mother's brothers, Seth and Bryant (sic) in Michigan.

Second. In the History of Branch Co. by Everts & Abbott, a biography appears for Samuel B. Hanchett. We quote, "The subject of our sketch was born in Saratoga county, NY and was the youngest of three children. His father and mother died early...the first was seventy-nine and the latter sixty years of age. Mr. Hanchett remained upon the farm for two years after the death of the parents and during that time his sister and brother both married." In Durkee's Marriage and Death Notes, Saratoga Sentinel 1819-1837 we find, "1833 Jan. 29. Hanchett, Seth C. to Elizabeth Mallory, both of Milton, Jan 24. 1833." and "1833 Aug. 27, Smith, Augustus P. to Eliza Ann Hanchett, Milton, Aug. 26, 1833."

Since Joseph and Hannah Hanchett both died in Oct. 1832 these two marriages from Milton in the ensueing year fit perfectly with the statement in Samuel B.'s biography in the Branch Co. history.

Third. Eliza Ann's autograph album (in the possession of KMS) was presented to her in Detroit, MI in Mar. 1830 where she was apparently visiting the family of Joseph Hanchett, Jr., No. 120. The book was presented to her by Joseph's son, Lewis Beebe, who was Eliza Ann's age, and from the many verses inscribed in the book was enamoured of Eliza Ann. However the significant entry in the book is a two page appreciation written by Henry Platt of Lockport, NY, 18 May 1830. Henry was the husband of Lydia Wood, daughter of David and Hannah (Bryan) Wood. Hannah was the second wife of Joseph Hanchett. Henry Platt wrote of Eliza Ann's aid and support at the time of the death of her half-sister, his wife. It is also significant that most of the entries in the album are dated at Milton or West Milton, NY, were Joseph and Hannah lived.

Fourth. Seth Carmi Hanchett had daughters, Sarah Frances and Eliza Ann while Eliza Ann had daughters, Sarah and Frances.

Children of Eliza Ann:

i. Lewis Hanchett[7], b. 1835, Charleton, Saratoga Co., NY; m. Oct. 1868, Adele Foster, a sister of Caroline; d. 21 Jan. 1901.
ii. James Edward, b. 27 Feb. 1836, Charlton; m. 1858, Phoebe Look; He d. 14 May 1919.

122. SETH CARMI[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Milton, Saratoga Co., NY; 12 July 1811; died 15 July 1883 at Brownstown, Wayne Co., MI. He married 24 Jan. 1833 in Saratoga Co., Elizabeth Mallory, born 7 Sept. 1815 at Redding, Fairfield Co., CT and died 12 Feb. 1880 at Brownstown, MI.

Seth lived in Milton until after the death of his parents. On 30 Oct. 1832, three days after the death of her husband and one day before her own death, his mother made a deed in which she, "for the natural love and affection which I have for my two sons, Seth C. and Samuel B. Hanchett and...one dollar assign the above lease to my said sons." (Saratoga Deed BK W:89-90). The above property was transferred to Hannah in 1826.

About 1834 Seth sold his rights to his land in Saratoga Co. and moved to Gibralter about twenty miles from Detroit, MI. Before 1838 he moved to Algansee Twp. Branch Co., MI where he bought land in Section 9. He moved to Brownstown, Wayne Co., MI before 1850 where he remained the rest of his life.

Children:

246. i. Joseph Henry[7], b. 30 Dec. 1834.
ii. Sarah Frances, b. 1 Aug. 1836; d. 8 Oct. 1931; m. 2 Oct. 1854, Edward Shephard, son of Jesse and Susannah (Hamilton) Shephard. In 1880 she was keeping house for her widowed father. However, she was listed as married. With her was a dau. Sarah, age 23.
iii. Eliza Ann, b. 13 Dec. 1840; d. 27 July 1899; m. at Brownstown, Wayne Co., MI 15 Dec. 1869, Alfred Henry Hentig, son of George and Sarah Macomb (Rucker) Hentig. In 1900 he was an ice dealer in Grand Rapids, MI. Children: 1. Frances Hanchett b. 24 Nov. 1874; m. 23 Oct. 1901, Lewis Chardon. 2. Betsey Rucker, b. 2 Sept. 1877; m. 25 Apr. 1900, Ellis Oliver Jones.
247. iv. Samuel Mallory, 31 Aug. 1844.

123. SAMUEL BRYAN(T)[6]HANCHETT (Joseph[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Milton, Saratoga Co., NY 28 May 1813; died at Quincy, Branch Co., MI, 1 Sept. 1900. He married (1) in Algansee Twp. Branch Co., 9 May 1842 Ruth C. Thompson, born 22 Apr. 1820 in Canada East and died 6 Apr. 1863 in Algansee. He married (2) Emmeratta Evarts, 2 Apr. 1864. She was born 6 May 1831 and died 5 Nov. 1917.

Samuel B. Hanchett was born and grew to manhood in Milton, NY. His second name is found in records as Brian, Bryant and Bryan. He has descendants named after him as Bryant and his niece, Sarah Jane daughter of his sister, Eliza Ann, always referred to him as Bryant. His gravestone in the Fisher cemetery, Algansee, reads Samuel Bryant Hanchett. However, it is probable that he was named for his grandfather, Samuel Bryan. He remained at Milton for two years after his parents died. Then he first went to Ohio where he did not stay long but went to Canada to work with a Wood half-brother. About 1837-38 he went to Michigan where his brother, Seth, was and settled in Branch County. Although he seems to have moved about in the county he remained there the rest of his life. He was active in politics and held several local offices.

Children of Ruth:

i. Harriet Ellen[7], b. 23 Oct. 1843; m. a Reynolds.

ii. William Chester, b. 20 Aug. 1846; d. 25 June 1871; m. Eva --- At the time of his probate in 1871 address of his wife was unknown. Child; Flora, b. 25 Feb. 1872.

124. CATHERINE[7] HANCHETT (Heman[6] Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born probably in Southwick, MA. Her stone in the River Styx Cemetery a few miles out of Medina OH, gives, "Died Oct. 20 1898, age 82 y. 9 m. 11 d." but she was said to have been four years old when her family moved to Ohio in 1818. She married 19 Aug. 1832, Charles Nixon. No further record for him. A C.C. Nixon, female, age 43, tailoress, who appears in Wadsworth Twp., Medina Co., in the 1860 census must be Catherine. It would appear that Charles was dead.

Children:

i. Charles[8], b. ca. 1832; d. 3 June 1841.
ii. Luther, b. ca. 1838; m. an Elizabeth. Children: 1. William, b. ca. 1860. 2. Charles, d. 12 Jan. 1896, age 30 y.

125. (THOMAS) MASON[7]HANCHETT (Heman[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born at Guilford, Medina Co., OH ca. 1822; died before 1900 in IA. He married (1) 15 Nov. 1842, Sally Krotzer. She apparently died before 1850 for in that census he was in Hillsdale Co., MI with a wife, Sarah who has proved to be Sarah Featherly, born 10 July 1829 daughter of David and Lovina Featherly. She died in Belle Plaine, Benton Co., IA 12 Jan 1911. Mason was a farmer in Ohio, Michigan and Iowa. The family moved from Michigan to Iowa in the 1850's.

Two children of this man, Ansel, born Apr. 1843 and Mariette, born at an unknown date, were mentioned in the will of their Uncle Ansel Hanchett. Since neither of these children ever appeared in census records of Mason's family and since their Uncle Ansel made no bequest to Mason's other children it would appear probable that they were both childlren of Sally Krotzer, whom Ansel must have known. Probably after their mother's death they were taken by Krotzer relatives to raise but no evidence has been found.

Children by 1st wife:

250. i. Ansel[8] b. Apr. 1843.
ii. Mariette. Prob. m. a Hackenberge. See No. 53 iv's biography.

Children of 2nd wife:

127. WILLIAM THOMAS[7] (Ebenezer[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born at Dracut, MA 4 Jan. 1820; died at Natick, MA 9 Mar. 1890. He married at Natick, 8 June 1844, Ede Rosanna Childs, born at Natick, 24 Mar. 1825 daughter of Willard and Ede Goulding (Wight) Childs. Ede Rosanna died at Natick 26 Mar. 1883. William, like his three brothers, was a prosperous shoe manufacturer. Much of the product was sold in the South and the business collapsed during the Civil War. After the death of Ebenezer the four sons moved to Natick. In 1848 William bought the residence of Josiah Childs, his wife's grandfather, and finally moved there. Shortly William built a new house with a bathroom and a "modern kitchen".

Children all born in Natick:

131. SALEM PANOLE[7]HANCHETT (Salem[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born at Kalia, Kauai, HI, prob Mar. 1851 or 52. His birthdate is uncertain. An affidavit filed with the county clerk of Kauai in 1912 stated he was 61 years old. He died 10 Mar. 1918. His death certificate, filed by his son, A.K. Hanchett, gives his age as 56 y, 10 m. However, he appears twice in the 1900 census and each time his birthdate is given as Mar. 1852. In one of these records a brother, U. Sam, born Aug. 1880 is living with him and in the other a J. Kauwa, partner, is with him. In both records he is listed as a widower. He married Julia Palea P. Crowell, the widow of John William Crowell who was born in Weymouth, MA, and died 12 Jan. 1883 on a ship returning from San Francisco where he had gone for supplies. The Crowells had a son, William Alsoberry Crowell whose son, Joseph assisted James L. Hanchett, No. 433, in tracing the family of Salem Hanchett Sr. No death record has been found for Julia but, as noted above, Salem P. was a widower in 1900 and Joseph Crowell, her grandson, had no recollection of her. In the Kauai directory for 1888 Salem P. was listed as a butcher but in 1892/4 and 1894/5 he was a carpenter. Joseph Crowell referred to him as a cabinet maker. If he had children besides Alsoberry Kaumu they must have died young.

Child:

261. i. Alsoberry Kaumu[8], b. 16 Nov. 1885.

132. JOSEPH UAHI[7]HANCHETT (Salem[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born ca. 1878 on Kauai,HI. There is confusion concerning this man. Charlotte Kent talked on the telephone with a Joseph Hanchett Jr. in Honolulu in 1963 and some of our data comes from her records. Joseph Crowell reported a Joseph Uahi Hanchett Sr. and Jr. whose data is essentially that of Mrs. Kent. Crowell reported Joseph's wife as Moku. No Joseph has been found in the 1900 or 1910 census although there is no index for the latter. As noted in Salem P's biography a brother U. Sam was living with Salem in 1900 who was the correct age to be this Joseph. In 1900 a Kamadanki Hanchett, age 31, with wife Mahini, age 26, and son Joseph, age 7, is found in Waimae, Kauai. These data fit this man except for his and his wife's given names. To complicate the matter descendants of a Joseph Alonikeau Hanchett, born 3 Apr. 1903. report thst he had children, Genevieve, Sampson, b. 1925, Esther and Joseph Jr., born 1931. This family fits well with the family of Joseph Uahi with whom Mrs. Kent talked. Joseph Hanchett reported by Mrs. Kent and Joseph Crowell was a lineman for the telephone company.

Child:

262. i. Joseph[8], b. 3 Apr. 1903.

133. MARY ANN[7]HANCHETT (Amos[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born at Guilford, Medina Co., OH, 1823-5. She married in Medina Co., 29 Sept. 1842 James O'Brien, b. in PA. He was a cooper. They remained in Ohio until 1870 but have not been found later. They were said to have moved to MI.

Children:

i. Ellen (Nellie)[8], b. ca. 1843.
ii. Olive*. b. ca. 1847.
iii. Wilson, b. ca. 1851.

* in 1860 & 1870 cen. she appears as Mary.

134. WINFIED SCOTT[7]HANCHETT (Amos[6]Thomas[5,4,3,2,1]), born 6 Mar. 1835 a Wadsworth, Medina Co., OH; died, date unknown, in New Richmond and buried in Knapp, Dunn Co., WI. He married at Brookville, St. Croix Co., WI 7 Dec. Eunice Elizabeth Wilhelm, born 7 Apr. 1841 at Mesopotamia, Trumbull Co., OH daughter of John Wilhelm. In the 1880 census he appears as William. Winfield moved from Ohio to Wisconsin in the 1850's and lived there the rest of his life. He was in the northwest part of the state and worked in lumbering.

Children:

263. i. Charles Franklin[8], b. 30 Apr. 1860, Lincoln, Eau Clair Co., WI.
ii. Olive Evangeline (Eva), b. Lincoln, WI; m. a Davis. Children: 1. Fred, lived in Miles City, MT in 1959. 2. Ruth. 3. Harry.

135. HENRY HARRISON[7]HANCHETT (Henry[6]Samuel[5]Moses[4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born 24 Aug. 1827 at Springfield, MA; died 23 Nov. 1904 at Hartland, VT of diabetes. He married (1) 13 June 1854 Helen M. Cady of Hartland born in 1831 and died 16 Mar. 1858. He married (2) 22 Nov. 1859 Louise Burnham, born 14 Feb. 1834 of So. Hadley, MA. In many records he is listed as a carpenter but his interests were wide and today he would be called a contractor. He built bridges for the Central Vermont Railroad and built and sold houses. The building which housed the Hartford (VT) Woolen Mills was built by him and he was one of the organizers of the mill.

He was active in the Universalist Society of Hartford, being the treasurer when it was founded, 3 May 1878. Educated in the common schools of Vermont and Lebanon High School he taught in the country schools of Vermont for five terms. In 1852 he went to California where he remained for three years. He returned to Vermont and built bridges until 1880 when he again went west. He and his son, Fred, operated a ranch in Montana for a time. He owned stock in gold mines in Nova Scotia, oil wells in Ohio, Kentucky and California, lead and silver mines in Missouri and mines in New Mexico and Colorado.

Children:

i. Fred Henry[8], b. 18 July 1860; m. and had a dau. Marjory, b. Jan.

1890 in CO. In 1880 he was a farmer in Carbon, Co. WY; in 1900 he was in real estate in Denver, CO.

139. ABI(A)$^{7}$HANCHETT (Francis$^{6}$Moses$^{5,4}$Samuel$^{3}$Thomas$^{2,1}$), born in Westfield, MA, No death data. She married 6 Aug. 1843 at Springfield, MA Stephen Everton. They appear in the 1850 census for Westfield with three children and her sister, Julia. No record has been found for 1860 but in 1870 Stephen, age 45, a worker in a whip shop, and Henry Noble, age 60, wheelwright, who must have been the 2nd husband of Elizabeth, widow of Samuel, No. 60, are living together with a housekeeper in Westfield. It would appear that Abi and Elizabeth are dead. Also in 1870, Abi's son, Adelbert is in Westfield with his wife and children and his grandfather, Franklin.

Children:

i. Emerson[8], b. ca. 1845.
ii. Adelbert, b. ca. 1847; m. ca. 1867, Olive ---, b. ca. 1843 in CT. Children: 1. Laura, b. ca. 1868. 2. Franklin, b. 1869.

140. ALFRED E.[7]HANCHETT (Francis[6]Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born in Westfield, MA ca. 1830; died in Derby, CT, 10 May 1899. He married Eliza E. Millis of VT. She died 6 Aug. 1893, age 67 years. They appear in the 1860, 1870 and 1880 census in Seymour, CT where Alfred was a hotel proprieter. The family appears in the New York City directory between 1853 and 1855 and their daughter, Sara, was born there. Their son's birthplace was reported to be MA in census records but his death notice gives New York.

Alfred enlisted in the Army for the Mexican War, 17 Mar. 1847 at New Haven. He was called a mason which was his father's trade.

An unexplained fact is that a Kittie Hanchett died in Seymour, CT in July 1887, age 24 years. The only heir given in her probate was her husband, Alfred E. Hanchett. No other Alfred Hanchett was known to be in the area at that time. It would appear that there had been a divorce and Alfred married a young wife. No such record has been found but it is in agreement with the fact that Eliza Hanchett (mother) was in the 1880 census with her daughter, Sarah Wood.

Children:

i. Charles M.[8], b. 7 Aug. 1849, New York City; d. 5 Jan. 1926; m. in 1883 Elizabeth A. Smith, b. July 1859, in CT. She d. 5 July 1908. Both buried in Pine Grove Cem. Ansonia, CT. Child: 1. Kittie, b. Aug. 1886.
ii. George, b. ca. 1852; d. age 6 m.
iii. Sarah, b. ca. 1854 in CT; m. Ezra Wood, b. 1850. He worked in an organ shop. Children: 1. Alfred, b. ca. 1873 2. Dora, b. ca. 1876.

141. ALBERT L.[7]HANCHETT (Francis[6]Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born Jan. 1832 at Westfield, MA; died after 1900. He married 19 Oct. 1850 in New Haven, CT Marie Babcock of Maine. She died in New Haven, 27 Nov. 1908. They appear in 1860 with sons William and George. Albert was a saloon keeper. In 1870 Albert is with his two sons but no wife. In 1880 an A.L. Hanchett, age 42, appears with a wife Ida but no children. Also in the 1900 census a Marie, mother, is in the family of George E. Hanchett, Albert's son. It would appear Albert and Marie had been divorced.

Children:

i. Adelaide[8], b. 20 Aug. 1851. Not in family in 1860.
ii. George, b. 1 Sept. 1853; d. 15 Nov. 1855.
iii. Willis (William), b. 16 June 1854 at Meridan, CT; m. in 1879 Elizabeth May Cox, b. in CT, Aug 1857. In 1900 he was a spoon press tender. Children: 1. Viola P., b. Sept. 1884. 2. Elizabeth, b. Oct. 1886.

142. GEORGE ERNEST[7]HANCHETT (Francis[6]Moses[5,4]Samuel[3]Thomas[2,1]), born in Westfield, MA ca. 1832; died at New Haven, CT 15 July 1865. He is buried in Derby, CT. He married (1) 16 May 1852 Ann Monegan of New Haven. They lived in Derby and she died there 11 June 1856. George married (2) Elizabeth Northridge but they were divorced within the year. He married (3) Mrs. Lydia (Millis) Vincent of Hyde Park, VT 23 Apr. 1859 at New Haven. She was born Apr. 1836 at Johnson, VT daughter of Jacob and Lydia Millis. The error of Lewis for Millis in the marriage records was pointed out by Lydia in her petition on her rights as wife of George, who served in Co. K of the 1st New England Cavalry Reg. He was discharged from the Army 7 Oct. 1862 at which time he was in a hospital in Providence, RI, suffering from renal disease and cystitua.

After George's death she went to Manchester, NH and on 22 Dec. 1868 she married in Groton, VT, Isaiah Frost, born in 1834 son of Moses and Anna (Hooper) Frost. This marriage was annulled at Groton and she resumed the name of Hanchett.

She was appointed guardian of her son, Franklin, in the St. Lawrence Co., NY Court 15 Dec. 1870. However, in her absence from CT, Julia and Edward Phelps petioned for, and were granted, guardianship of Franklin, 29 Dec. 1865. On 17 Nov. 1871, Lydia Frost of Potsdam, St. Lawrence Co., NY petitioned the New Haven Courts stating she was formerly the wife of George Hanchett who died in 1865 leaving a son Franklin. Further, that one Julia A. Phelps, now Julia Dyke, applied for and was granted a guardianship for said Franklin. That the petitioner was not then in the state but in New York and was never notified of the hearing, nor of the appointment. She had cared for the child, was the natural guardian and petitioned for the guardianship to be set aside. Her petition was granted 1 Dec. 1871.

Lydia appears in the family of her son, Franklin, in Groton, VT, in the 1900 census and died there 23 Oct. 1900, age 68 y, 8 m, 23 d.

In 1860 George was in the 2nd Ward, New Haven with Lydia, their son George and Charley Vincent, age 7, and Edmund Vincent, age 5. The Vincent boys must be Lydia's children by her first husband. What happened to Charley is not known but in 1900 the younger boy with with his mother was in the family of his half-brother, Franklin Hanchett.

163. DAVID[7] HANCHETT (John[6] David[5] John[4,3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1780; probably died before 1850. He married Elizabeth of whom nothing is known.

Little has been found about this man. In 1815 David Hanchett was the defendant in the Ontario County Court of Common Pleas in a case involving a matter "of stills, tubs, copper cocks, etc." He bought land in Sodus in 1817 and appears in the 1820 census for Sodus, Ontario Co., NY as follows: Males; 2-0/10, 1-26/45. Females: 1-0/10, 1-16/26. In 1830 he is still in Soduus, which is now in Wayne Co., as follows: Males; 1-10/15, 1-40/50. Females; 1-10/15, 1-20/30. Lastly, in 1840 he was in Savannah, Wayne Co., as follows: Males; 1-10/15, 1-15/20, 1-60/70. Females; 1-10/15, 1-15/20, 1-20/30, 1-50/60.

The only child positively identified is Augustus Harmon whose death notice states he was the son of David and Elizabeth Hanchett of NY. It has been concluded, without firm proof, that a Sanford, No. 289, was their son. No clues have been found relating to their daughters. It may be noted that the male children in 1820 and 1830 fit these men.

Children:

289. i. Sanford[8], b. Mar. 1812.
290. ii. Augustus Harmon, b. 26 Nov. 1816.

164. JOHN[7] HANCHET (John[6] David[5] John[4,3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1787/8 at Suffield, CT; died after 1865 at Mayfield, Fulton Co., NY. He married Mary Goff who died between 1850 and 1853. Their children have been established by comparison of census and other data. The last three were in the 1850 census. Minerva's marriage records states she was the daughter of John and Mary (Goff) Hanchett. The will of Mary, No. 295, gave much valuable data. Garrett Vorhees as named as a nephew, Jennie Wilcox was made executrix and called a neice. Mary's brothers, Nelson and Dan were mentioned and Arthur Bedford, son of sister Caroline was named as a nephew. John was a farmer.

Children:

i. Girl[8], b. before 1810.
291. ii. Amanda, b. ca. 1809.
292. iii. Caroline, b. ca. 1818.
293. iv. Nelson, b. ca. 1819.
294. v. David, b. ca. 1823.

165. JAEL[7]HANCHETT (John[6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]). No resonable estimate can be made for her birth and death dates. She married 17 May 1807, Ebenezer Wilcox, born 14 Mar. 1786 at Charleston (now Glen) Montgomery Co., NY son of John and Lois (Augur) Wilcox. He died In Jackson IA in 1862.

Between 1817 and 1820 the family moved to Canada where they remained for about twenty years. Around 1837 they moved to Jackson Co., IA where they remained. He was a farmer.

Children, 1st six born at Charleston, at Elgin, Ont., Can.:

166. DAVID[7]HANCHETT (David[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Weedsport, Cayuga Co., NY 18 Nov. 1806; died at Marshall, Calhoun Co., MI 3 Sept. 1887. He is buried in the Rice Creek Cem. Calhoun Co. He married (1) 10 Feb. 1830 Mary Hopkins, born 5 Mar. 1809 and died 26 June 1861. David married (2) 7 Nov. 1861 Hannah Hamilton of Weedsport, born in May 1819 at Brutus, Cayuga Co., daughter of Dr. James and Betsey (Hopkins) Hamilton. She died 8 Jan. 1905 in Center Co., IA.

After his first marriage the family lived in Conquest, Cayuga Co., where the two elder children were born. In Feb. 1837 they moved to Michigan travelling with an ox team through Canada. They appear in the 1840 census in Cass Co., MI where there is an extra male age 20/30 who may be a "hired man". In 1850 they were in Marengo Co. where they remained.

There are many papers in the file of David's probate, from a petition for probate, 6 Sept. 1887 to a petition signed by his son Robert, 19 July 1911. These papers serve to establish the identity of many heirs and several deaths of heirs.

Children:

298. i. Emeline[8], b. 27 Dec. 1831.
299. ii. Robert Hopkins, b. 1 Dec. 1833.

169. SETH R.[7]HANCHETT (David[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 22 Jan. 1829, probably in Cayuga Co.,NY; died 26 Oct. 1853 at Savannah, Wayne Co., NY. He married Rowena Cooper in 1852 who was born ca. 1833. She died at Almo, MI 25 Dec. 1893. In her probate her only heir was her son, John. Stella Louise, No. 305 i, wrote in 1957 that Seth died when her father was a baby and his mother took him and went to live with her parents. In the 1860 census for Savannah, Wayne Co., NY, we find Roena (sic), age 26, and John, age 7, in the family of John F. Cooper, age 59, and his wife, Electa, age 53. These must be her parents. In 1880 Mrs. R. Hanchett with son John were in Alamo, Kalamazoo, MI where John was a was a farmer.

Child:

170. ASHAEL[7]HANCHETT (Erastus[6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 19 Apr. 1817 at Suffield, CT. No death record found. He married 24 Jan. 1845, at Wadsworth, Medina, Co., OH Emily Pardee, born 22 Feb. 1825 at Wadsworth daughter of John Minor and Eunice (Chamberlain) Pardee. Emily had the first piano in Wadsworth. When the Presbyterian church there was opened the piano was placed in the church and she conducted the song service. No record has been found for her death but the Milwaukee Daily Sentinel for 23 Sept. 1854 reported that two Hanchett men in Hanchettville had lost their wives, a father and one or more children that week in a fire. See biography of Colbert Hanchett. Emily was not mentioned in her father's will but her living children were. In the 1860 census we find Ashael, age 44 and his two sons, Fred Pardee, age 14, and Charles R., age 11, living together in Medina, Dane Co., WI with an Albert Hanchett who must have been Ashael's brother, Colbert. Ashael's two daughters were living with aunts. Hellen, age 9, was in the family of Lucius Cannon and his wife, Hellen M., age 33, (this is Ashael's sister) who were in Pepin, WI. Emily, age 7, was in the family of Joseph Utley and his wife, M.M., age 39, who must be the sister of Ashael's wife, Emily.

Ashael first appeared in OH in 1839 when he bought land in Summit Co., Deed BK JJ:98. He moved to Dane Co., WI in 1847 and was the first postmaster of Hanchettville (formerly Birds Ruin and later Marshall) in 1848. He established a store there. In 1852 he built a grist mill and later a saw mill. In 1855 A.M. Hanchett of Hanchettville sold 5,000 pounds of wool.

The 1870 census of Blooming Grove, Dane Co., reports Ashael with a wife Mary, born in Ireland, age 31, and daughter, Mary, age 13, who must be the daughter of his second wife by a previous marriage who took the name, Hanchett.

Children, first born in OH, others in WI:

306. i. Frederick Pardee[8], b. 27 Apr. 1846.
ii. Charles Remington, b. ca. 1848; d. in Milwaukee, WI 3 May 1883; m. 30 Jan. 1870 in Milwaukee, Mary Griswold Austin dau. of E.M. Griswold of Horicon, WI. He worked for many years for the C.M. & St. P. RR. In 1875 he left them to become Chief Dispatcher for the WI Cent. RR. No issue.
iii. Helen Minerva, b. 23 Dec. 1850; d. 3 Jan. 1914 in San Francisco, CA; m. at Pardeeville, WI 11 Oct. 1870 Carmi Warren Beach, b. Hadley, Warren Co. NY. In 1878 he appeared in the San Francisco, Dir. as Sec. of the Pac. Reclamation Co., Res. Oakland, CA. In the 1880/1 Oakland Dir. he was Mgr. of the Cal. Paint Co. The San Francisco Dir. for 1884/5 lists a Woodward & Beach while the next year gives a C.W. Beach Co. Mrs. C.W. Beach, widow appears in the 1889 San Francisco Dir. The couple is said to have had a son but no record has been found.
iv. Emily Jane, b. 28 Mar. 1851; d. 11 Apr. 1863.

171. COLBERT[7] HANCHETT (Erastus[6] David[5] John[4,3,2] Thomas[1]), born 14 Jan. 1819 at Suffield, CT; died 16 Oct 1864 in Chicago, IL. He married 22 Aug. 1850 Jane E. Barton daughter of Ebenezer and Catherine Barton. She apparently died in a fire described in his brother Ashael's biography. In the Medina cemetery, Marshall, Dane Co., WI the following stones are found:

Hanchett, Colbert, d. Oct. 16, 1864, 43 y.
Erastus, d. Sept. 16 1854, 74 y.
Jane, d. Sept. 14 1854, 23 y.
Emily N, wife, I. M. Hanchett, d. Sept. 1854, 29 y.

In spite of obvious errors these must be Colbert, his father, his wife, and the wife of his brother, 175. DAVID[7]HANCHETT (Phineas[6]David[5]John[4,3,2,]Thomas[1]), born 8 Oct. 1820 at Suffield, CT; died 20 Jan. 1910 at La Porte City, IA. He married 28 Nov. 1848 at Kanesville, Kane Co. IL, Fayette Ruenna Churchill born 16 June 1824 at Batavia, Genesse Co., NY daughter of Alfred and Susan (Wilson) Churchill. She died 20 Nov. 1905 at La Porte City.

David was one of the early genealogists of the family who we have quoted before. He wrote an extensive document tracing his branch of the family and gave much on related branches. We quote a section on his early life.

"I always look back to the days of my boyhood with delight...The old weather beaten schoolhouse with the forest on one side and a pasture on the other...My father attended the same school and I suppose my grandfather also. Webster's American Spelling book was for some years my chief textbook...Soon came Murry's grammer. At the age of 8 I studied Woodbridge's Geography. At 11 I commenced Daboll's Arithmetic and at 12 went through the book. At 13 I studied Natural Philosophy. When I was 14 and also when I was 15 I attended the Connecticutt Literary Institution at Suffield attending our district school the following winters. During this time I reviewed the studies and took in addition, Chemistry, History of the United States and Watts on the Improvement of the Mind. The winters I was 16 and 17 I attended the Institution boarding at Cousin Albert Kent's and doing chores for my board. The winter I was 18 I attended the same school and boarded with the school boarding club. I took these winters as new subjects, Algebra, Geometry, Astronomy, Surveying, Bookeeping by double entry and a little Latin. The winter I was 19 a taught a Public school, also the following winters, working on the farm with father summer months."

David went to Illinois in Oct. 1846, taking a claim in 1847 of 440 acres in the town of Kanesville where he raised his family. In 1900 he and his wife were living in the family of their daughter, Louisa, in Black Hawk Co., IA, where they apparently remained until their death. The first money for the new Baptist University, which was to become the University of Chicago, was said to have been raised in the home of David Hanchett in Kanesville.

176. JOHN PALMER[7] HANCHETT (John[6] Amos[5] Ebenezer[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born 14 July 1791 at Salisbury, CT; died 11 May 1859 at Grand Rapids, Kent Co., MI. He married 3 Mar. 1815 at Westminister, Windham Co., VT Rebecca Sawtelle, born 12 Jan. 1798 at Westminister daughter of Benjamin and Sybbel (Pott) Sawtelle. She died 9 Nov. 1887 at Grand Rapids.

John apparently took his bride to Auburn, NY shortly after their marriage for all of their children were born there. He served in Capt. Othnell Jewett's Co. from 12 Apr. 1814 to 21 Apr. 1814. About 1845 he moved his family to Grand Rapids where he opened a harness and trunk shop. He was Master of the Grand Rapids Masonic Lodge in 1851.

He, of Paris, Oneida Co., NY, married 6 Feb. 1817 Keziah Sawtelle, of Aurora, Cayuga Co., NY, born 30 Sept. 1799 at Westminster, VT daughter of Benjamin and Sybble (Pott) Sawtelle. After Harry's death she married (2) 4 July 1853 John Sweet. She died at Ravanna, Portage Co., 8 Nov. 1884 and is buried with Harry at Charleston. It is family tradition that after their marriage Harry and his bride crossed Lake Champlain on the ice and went to their new home in Oneida Co., NY. As indicated by the birth record in Harry's bible the family moved frequently. He was a carder and dyer by family records. In 1850 Keziah was in Middlebury, Cuyahoga Co, ON with her son La Fayette and daughter, Melissa.

179. GUSTAVUS ALETUS[7]HANCHETT (John[6]Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 8 June 1912 at New Haven, VT; died at Newark, Kendall Co., IL 19 June 1903. He married 17 Mar. 1836 Julia Elvira Preston, born 15 May 1814 daughter of Asa and Abigail (Maltby) Preston. She died at Newark, 16 Dec. 1895.

Their first son was born in VT but they moved to Stockholm, St. Lawrence Co., NY where they appear in the census from 1840 through 1860. He first appeared as a farmer but later as a photographer. He was probably the owner of the Hanchett Art Gallery which was destroyed by fire in Newark, IL in 1868.

Children:

i. Laura Marie[8], b. 19 Mar. 1837; d. 1912; m. Sam Barber. Child: Carrie.
329. ii. Edward Albert, b. ca. 1840.
330. iii. Charles Henry, b. 24 Oct. 1845.

180. SALLY[7]HANCHETT (Reuben[6]Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born in PA 1794; died at Lafayette, Onondaga Co. NY. Her stone in the Berwyn cemetery reads, "Died 7-1-1856." She married John Conklin or Konklin. In the 1850 census he is Conklin and ten years later in the same place he is Konklin with four of the same children. In the same cemetery as his wife his stone reads, "Died, 9-4-1866, age 78-8-2". He was a farmer.

Children:

i. Fanny (Frances)[8], b. ca. 1816-20.
ii. Cynthia Fidelia (Adelia), b. ca. 1818-20
iii. Reuben Hanchett, b. ca. 1823; d. 6 July 1854, age 31 y. 3 m. 16d.

181. MAHALA[7] HANCHETT (Reuben[6] Amos[5] Ebenezer[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1796 probably in PA; died in 1864 at Greenfield, Huron Co., OH. She married 7 Jan. 1819 in Onondaga Co., NY Jeremiah Cole, born ca. 1796 son of Daniel and Zilpha (Lovgod) Cole; he died in Huron Co., 22 June 1872.

In 1830 the family was in Greenfield as follows: Males; 1-10/15, 1-30/40. Females; 1-10/15, 1-15/20, 1-30/40. Ten years later same place the family was: Males; 2-20/30, 1-30/40, 1-40/50. Females; 1-20/30, 1-30/40. Huron Co. marriage records give: Ebenezer Atherton Maria Jane Cole, married 3 June 1836. DAR Grave records for Greenfield lists: Cole, Jeremiah, d. 1872; Mahala, w/J, d. 1864 and Atherton, Maria Jane, w/E d. 1847. In the 1850 census for Greenfield Jeremiah Cole, age 54, and Mahala, age 53, have in their family, Walter and Maria Atherton, aged 13 and 11.

Jeremiah Cole's will dated 24 Apr. 1872 left "the residue of my estate to my grand-daughter, Maria C. Atherton." From these data it would appear that Jeremiah may have had two sons and two daughters but no record has been found except for Mary Jane.

Child:

i. Maria Jane[8], b. between 1818 and 1820; d. 1847; m. Ebenezer Atherton. Children: 1. Walter, b. ca. 1837. 2. Maria C., b. ca. 1839.

182. CYNTHIA[7] HANCHETT (Reuben[6] Amos[5] Ebenezer[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1797; died at Fabius, Onondaga Co., NY, 27 May 1887, age 88 years. She married Orrin Fox born ca. 1796; died 17 Aug. 1871, age 74 years.

Orrin was a farmer. The family in 1840 was: Males; 1-0/5, 1-5/10, 1-10/15, 1-15/20, 1-40/50. Females; 1-15/20, 1-40/50. Only two of the children have been positively identified, Franklin and Ansel, who were in the family in 1850. A probable daughter is Jane Linton who appears in the family in 1860.

Children:

194. VASHTI[7]HANCHETT (Cyrus[6]Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born at Groton, Tompkins Co. NY 12 Feb. 1807. She married at Groton 19 Jan. 1826 Daniel Wilcox, born ca. 1805 in NY. He was a farmer. He died at Frederick, MD, 12 Dec. 1862, from a wound received at the battle of South Mountain. Vashti's declaration for a pension on 20 Jan. 1863 states that they had had four children, three boys and a girl. Those named below are from the 1850 census and are the only ones found. In 1860 Vashti was living with her parents but a note, dated 6 Apr. 1863, in the probate record of her sister-in-law, Ellen stated that Vashti was then keeping house for her brother, Ebenezer.

Children:

i. Warren[8], b. ca. 1833.
ii. Philanda, b. ca. 1837.
iii. Marion (male), b. ca. 1838.

196. EBENEZER[7]HANCHETT (Cyrus[6]Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 25 May 1811, probably at Groton, Tompkins Co., NY although his grandson, Cyrus, thought he was born in VT. He died ca. 1878 in Winfield, KS where he was living with his son, Franklin. He married (1) Harriet L. born ca. 1815 in MA. She died 4 Nov. 1851, age 35, and is buried in the Mc Lean cemetery in Tompkins Co. He married (2) Mrs. Ellen (Harpending) Hamblin, widow of William Hamblin. In the 1860 census Ebenezer appears with his wife, Ellen, age 41, a daughter Helen, age 7, and two males, James Hamblin, age 14, and William Hamblin, age 11, who are Ellen's sons. Ellen died in June 1862. Her probate mentions sons James and William and a daughter, Helen Hanchett, also her husband, Ebenezer.

Ebenezer married (3) Ann Alexander, widow of Chandler Alexander. They appear together in the 1865 State census with her children, Harriet, age 19, and Chandler, age 12. Ebenezer's children, Silas and Helen were living with their brother, Franklin. In 1870 Ann Alexander is in Cortland Co.. NY as head of a family, with William, apparently a grandchild. In later census records she appears as Ann Alexander. There may have been a divorce.

Ebenezer has not been found in the 1870 census but in the 1875 NY State census and the 1880 KS census he was with his son, Franklin, and the family included his son, Silas, and his daughter, listed as Helen E. or Eudora. There is no evidence that Ebenezer and Ann had any children. He was a farmer.

Children of Harriet:

349. i. Franklin[8], b. ca. 1834.
ii. Silas, b. ca. 1848; d. in Winfield, KS; m. had one dau. dy.

Child of Ellen:

197. LURA (LURIA)[7]HANCHETT (Cyrus[6]Ebenezer[5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 24 June 1821 at Groton, Tompkins Co., NY. She married Solomon Whipple, born in NY ca. 1821. In 1870 they were in Auburn, Cayuga Co., NY where Solomon was a dealer in wool and his son William who was living at home, but apparently married, was a dealer in sewing machines. Ten year later the two families were still living together but in Poyner Twp., Black Hawk Co., IA. At this time there was a third generation, William's son, Clayton, age 7. Both father and son were now picture agents.

He married Emeline — who was born Oct. 1827 and died in 1904. In his will Wadsworth mentions his wife and twenty-four heirs who were his brothers, sisters and the children of his desceased siblings, giving their abodes which was most helpful in straightening out his father's family.

He was an organizer of the Methodist Church at Union Springs, Cayuga Co. Wadsworth, his wife and their only child are buried in the Rec. Oak Ridge Cemetery in Cayuga Co. Emeline's stone gives 1824-1904 and she was probably the Emeline Hanchett living alone in 1900 in Springfield, Cayuga Co., a widow who had borne one child, none living.

222. MILTON[7] HANCHETT (Ebenezer[6] Jonah[5] Ebenezer[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born 22 Feb. 1832 in Essex Co., NY; died 21 June 1907 at Wilmington, Essex Co. He married (1) Mary Shandreau, probably daughter of John and Mary Shandreau who were in the 1850 census for Elizabethtown with sons Frank and John and daughter Mary, age 23. In the 1855 NY State census for North Hudson, Essex Co., we find Milton Hanchett, age 22, a teamster, with wife Mary, age 29 and children, John F., age 3 and Mary, age 10/12 y. In 1960 a Milton Hatchet (sic), age 37 (sic), appears in Black Brook, Clinton Co., NY, with wife, Mary, age 34, and children, John, age 8. Mary, age 6 and Azina, age 1. In spite of the spelling of Milton's name and his age this must be the same family for Mary's age and those of the children agree. Apparently Mary died for Josephine Wright, No.

218 vii, wrote to Jay Bush Hanchett in 1910 that two of Milton's children, Frank, who must be the John F. above, and a daughter went West to live with relatives. Milton married (2) Lucy Clark who may have been the daughter of John Clark who appeared in the 1850 census in the town of Essex, Essex Co., NY with a wife Charity and a daughter, Lucy, age 10. Milton has not been found in the 1865 NY State census, probably he had not returned from the Civil War. In 1870 we find him in Moriah, Essex, Essex Co.:

| Hanchett, | Milton | 36 | m. | teamster | NY |
| | Lucy | 29 | f | | NY |
| | Willie | 11 | m | | NY |
| | Nellie | 6 | f | | NY |
| | Adelbert | 4 | m | | NY |
| | Cora | 2 | f | | NY |
| | Katie | 1/12 | f | | NY |

In the 1875 census we find Milton in Moriah with the same family except that Katie is gone and Flora, age 5 appears. In 1880, still in Moriah, we find Lucy Hanchett, head of a family, age 38, with William, age 21, Nellie, age 16, Adelbert, age 14, Cora, age 11 and Flora, age 9. In the same census in the family of George Handy, Wilmington, Essex Co., is Hanchet, Milton, age 46, laborer.

There must have been a separation for in Essex Co. Deeds, BK 93:399, there is an agreement signed 18 Aug. 1886 by Lucy Hanchett and Henry White whereby she agrees to keep house for him "and for her services as housekeeper this agreement is intended as a lease of his farm for her support during her natural life, afterwards the right of the farm shall go to the children of the party of the first part" and "further agreed that the children of the second part may have the right to visit their mother at any time." This agreement included an extensive inventory of Lucy's personal property she brought with her. What happened to this agreement is not known but in the 1892 State census for Queensbury, Warren Co., NY, we find Lucy Hanchett, age 52 with Frederick Hanchett, age 12. At the same time Milton, age 60, appears in the family of William Bell in Wilmington, Essex Co. Nothing more has been found of Lucy but in 1900 Milton is the head of a household in Jay, Essex,Co., with Etta Simmons, housekeeper, and her three children, listed as boarders. Here he is listed as single which would indicate that Lucy had died or there had been a divorce. On 11 Sept. 1904 Milton, age 72, a widower, merried, for his third marriage Lucinda Jaques, age 57, daughter of Stephen and Jane (DeGraff) Ripley. This was also her third marriage. The record of this marriage was found in his pension file. In the 1905 NY State census Milton is found in Essex Village, as head of a family. He was age 73, his wife Lucinda, was 57. In the family was Zada Ann, dau, age 7 and Jane Ripley, mother-in-law, age 84.

Milton served in the Civil War in Co. G. 142nd NY Reg. and applied for a pension in Essex Co., 23 Feb. 1907. On 22 Aug. 1907 Lucinda Hanchett, widow of Milton, applied for a widow's pension. Also in Milton's pension file is a statement made in Clinton Co. NY. 9 May 1908 in which Katherine Bomey declared that Anna Hanchett born 17 June 1898 was the legitimate, child of Milton. Nothing further has been found on this Anna but she would seem to be the Zada A. in the 1905 census. Milton had a sister Zada Ann.

There are conflicting data on the birthdate for Milton's son, William. On the basis of the census records for Milton's family it would appear that William was born in 1859 except that he does not appear in the 1860 census. However, when William is head of a family and probably gave the information, as in the NY State census for 1892, 1905 and 1915 his birthdate appears as 1861 or 62. Further, in the 1900 census his birth is given as Apr. 1862. Descendants of William's sister, Cora, state he was the child of Lucy. Thus Mary must have died late in 1860 and Milton married Lucy in 1861.

He married Johanna Frederica Nelson, born Apr. 1830 in Sweden. She died near Phillipsburg 12 June 1904. In 1850 he was living in Kenosha Co., WI with his brothers, Eli and John. He must have married in the next year for in 1860 he appears in Bloomfield, Walworth Co., WI with Hannah (Johanna) and five children headed by Ann, age 8. About 1865 they moved to Pawnee Co., NB where the homestead he took then is still (1984) in the family.

Children, 1st six born in WI, last two in NB:

224. JOHN H.[7]HANCHETT (Jonah[6,5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1826 in NY; died 6 June 1894 at Roswell, SD. He married (1) Lucinda Burns. They apparently had no children but raised two boys, Edgar Parsons (Persons) of unknown parentage and John Hopkins Hanchett, son of John's younger brother, Charles, whose wife died when their son was less than two years old. In 1870 John and Lucinda's family consisted of Edgar, age 16, John H., agge 7, and the elder John's sister, Anvira Hall, whose husband was dead and Alvira's daughter, Della, age 13. Ten years later the only changes in the family were that Alvira was gone (she had married Lyman Palmerton) and Della was now Mrs. Parsons and another nephew, Lantson, son of John's brother Ebenezer was in the family.

John served in Co. G of the 27th Reg. of IA Vol. from 19 Aug. 1862 to 9 Aug. 1865. He drew a pension, as did his second wife. He married (2) 26 Jan. 1887, Harriet Generva Loomis, the widow of Hugh Loomis at Miner, SD. After John's death Harriet married Alexander Hamilton at Bellingham WA, 5 Dec. 1905. Harriet G. Hamilton was dropped from pension rolls, 22 Sept. 1927 because of her death. John was a farmer.

225. SYLVIA[7] HANCHETT (Jonah[6,5] Ebenezer[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), Mar. 1828, in NY. She married Moses Utter, born, ca. 1827 in NY. The family liived in Ulster Twp., Floyd Co., IA where Moses was a farmer. In 1900 a Sylvia Utter, born 1828, and a Jackson Utter, born 1872, were listed as boarders with Almina Warren in Ulster Twp. No relationships were indicated and Sylvia was shown to have had no children. However, this must be Sylvia and her son, Jackson.

Children:

i. Angeline[8], b. ca. 1847; m. a Berget. Children: 1. John, b. 1869. 2. Elizabeth, b. ca. 1873,

228. ALVIRA (TIB)[7]HANCHETT (Jonah[6,5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born Apr. 1835. Last known residence was with her daughter, Della, and her husband, Edgar Parsons, in Oakdale, Howard Co., IA. She married (1) Edwin Hall, born in NY who is reported to have died in the gold fields of CA. In 1960 Alvira and her daughter, Della, were in the family of Alvira's sister Sylvia, and her husband, Moses Utter, while in 1870 they were with Alvira's brother John. In this family were John Hopkins Hanchett, son of Alvira's brother, Charles, and Edgar Parsons, later to be Della's husband. Between 1870 and 1880 Alvira married (2) Lyman Palmerton, a widower with a large family. The 1900 census shows that Alvira had had two children, both living. Thus Roy Palmerton, age 6, in Lyman's family in 1880 would appear to be Alvira's child.

Child, Hall:

i. (A)della[8], b. Mar. 1856; m. ca. 1876, Edgar Parsons, b. Mar. 1850 in NY. No children in 1900.

229. CHARLES CLINTON[7]HANCHETT (Jonah[6,5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born Aug. 1839 at Dover, Cuyahoga Co., OH. He married Adeline Hopkins in Kenosha Co., WI. He served in Co. G WI Inf. from Nov. 1862 to July 1865. When he returned from the Civil War his wife was dead and he apparently left his son with his brother John and went to CO. In 1900 he was a boarder in El Paso Co., CO. He applied for a pension June 1892 from Lytle, CO. At that time he stated that he had been, but was no longer, married to Addie, who died in WI 15 July 1864 and had had one son John H. Hanchett born 27 Nov. 1862.

Child:

230. ASHAEL[7]HANCHETT (Zacheus[6,5,4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 21 Apr. 1794 at Worthington, Hampshire Co., MA; died 22 Sept. 1883. He is buried in the DeWitteville Cemetery in Chautauqua Co., NY. He married Elizabeth Harter, born ca. 1799. They were living in Herkimer Co., NY in 1820. He served from 5 Oct. to 18 Nov. 1814 in the War of 1812 as a drummer. His pension file gives considerable data about him. He taught school in Herkimer Co., from 1820 to 1830. His occupation in 1878 was given as silversmith. His file stated he was living in Syracuse, NY, in 1851, in Mc Henry Co., IL, in 1855, in Mayville, NY, in 1872 and in De Witteville in 1878, where he died. No mention of his wife appeared in his 1878 pension file. She may be the Elizabeth Hanchett, wife of Asa (sic) buried in the Dutch Reformed Cemetery in Herkimer, died 23 Aug. 1867, age 72. Ashael appears in the 1870 and 1880 census as a boarder. No evidence of children.

234. MANLEY[7] HANCHETT (Harvey[6] Zacheua[5,4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born in 1815 probably in Worthington, MA. He married Caroline Storm, born ca. 1817 daughter of Jeremiah and Lucretia Storm. Manley was in the 1850 census as a fruit buyer and in 1860 as a real estate agent.

Data for his children is confusing. Those below are from the 1850 census. The oldest daughter appears in the 1870 census as a school teacher, called Kate but a Miss Hallie Hanchett who died in Lyons, NY, Sept. 1889, age 45, mentions her brother Charles, her sister, Mrs. James Todd of Detroit, MI and Miss Frank Hanchett of Lyons. Thus Hallie must the eldest daughter.

Children:

i. Catherine (Hallie)[8], b. ca. 1844; d. 1889.
ii. Sarah, b. ca. 1846; prob. m. James Todd.
iii. Frances (Frank), b. ca. 1849; d. 18 Feb. 1918.
iv. Charles W., b. 28 July 1851; d. 10 Dec. 1909, Lyons, NY.

235. JOHN CHAPIN[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6] Sylvanus[5] Zacheus[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1817; died 23 Sept. 1847 in the Mexican War. He married 12 Sept. 1833, Olive Gilbert, born 21 June 1820 in Springwater, Livingston Co., NY. After John's death she married Edward D. Clark, a widower, and had at least two more children.

Children:

i. Ann[8], b. ca. 1840.
391. ii. Henry Clay, b. 5 Sept. 1842.
iii. John C., b. ca. 1850; went to CA and not heard from.

236. REUBEN[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6] Sylvanus[5] Zacheus[4] John[3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1825; died 15 May 1857 near Hillsdale, MI. His wife was Axsah or Axy. After his death she married 14 Apr. 1858 James Malone of Malony. Reuben was a harness maker in Livingston Co.

In 1870 James Malony, age 52, farmer, appears in Osseo, Hilsdale Co., MI, with wife, Axsah, age 42, and three daughters, Elizabeth, age 16, Dolly, age 14 and a son Charlie, age 10. Although all are listed as Malony the daughters must have been Reuben's children. In the probate of Oliver Hanchett, Reuben's father, Elizabeth and Dolly Hanchett of Osseo, MI are mentioned as heirs.

Children:

i. Edward (Edmond)[8], b. ca. 1849. Does not appear in 1860 cen.

237. WALTER P.[7]HANCHETT (Oliver[6]Sylvanus[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1827, probably in Livingston Co., NY. Census and deed records show him with a wife Anna and a wife Emma. However, it is probable there was only one wife for in a Livingston deed given 26 Oct. 1855, in the body of the deed his wife is referred to as Anna but the signature was Emma. In the 1850 census his wife was Amy, age 24.

His wife must have died before he did for in a petition filed in Jackson Co., MI for the probate of his estate no wife is mentioned but given as heirs are, Sarah Fellows, Eunice Mc Crossen, Elizabeth St. John and Derastus Hanchett. These are his sisters and brother. No action was reported on this petition which stated he died 10 Aug. 1882. No evidence of children.

238. DERASTUS[7]HANCHETT (Oliver[6]Sylvanus[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 10 Aug. 1929 in Livingston Co., NY; died 5 July 1911 in Jackson Co., MI. He married 1 July 1855 in Livingston Co., Caroline F. Short, born 30 May 1835 in Ontario Co., NY daughter of Phillip and Almina Short. She died 13 Jan. 1924 at Jackson, MI

Derastus grew up on his father's farm but left there when he was sixteen to take a position as clerk in a general store where he remained for nine years. He then sold agriculture implements for two years after which he purchased the Metropolitan Hotel on Hemlock Lake at Livonia, Livingston Co. He operated this for six years when he purchased another hotel in Rochester, NY. Later he moved to Jackson Co., MI where he was a farmer..

239. WILLIAM WEST[7]HANCHETT (Oliver[6]Sylvanus[5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1833 in Livingston Co., NY. He went to WI about 1858 and appears in the 1860 census with wife Antonette who was born in NY ca. 1839 daughter of John and Julia Blanchard. In 1870 Antonette and her two sons are with her parents in Dane Co., WI.

When William's father Oliver, died in 1872 William was listed as an heir of unknown address. In 1900 Antonette was living in the family of her son George. Nothing further has been found on this man but in the 1880 census a William Hanchett, born in NY Nov. 1833, of parents both born in NY who appears in Reno Co. KS may be this man. Family tradition is that he deserted his family and was never heard from again.

245. JAMES HENRY[7]HANCHETT (Joseph[6,5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 31 Mar. 1813 in Saratoga Co., NY; died at Beloit, WI, 6 Dec. 1866. He married in Wayne Co., MI, 2 Mar 1836, Caroline Hickox of Dearborn, MI, born 9 Jan. 1817 in Madison, NY daughter of Joseph and Jane Hickox. She died 19 Dec. 1886 at South Englewood, Cook Co., IL but is buried in Beloit.

He went with his parents to Branch Co., MI about 1830 and was one of the original stockholders of the bank there in 1832. In the same year he was a trustee of the village of Coldwater, MI. Joseph shows in the census as a builder and moved around to follow his trade. The first two children were born in MI, Joseph was born in IN and the rest of the children were born in WI. He was a builder of dams and a developer of water power. In 1858 he went to CO where he engaged in mining with some success. In 1866 he felt he had a valuable claim and started East to NY to obtain financing. On the way he took a cold, which developed into pneumonia. He stopped at home in Beloit and died there.

Children:

i. George W.[8], b. ca. 1838 As a child he was afflicted with asthma and when a young man, at his Uncle Edward's invitation, went to CA. His health improved and he went into mining. Later he was involved in freighting. He operated a line between Denver and Salt Lake City, running a four-mule team. His wagons bore the inscription, G.W. Hanchett, Great Western Traveler. At his father's death he was summoned home by his mother in expectation he would take over the farm. A recurrance of his asthma and his love of the west were too much and he returned to CO. Here he sold his holdings and with his fortune of ca. $12,000 set out for Mexico. In the latter part of 1867 his body was found by railroad surveyors with a bullet hole in his back, murdered for his money.

ii. Augusta Jane, b. ca. 1840; d. at Beloit, WI, 12 Jan. 1874. She m. 7 Oct. 1856, Warren Hodgdon, a Beloit merchant. A 33rd Mason he had to go to Europe for its conferral. He developed tuberculosis and the family moved to CA but he died shortly. Mrs. Hodgdon returned to Beloit to live with her widowed mother. Their only child, Emmet, returned to the West where he became an engineer and lost his life, Feb. 1887 when he stayed in his engine to prevent his train going onto a burning bridge. The train was saved but he died soon after.

iii. Joseph L., b. ca. 1842 was a highly gifted person and the only college man in his family. He was trained in the Chickering Piano Factory as a piano tuner. His sister-in-law, Emma, stated, "early in life he became addicted to a perverted habit which made him a derelict for life". She reported that through his brothers generosity he traveled widely. He spent several years in Australia where he was converted to Catholicism. The only official record found for this man is the 1870 cen. where Joseph Hanchett. age 27, from Rock Co., was in the Insane Hospital for Rock Co.

iv. Charles Henry, b. 12 Apr. 1844 in Beloit WI; d. 17 Mar. 1921, in Hollywood, CA. He m. 21 May 1873, Marion Dawker, b. 5 June 1856 who was still living in Hollywook in 1928. He misrepresented his age and enlisted in Co. I 22nd Reg. at Beloit but his father obtained his discharge because of his age. However, he ran away and joined the company in Racine. He was discharged at Richmond, VA, 3 July 1865, After the War he joined his brothers in Chicago and finally became the senior member of the Hanchett Paper Co. He retired in 1891 and moved to CA where he was early settler in Hollywood. He and his wife travelled widely in the US and Mexico. In 1906 they toured China, Japan, the Philippines and Hawaii and in 1910 spent the year in Europe. No issue.

v. Imogene Lecon, b. 12 Jan. 1848; d. 12 Sept. 1909 in Chicago, IL. She is buried in Beloit; m. 12 Feb. 1892, Capt. Asa S. Cobb. She went to Chicago as a young girl and worked as a sewing machine demonstrator. Later she worked for her brothers as a bookkeeper. After her mother's death she developed a real estate and contracting business. She built 28 houses and two large brick blocks. She amassed a fortune but lost it in the 1893 panic. Then she became a candy manufacturer.

402. vi. Franklin Jay, b. 11 Nov. 1850.

248. PLATT WILSON (WILLIAM)[7] HANCHETT (Samuel[6] Joseph[5] Zacheus[4] John[3,2] Thomas 1), born 12 Aug. 1857 at Del Ray, Branch Co., MI; died 12 Apr. 1942 at Omaha, NB. He married ca. 1884, Vernett Gaines, born 10 July 1867 at Yates Center, KS, daughter of Frank and Martha (Hofough) Gaines. She died 20 Feb. 1906 at Omaha. This man, reported in his father's family in 1860 as Platt W., in his father's will as Wilson P., apparently changed his name to William after the death of his elder brother, William Chester, to William as he so appears in the 1900 census for Butler Co., NB. That this William in the census was the son of Samuel was considered probable from his age, the fact that three of his daughters had the names of Samuel's girls and that two of his sisters lived in the same area in NB. This idendity was later confirmed by the family record of Joseph Davidson Jr., the son of William's daughter, Helen. William was a sheep rancher in the 1900 census. He appeared twice in this census, with his family in NB and with his brother-in-law, John Gaines, in Yellowstone Co., MT.

288. HENRY GRANGER[8]HANCHETT (Milton[7]John[6]Oliver[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 29 Aug. 1853 in Syracuse, NY; died 19 Aug. 1918 in Orlando, FL. He married (1) at Dover, DE, 22 June 1886, Ophelia Murphy, born 19 Nov. 1855, daughter of Rev. Thomas F. and Elizabeth (Kimberly) Murphy. She died 18 Feb. 1897 and he married (2) in New York City, 22 Feb. 1898, Grace Mather, born 12 Mar. 1874, daughter of Samuel Talmadge and Emily Amelia (Sayre) Mather. She died at Nantaucket, MA 29 Aug. 1929.

Henry early showed talent in music. His mother began instructing him in piano at three. Later he studied piano with Prof. Ernst Held and harmony and compostiton with Prof. John Goodrich. At seven he was playing in public. In 1876 he became Professor of Music at Martha Washington College in Virginia. Later he accepted professorship at St. Louis Conservatory. He left this position to study in Europe but was told by Prof. Kullak at the Berlin Conversatory that he was already "an artist". In Berlin he was offered a professorship but did not wish to remain in Europe and returned to New York where he taught music and gave concerts.

Feeling that the many hours of practice required to maintain his musical skills were too much for his nervous system he turned to an early interest, medicine. He studied at the Syracuse Medical College and then at the New York Homeopathic Medical College where he graduated in 1884.

The course of his activities may be followed by the entries in the New York City directories. In 1882 he appeared as "teacher". From 1884 through 1891-92 he was listed as "physician". In 1892-93 "organist" while in 1894-95 he was again "teacher".

289. SANFORD[8]HANCHETT (David[7]John[6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born probably Sodus, Ontario (now Wayne Co.) NY; died in Vernon Co., WI shortly after 1860. He married (1) Eliza Stedman, daughter of Rev. George E. and Hannah (Webber) Stedman, born 1 June 1814 in Avon, Ontario Co., NY. They apparently moved to near Chicago for descendants of their son, George, state that was where he was born. Census records show his birthplace as IL.

Sanford Hanchett enlisted in the army in Rochester, NY in Apr. 1830 and deserted there in May 1830. The army record gives his age as 21 and his birthplace as Rutland, VT. These data do not fit our Sanford but no Sanford Hanchett has been found in VT, nor elsewhere at that time. Rochester is a logical place for a man from Ontario Co., to enlist.

Evidence that Sanford was probably the son of David, No. 163,

1. This David had two sons under 10 in 1820
2. David was in Ontario Co. in 1820 & 1830.
3. Eliza, Sanford's 1st wife was born in Ontario Co., in 1814.
4. Sanford enlisted in the army at Rochester, NY, in the county just north of Ontario Co.
5. David's mother was Jael Harmon. David had a son Augustus Harmon Sanford had a son Harmon Albert.
6. The 1880 & 1900 census for Harmon Albert shows his father b. in NY.
7. Geo E. Hanchett, No. 362, who lived in Monroe Co., WI, just north of Vernon Co., collected much Hanchett data around 1900. He may have known Harmon A. and certainly had contact with him. His record states, without evidence, that Sanford was David's son.

No census record has been found for Sanford for 1830, 1840 nor 1850. The failure to find him in 1830 may be connected to his desertion from the army. Also his absence from the 1850 census may be related to the fact that the Stedman family records state he deserted his 1st wife, Eliza about this time. In the 1855 NY state census Eliza and her son George, appear with her brother, Jonathan Stedman, in Erie Co. NY. Eliza appears alone in 1870 in Miles, Cook Co., IL. That her son, George, does not appear with her is surprising for his daughter, Elmina, reported that he told of living with mother near Chicago at the time of the Chicago fire in 1871.

Sanford married (2) Ann Harris in Bad Ax Co. (later Vernon Co.) WI, 22 June 1856. They appear in the 1860 census in Kickapoo, Bad Ax Co.

| Ann | wife | 44 | f | | OH |
| John | son | 6 | m | | WI |
| Mary | dau. | 4 | f | | WI |
| Harmon | son | 1 | m | | WI |

Nothing further is known about the above John. The age and birthplace for Sanford do not fit our other data. The record may have been given by someone who did not know. Ida A., daughter of Harmon, stated that there were mysterious circumstances in connection with Sanford's appearance in WI. There seems to be little doubt that Sanford was born in NY. As mentioned above census records show Harmon's father to have been born in NY. Harmon, himself, wrote to Frank E. Hanchett that his father was born in NY.

Sanford was apparently killed in an accident shortly after 1860. Different descendants state that his death occured when Hamon was between one and three. Ann appears in the 1870 census in Liberty, Vernon Co., WI, age 54, with Mary E., age 13, and Harmon, age 11. Also in the family was Salathiel Harris, age 18, born in OH, probably a relative of Ann.

Early in the study of this man it was believed that there were two Sanfords and that one was the son of David, No. 163, and the other was a son of his brother, John. John also had sons of the right age who have not been identified.

However, as the evidence accumulated it appeared more probable that there was a single Sanford. Perhaps further evidence will clarify the problem.

290. AUGUSTUS HARMON[8]HANCHETT (David[7]John[6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 26 Nov. 1816 probably at Sodus, Ontario Co. (now Wayne Co.,) NY; died 28 Aug. 1875 in Jackson Co., MI. His death record in Jackson Co., states he was born in NY, son of David and Elizabeth Hanchett. He married Augusta Eliza Hubbard, born 1820 daughter of Dr. Harvey H. and Ellen (Pale) Hubbard. She died 18 Feb. 1892. Both are buried in Spring Arbor Cemetery, Jackson Co. While he was studying medicine he taught school two winters in Collins Center, Erie Co., NY.

In 1850 the family was in Racine, WI, and the daughter was baptized there. Ten years later they were in Hastings, Dakota Co., MN where he was a physician. Her parents were with them in the 1860 census. Dr. Hanchett served as the mayor of Hastings and was later appointed State Geologist. As such he prepared a geological report of the state, published in 1865 but signed by Dr. Hancett in New York City, 14 Nov. 1864.

They next appear in Jackson Co., MI where he bought land in Eaton Rapids. In 1870 they were in Spring Arbor but their daughter was not with them. Augusta appeared several times in the Jackson Co., deed book after his death.

293. NELSON[8]HANCHETT (John[7,6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born Oct. 1815 in Montgomery Co., NY; married Harriet —, born July 1830 in NJ. The family appears in 1850 in Big Flats, Chemung Co., NY with the first two children. In 1855 they were in Johnston, Fulton Co., NY, where he was an inland navigator. In the 1875 census Nelson was a skin dresser and Harriet was a dressmaker while in 1900 they were in Tioga Co., NY. They had been married 53 years and Harriet had borne seven children, one living. Frank was in the family. Here Nelson was a ferryman and Frank, who was single, was a house painter.

Children:

i. Heber[9], b. ca. 1847. Not in 1855 cen.
ii. Eli, b. ca. 1849. Not in 1860 cen.
iii. John N., b. ca. 1851. Not in 1860 cen.
iv. Grace, b. ca. 1852
v. David, b. ca. 1856.
vi. Frank, b. July 1862. Unm. in 1900.

294. DAVID[8]HANCHETT (John[7,6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born June 1823 in Glen, Montgomery Co., NY. He married Emma —, born ca. 1818 in PA. She died before 1880 when David appeared in Indianapolis, IN as a widower.

David was an actor and appeared throughout the country. He was in the New York City directory in 1855-6 as an actor. The Wheeling, VA (now WV) Intelligencer of 2 Apr. 1856 on the opening of the Hanchett and Duffield season at the Athenaeum remarked, "Messrs Hanchett and Duffield come to us highly recommended by the Zanesville Press as honorable men and gentlemen and we hope their stay in our city will be pleasant and profitable." A poster advertising the presentation of Richard III at the Howard Athenaeum in Boston, MA, 26 Oct. 1859 with Edwin Booth as Richard shows a Mr. Hanchett as King Henry and Mrs. Hanchett as the Dutchess of York in the cast.

in 1866 the Milwaukee (WI) Sentinel reported that David Hanchett appeared in the title role in Macbeth July 7 and 9. From 1879 through 1885 David appeared in the Indianapolis directories variously as actor, dramatic teacher and the proprietor of the New York Dramatic College. In the will of his sister, Mary Potter, in 1894 he was in New York City.

Whether David had any children is uncertain. The only records of his wife are two census records both in Big Flats, Chemung Co., NY. In the NY State census for 1865, Emma Hanchett, age 47, is head of a family consisting of two girls, J.D., age 12, and F.P., age 20. Emma was listed as married but the 2nd marriage. In 1870 David was head of a family with Emma, wife, age 50, Julia D., age 17 and Fanny Price, age 23. Since we do not know when David and Emma were married we can only speculate. In the earlier census no surname was given for the girls but the implication was that it was Hanchett. However, we note the older girl was F.P. Was the P for Price? Was she a child of Emma from her first marriage or had she married a Price? It is possible both girls were David's children and we list them as such.

The last we hear of David is in the 1900 census where he appears in Montgomery, Franklin Co., OH where he is living alone and listed as a dramatic teacher.

Possible children:

i. Fannie[9], b. ca. 1845 in MS.
ii Julia D., b. ca 1852 in MO.

295. MARY[8]HANCHETT (John[7,6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1826 in Montgomery Co., NY; died there between 15 Apr. 1893 when her will was signed and 9 Apr. 1894 when it was probated. She married 11 Dec. 1853 in Johnstown, Fulton Co., NY, Henry Potter. They apparently had no children but raised her niece, Jenny Kilmer whose mother, Catherine, died shortly after 1870. Jenny Kilmer Wilcox was Mary's executrix. Mary's father John was in the family in 1865. Henry Potter was a brickmaker in 1870 and a furniture agent in 1880

297. CATHERINE[8]HANCHETT (John[7,6]David[5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1838 in Montgomery Co., NY; probably died between 1870 and 1875. She married Alexander Kilmer. They appear in the 1870 census with the children listed below. Catherine was 25 and Alexander was 26. In the 1875 NY State census he was 33 but his wife, Catherine was still 25 and the only child was Lynn, age 1/2 year. Jennie Kilmer apppeared in this 1875 census with her Aunt Mary, No. 295. Nothing further is known about Eveline. It would appear that the first wife was dead and he had married another Catherine. This is confirmed by the 1900 census where he and wife Catherine had been married 27 years and she had borne five children. Four children were in the census but Lynn did not show.

Children:

i. Jane (Jennie)[9], b. ca. 1868; m. a Wilcox.
ii. Eveline, b. ca. 1869.

In 1880 they had the three children listed below. He died and she married (2) 6 Oct. 1890. George S. Woolsey, son of Daniel and Julana (Shafer) Woolsey. This was his 2nd marriage. In 1880 he and his first wife, Martha Lamphier, had five children. The 1900 census states Phebe had borne four children, all living. She must have had another child after 1880 who was away from home in 1900. Woolsey was a farmer in Marshall, Calhoun Co.

Children by Dunham:

i. Lillian[9], b. ca. 1864.
ii. Charles, b. May 1871.

321. HAWLEY[8]HANCHETT (Harry[7]John[6]Amos[5]Ebenezer[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 27 Oct. 1824 in Ellicott, Chautauqua Co., NY; died at Manton, Wexford Co., MI 9 Nov. 1893. He married (1) 1 Jan. 1846 in Lorain Co., OH, Harriet A. Miller born ca. 1830 in NY. The extensive data for Hawley, some of it conflicting, makes it appear that he was divorced early in the 1860's and he married a second Harriet, a widow, who was born ca. 1837 in OH or PA the daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Case) Cole. The following data are pertinent.

1850 cen. Lorain Co., Elyria Twp. Hanchett, Hawley, 25 m., Harriet, 23 f., Cornelia, 4 f., Loren, 1 m., all born in NY.

1860 cen. same place. Hanchett, Hawley, 35 m., Harriet, 33 f., Cornelia, 12 f., Loren, 10 m., Martha, 7 f., Mary, 5 f., George, 3 m., baby, 2/12 m., baby, 2/12 m. Hawley, born, NY, others OH.

1870 cen. Lorain Co., Amherst Twp. Hanchett, Hanley (sic), 44 m., Harriet, 33 f., Lorin (sic), 20 m, George, 15 m. Hanley b. NY, others OH.

1870 cen. Lorain Co., Elyria Twp. Hanchett, Harriet, 40 f., William 7., Harriet b. NY, William, b. OH.

1880 cen. Wexford Co., Manton village, MI. Hanchett, Hawley, 55 m., b. NY, Harriet L., 48 f., b. PA, Freddie, 7 m., b. OH.

1884 MI State cen. Benzie Co. Gilmore Twp. Hanchett, Harriet, 54 f., widow, b. NY, William, 23 m., son b. OH.

1894 MI State cen. same place. Hanchett, Harriet, 63 f., widow, b. NY. William, 32 m. single, b. OH. Harriet had borne 7 children, 3 living.

In Benzie Co., death records in Gilmore Twp. we find; Henrietta Hanchett, widow, d. 7 June 1896, age 65 y. 10 m. 5 d.

Wexford Co., MI Deaths gives; Hawley Hanchett, carpenter, d. 9 Nov. 1893, age 69 y. 12 d. While in Wexford Marriages we find; Harriet Hanchett, of Manton, age 58, married 15 July 1896, Gregory Wingarten, age 60. Her 3rd and his 4th. Her parents, Samuel and Sarah (Case) Cole.

While there are discrepancies of a few years in age, and birthplaces for the two Harriets do not always agree, it seems highly probable that the above data refer to Hawley Hanchett and two wives named Harriet. We know that Cornelia and Martha were dead before 1894 ( see their biographies) and Loren has not been found after 1880. There is no further positive data for the two babies in the 1860 census but it is probable that one or both may have died, perhaps one may be the William who appears with the first Harriet. If these assumptions are correct the statement in the 1894 census that the first Harriet had borne seven children, three living would agree with the known facts. The Fred who appears in Hawley's family in 1880 may not be his son, but the child of the second Harriet by a first marriage. This appears likely because while Hawley was born in NY, Fred's father is listed in 1880 as born in Ohio and in 1900 (see Fred's biography) is given as born in Germany.

Children 1st Harriet:

i. Cornelia[9], b. ca. 1846; d. before 1880; m. ca. 1869 in Lorain Co., OH, Alonzo Luther, b. 5 Aug. 1837 in Hubbardton, VT son of Asahel Luther. The Luther Genealogy states he m. Parmelia Hanchett ca. 1869 in Lorain Co. but the 1870 cen. gives his wife as Cornelia and since Hawley's family was in Lorain Co. at this time and no Parmelia Hanchett has been found it appears that the Luther Gen. is in error. Cornelia must have died or there was a div. for Alonzo's wife in 1880 was Mattie, age 21. Also in his family was William Spinks, bro.-in-law. Children of Cornelia: 1. Frank, b. 28 Mar. 1870, Ridgeville, OH; d. 6 Dec. 1943, Ellyria, OH. 2. Charles, b. 6 Dec. 1872 in Lorain, OH; d. 24 Oct. 1933.

ii. Loren, b. ca. 1849. Not found after 1870.

iii. Martha Amanda, b. ca. 1853; m. Albert P. Kibby, b. ca. 1851 in NY. (App. for mar. lic. made by brother Loren, 21 Nov. 1874.) They appear in 1880 in Frankfort Village, Benzie Co., MI where he is a sawyer. She apparently d. before 1890 for in 1900 his wife was Eleanor and they had been married 10 years. Le Roy was in the family but not Lorna. Children: 1. Le Roy Raiment, b. 27 Jan. 1876, Frankfort, MI; m. there 4 July 1901, Frances Adelaid Pendleton, b. 4 Nov. 1882, dau. of Beely & Martha Ann (Storey) Pendleton. 2. Lorna, b. ca. 1879.

iv. Mary, b. ca. 1855. No later data.

400. WILLIAM H.[8]HANCHETT (Edward[7]Joseph[6,5]Zacheus[4]John[3,2]Thomas[1]), born 24 June 1834 in MI*; died 19 Nov. 1883 in Vermillion Parish, LA. He married (1) Juliet Dolson, born ca. 1834 in MI. He appeared in the 1860 census with Juliet and two daughters, in Albany, WI, where he was a miller. In 1870 Juliet was in the census with her two daughters in the family of Gilbert Dolson, age 63, and his wife Ruth, age 48, who were probably her parents, she was listed as having foreign born parents and the Dolsons were born in Canada. However, because of her age, Ruth may have been a step-mother.

The next record of William is his marriage to Elizabeth Agelia Terrier, 13 Feb. 1866 in Bradshear, St. Mary Parish, LA. That this is the same William is established by the application for a widow's pension by Elizabeth Hanchett of Ramsey, Vermillion Parish, LA, 6 May 1891. She stated that she was the widow of William Hanchett who enlisted 7 Nov. 1863 in Co. D 1st Reg. WI Heavy Artillary at Milwaukee, WI. Further, she asserted that he died in Vermillion, 19 Nov. 1883 and that he had previously married Juliet Dolson from whom he was divorced before their marriage.

Elizabeth's death certificate stated she died at Port Arthur, TX, 3 May 1936, age 90 y. 4 m. 3 d. and that her parents were Edward Lowry Terrier and Adeline Rouseau. Information given by her daughter, Juliet Hartman. William was a farmer.

*Edward's children were presumed to have been born in Coldwater, MI but in view of his moving around to build dams in several states it is not surprising to find Williams's birthplace given in the 1860 census as IN but one cannot reconcile this with the 1870 census birthplace of WI and the 1880 census listing of KY.

He married at Cleveland, OH, 29 Nov. 1894, Dorothy Ada Lewis, born 19 Aug. 1876 at Denison, IA, daughter of Sidney S. and Susan (Avery) Lewis. They had met at the home of Elroy and Catherine (Tilden) Avery, George being the nephew of Catherine and Dorothy the niece of Elroy. Dorothy died at Ann Arbor, MI, 12 Apr. 1919.

George graduated from MIT in 1893 in Electrical Engineering and became a leading Electrical Engineer. He edited Electrical World & Railway Gazette and, for a time the American Electrician. He wrote a widely used text on Alternating Current and a book, Electric Railway Meters. He was early a full member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. George invented the Direct Reading Ohmmeter but instead of patenting it he took out a copyright on the scale which resulted in a considerable loss of money. He was given a diploma by the Paris Exposition in 1900 for the invention of the ohmmeter. In the later part of his life he was a consulting engineer.

He married 25 Sept. 1925 at Providence, RI, Cora G. Soule, born 25 Sept. 1890 at Arlington, MA the only child of Nathan Thomas and Lillian (Hanchett) Soule. After about a year they separated and in 1934 they were divorced. She gave as her reason her fear of tuberculosis.

After attending the public schools of Hyde Park he received the AB from Boston University and the LLB from the same school. He was valedictorian in High School, second in his class in College and cum laude in Law School. He was admitted to the MA bar in 1898 and opened an office in Boston. In 1906 he went to New York City, passed the bar and opened an office there. Shortly he showed signs of pulmonary tuberculosis and in 1910 he entered a sanatorium in the Catskills.

In the period from 1900 to 1910 he very actively pursued the study of the Hanchett history but stopped about 1910. In 1944 when John C. Hanchett, No. 538 and Keith M. Seymour, both of whom were working on the Hanchett family, made contact with him he very graciously made his extensive collection available to them and copies were made. John later used his copy to publish a mimeographed book, The Hanchett Family, by Junius T. Hanchett and his material is the basis of much of the first three generations of this book and of considerable importance for the next three generations. Junius, himself, considered his book, "The Future of Evolution", to be his more important work.

Warde of Wilmington, DE, born 29 Dec. 1875.

Frank was an Electrical Engineer and while at one time he had an office in New York City his work took him all over. At one time he was working on Norris Dam in Alabama and another time he was in Oregon. He did outstanding work on the Hanchett Family genealogy and while his complete collection has not been available many of his records has been found in the hands of his correspondents. He collaborated with Junius Hanchett and much of his data has been available from this source. In 1943 KMS had a brief correspondence with his daughter, Gretchen but contact with her was lost and it is not known what became of "the trunkfull of material" she reported she had. He sent much of his material to Ray M. Hanchett, No. 588, whose daughter, Vessa, loaned a large box of these records to Charlotte Kent.

The Mary and John Story.

By Junius T. Hanchett.

It is frequently stated by descendants of Deacon Thomas that he came to this country from England on the ship "Mary and John" in 1630. This would be most interesting if true, not only because the "Mary and John" was a celebrated ship but because it would give us an early date respecting Deacon Thomas and a clue to his whereabouts in England. The writer first became acquainted with this story through reading American Ancestry, Vol.8, page 84, which gives the line of Capt. Oliver Hanchet back to Deacon Thomas and gives a short sketch of the latter. Later the writer examined many records of Boston and vicinity. The facilities of the New England Genealogical and Historical Society were at his disposal. He also examined records at Wethersfield, Suffield, Saybrook, Northampton, New London, Springfield, Hartford, Westfield, and many other places in Western Massachusetts and Connecticut but found nothing about the coming of Deacon Thomas. Finally, Hanchett notices in old England were examined and it was found that the family was numerous there in 1600, but that they were without exceptiuon confined to the counties of Hartford, Essex, Cambridge amd a few in Suffolk, with older lines in Bucks and Bedford.

The writer learned that the ship list of the "Mary and John" on her famous voyage had not been preserved, and that although many claimed the honor for their immigrant ancestors, few were accepted by competent genealogists. Also it appeared that the passengers on the trip were drawn from the three counties of Devon, Dorset and Somerset, not at all near the Hanchett counties. Finding no one among the Hanchett who had studied the problem the writer considered the story was unfounded. The next question was to determine how the story got started.

This was not easy but all clues seemed to lead to the article in American Ancestry, a publication run on a business basis which printed genealogies for a cash consideration, without criticism or review. This article was put in by Milton Waldo Hanchett of the line of Capt. Oliver and after correspondence with Henry Granger Hanchet, his son, I discovered what led, or rather mislead the former. It seems that a Miss Aria Huntington while looking up her own ancestry at the Northampton public library ran across some items on the Hanchetts. Having a friend, a Miss Julia Hanchett, she reported the matter to her, who in turn reported it to Milton Waldo Hanchett. I obtained Miss Huntington's address and wrote to her. Her reply stated that she took no notes and trusted to her recollection. She told she was almost sure that the book she consulted was Savage's Dictionary, but she was not sure. Savage does not stated that Deacon Thomas came on the "Mary and John" although he does give him notice. Miss Huntington states that it told of Deacon Hanchett or his father being made a freeman. Savage does report John Hanchett of Boston being made a freeman. Miss Huntington undoubted did see that someone came on the "Mary and John".

Weighing the above considerations it is tolerably clear that we must drop the "Mary and John" story as originated in a blunder. It is extremely regrettable that this error has crept into print. It shows the persistance of a genealogical mistake once given headway and the consequent necessity for carefully guarding all assertions.

Appendix B.

Another Error. Deacon Thomas' Eldest Son.

Junius T. Hanchett

Another mistake going the rounds is that John was Deacon Thomas' oldest son. The History of Suffield by Mr. Sheldon is responsible for this. He was not an expert on the Hanchett family, which was only one of the many lines with which he dealt and his treatment was very brief. We shall consider our own grounds for a different view and second his reasons.

1st. Thomas Jr., is mentioned first in his father's will. Twice they are named together, and each time it is "my two sons, Thomas and John." This should be enough to settle the matter alone, for it is a universal custom to name children in the order ot their birth in testamentary instruments, and perhaps this custom was felt with greatrer force in those days than now, for the position of the eldest son was much more consequential then in England, and in America, than now. It is unlikely that Sheldon had seen the will for it was recorded in Northampton not Suffield.

2nd. Thomas, Jr., takes the father's name which is customary in the case of the eldest son. The Hanchett family recognized this custom for the name Thomas was given to the eldest son for five generations. In John's family the name John was retained for three generations for the eldest son.

3rd. When the two brothers approached manhood we should expect to hear their acts recorded and the first to reach man's estate would be the one most likely mentioned first. When first mention is made it was Thomas not John. On the 4th of the 11th month 1668 a petition was circulated generally over the western part of the Colony against certain burdersome imposts. Among the subscribers we find Thomas Hanchet, Sr., and Thomas Hanchet,Jr. The son John did not join in the petition. He was nearly twenty years old at the time and his minority would appear to be the only reason he did not sign a petition so general in which his father and brother were interested.

4th. Thomas became a land owner before John. This was at Westfield. "June 15, 1670 there was granted to Thomas Hanchet, Jr., ten acres of land next above his father's land." John was not of age at this time although nearly so.

Consider the reasons which led Mr. Sheldon to make the contrary statement. He was not making an investigation of Hanchett Genealogy. He was writing a history of a town and gave the original proprietors each a notice. The material right at hand was all he needed. He did not know that John was the oldest for there was no record of the fact (not in Suffield, KMS). He looked at matters with Suffield eyes. Deacon Thomas came to Suffield, his two sons come with him. Thomas, Jr., returned to Westfield and removed from the field. John stayed there and represented the family after the death of Deacon Thomas. He inherited half of the patrimony and bought the other half from his brother. He lived on the homestead. He was deacon, selectman and a worthy succesor to his father. Thomas, of Westfield, was out of consideration. What is more natural than that the historian of Suffield, not seeing but a small portion of the facts, should have set down a mistaken view under the impression he was stating an uncontestable fact.

Appendix C

Probable Descendants of Oliver[6] Hanchett

C 1. ERASTUS[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6,5] John[4,3,2] Thomas[1]), born ca. 1787 in NY; died 28 Sept. 1851 at Mendon, Monroe Co., NY. He married Nancy Ann ---, born ca. 1790 in Canada; died at Lima, NY, 23 Feb. 1872. Erastus last sold land in Cornwall, Stormont Co., Ontario, Can., 8 Dec. 1810. In the deed he was referred to as a hatter. He appeared in the 1820 census in Ontario, Co., NY; in 1830 and 1840 in Livingston Co., NY and in 1850 in Monroe Co., NY. The earliest evidence of Erastus in NY is the 1850 census which shows his son, James, as born in NY ca. 1815.

In connection with the probability of their relationship it may be significant that Erastus bought and sold land in Livingston Co. with, to and from Hiram Hanchett, No. C 4 during the 1930s. Although the census records lists Erastus as a farmer, a number of Ontario Co. deeds in the 1840s show that he had interests in the Bloomfield (Ontario Co.,NY) Mfg. Co., a factory for cloth dressing and he also had water rights for a grist mill. This may be significant in connection with Frank E. Hanchett's statement that Erastus' presumed brother, Charles, was killed in an accident which occured in a mill in which he was associated with an older brother.

In 1855 the NY State census lists Nancy Hanchett as head of a household in Mendon with a grandson, Erastus, age 10. In 1865, as a widow, she was a boarder in the home of M.R. White. Erastus' will, dated 21 Sept. 1851, mentions his wife, Nancy, sons Miles and Daniel, minors of Mendon, and son James of Appleton, WI. Nancy's will in 1872 names three sons, James of Chicago, IL and Daniel and William of Lima, NY and grandchildren Sarah Esther, daughter of James; Erastus, Lydia and John B., children of Daniel and Emma, Franklin and Cora, children of Wm Miles.

Children:

C6. i. James[8], b. Apr. 1815.
C7. ii. Daniel, b. ca. 1822.
C8. iii. William Miles, ca. 1833.
iv. David, dy.

C 2. JAMES[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6,5] John[4,3,2] Thomas[1]), born in USA ca. 1789/90. He married (1) Ann Fitzpatrick, 5 Feb. 1811 at Williamstown, Can. They were both of Charlottenburg. He married (2) 30 Apr. 1815 in Cornwall Church, Mary Roach, a widow. He died before 1871 when the census showed Mary living with three of her children, Miles, James and Pamelia, all unmarried. James was a farmer. There is no other evidence that James ever left Canada but in 1832 a James Hanchett was a witness with a Hiram Hanchett to a deed in Livingston Co., NY given by Erastus Hanchett. Neither his son James nor Erastus' son James were more than seventeen and would not have been able to serve as witnesses. No other James Hanchett was known to have been in the area.

Child of Ann:

C9. i. Charles[8], b. 27 Oct. 1811, b. 12 Jan. 1812.

Children of Mary:

ii. James, bp. 28 Jan. 1816; m. 25 Dec. 1840, Mary Ann Fitzpatrick. No issue.
iii. Amelia (Pamelia), b. 7 Oct. 1817; bp. 25 Dec. 1817. Unm.
iv. Miles, b. 13 Sept. 1819; Never married. His will dated 26 Jan. 1889 left all to his sister, Pamelia with the provision that at her death the property would go to his niece, Catherine Ann Tye (or Lye) wife of Joseph of Lawrence, St. Lawrence Co., NY.
C10. v. William, b. 9 May 1822; bp. 14 July 1822, C11. vi. Oliver, b. 15 July 1824; bp. 15 Sept. 1924.

C 3. CHARLES[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]) born ca. 1792, age 94, probably in VT; killed in an accident in 1826. Frank Hanchett stated it was in Canada* but it seems probable he was the Charles Hanchett in the 1820 census in Lima, Ontario Co., NY. The Gorton Genealogy states he married there in 1820 and also states, "He manufactured clothes with an older brother and was killed in the machineery." Erastus, No. C 1, who we believe was Charles older brother, was involved in a mill in Ontrario Co. See Erastus' biography. Charles married in 1820 Susan(na) Gorton, born 2 Nov. 1803 at East Avon, NY, daughter of Daniel and Sarah (Northrup) Gorton. She died in Sullivan, IN, 27 June 1892. Susan and her two sons first moved to Ohio and then to Sullivan, IN.

Children:

i. Charles[8], 20 Nov. 1821; died 26 Dec. 1822.
C12 ii. George W., b. 28 July 1823.
C13. iii. Hiram Solon, b. 28 Jan. 1825.

* Frank's statement that Charles died in Canada may be due to confusion between Ontario, Canada and Ontario Co., NY.

C 4. HIRAM[7] HANCHETT (Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born 1794-97 in VT; died 9 Sept. 1866 in Livingston Co., NY, age 69. He married 13 Oct. 1840 at Lebanon, CT, Sarah Harvey, born at Lebanon 1807/8. She died 5 Jan. 1873, age 66. Both Hiram and Sarah are buried in the Oakridge Cemetery at Lima, NY.

In 1943 Mrs. Lucia S. Silver, Hiram's grandaughter wrote that her father told her that his father came from Canada. At the time it was thought that this man was the son of Hiram the son of Joseph as this Hiram was known to have been in Canada. However, the statement of John Harmon (See Hiram No. 117) that that Hiram died in MS and the record of a Hiram dying in MS in 1838 makes it improbable that this man was the son of Joseph.

Hiram Hanchett was involved in many land transactions in Livingston Co., NY in which he sold to and with and bought from and with Erastus, No. C1. He witnessed, with a James Hanchett, a deed for Erastus Hanchett, 7 July 1832.

Children:

i. Sarah Miller[8], b. 5 Dec. 1845; m. 14 July 1870, Ralph Hunt, b. 19 July 1840 at St. Armand, Can. East; d. 7 Mar. 1903 at Fredericksburg, MD. She d. ca. 1901 at Evanston, IL. He was a lawyer in Chicago. Sarah grad. from Genesse Coll., Syracuse, NY in 1867 and rec. an MA there in 1870. She served as preceptress at the Seminary at Red Creek, NY, 1869-70; was a teacher in the Seminary at Fairfield, NY, 1870-71 and a teacher of French at Cazenovia (NY) Seminary 1871-78. No issue.

C 5. JOHN L.[7]HANCHETT (Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1807. He married (1) 24 Apr. 1831 at Avon, NY, Marie Chapel, daughter of Daniel Chapel. She died at Perry, Wyoming Co., NY, 6 July 1833, age 25. He married (2) 27 Apr. 1837 Lydia J. Moore, born 14 July 1806 daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Vaughn) Moore. She died 15 July 1876 probably at Aurora, IL. In a deed dated 23 Aug. 1853 Thomas Moore of Chester, MA, deeded property in Hampden Co., MA to John L. Hanchett of Chicago for which John bound himself to care for Thomas through his natural life. John was in Livingston Co. in 1830's when other sons of Oliver were there. Frank E. Hanchett stated that Charles, C 3 had a brother John. Further, in 1865 a John L. Hanchett was witness to the application for a widow's pension by Nancy Hanchett, widow of Hiram Solon Hanchett (No. C 13). This is all the circumstantial evidence there is to place this man. However, the only Hanchett other than Oliver who seems to be a possible father for John is Luke (No. 66). While Luke cannot be eliminated it seems probable that this man was the son of Oliver, No. 74. John took many land patents in Chicago and Lockport, IL in the 1840s. The 1839 Chicago directory lists him as a surveyor while the 1850 and the 1860 census for Cook Co., IL lists him as a civil engineer. The History of Will Co., IL, calls him a farmer.

Children, born at Lockport, Will Co., IL:

i. Helen M.[8], b. ca. 1840

ii. L.J. (Jenny), b. ca. 1845. Probably the Jennie Hanchett who m. 10 Oct. 1866 at Chicago, Joseph Henry Hawley, b. 30 Oct. 1841 son of Wm A. & Thirza (Miller) Hawley. He d. 27 June 1870 in Boston, MA. Child: Jennie May, b. 28 Sept. 1867 at Chicago, d. there 7 Mar. 1868.

iii. John E., b. 27 Nov. 1848; d. 28 Dec. 1912 at St. Louis, MO. He m. 20 Dec. 1879 at Boston, MA, Georgiana Randall. She d. 6 Jan 1937 at Troy, NY. He was a RR man. No issue.

C 6. JAMES[8]HANCHETT (Erastus[7]Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born Apr. 1815 in NY. He married ca. 1840 Esther born July 1822 in NY. James and Esther, of West Bloomfield sold land in Sparta in 1843. Both towns are in Livingston Co. In 1850 the family was in Grand Chute, Brown Co., WI where James was a merchant. Ten years later they were in Appleton, Outagamie Co., WI where he was a lumberman. When his mother, Nancy, died he was in Chicago. The 1900 census for Polk Co. FL lists him as a retired capitalist. This record gives his father's birthplace as MA. If, as we presume, Erastus was the son of Oliver and if, as we have, Erastus was born in 1787 he could have been born in MA before Oliver went to VT.

Child:

i. Sarah Esther[9], b. NY ca. 1841. She was mentioned in her grandmother's probate as of Chicago. A Sarah Esther Hanchett of Chicago m. 17 Nov. 1872, William Fisk Yocum, b. 20 July 1840 son of Rev. Elmore & Mary C. (Standley) Yocum.

C 7. DANIEL[8]HANCHETT (Erastus[7]Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1822 in NY; died 1897/8. He married (1) Mary M. Davisson who died 2 Dec. 1853, age 28 y. 6 m. 6 d. according to her stone in Lima, NY. He married (2) Elvira Marshall, born ca. 1820 the widow of Franklin Marshall and daughter of Thomas Brown of Avon, NY. Alvira had the following Marshall children, Phebe Ann, who married Daniel's brother, Francis, Ellen, George, Tracy and Charles. Elvira appears to have died before the 1875 State census. After her death he married (3) Julia Colligan, born ca. 1856 in NY the daughter of Bernard and Ann Colligan. She died in Rochester NY 2 Aug. 1929. Daniel was a farmer.

Children of Mary:

C15. i. Erastus[9], b. 5 Feb. 1844.
ii. Lydia Marie, b. ca. 1845. Mentioned in her grandmother's will as Lydia Hanchett in 1872.

Children of Elvira:

iii. Emily (Emma), b. 24 Aug. 1857; m. Henry Peer; she d. 31 May 1880, buried Lima, NY.
iv. John Benham, b. Feb. 1859; m. Ida Mehle. Child: Caroline.

C 8. WILLIAM MILES[8]HANCHETT (Erastus[7]Oliver[6,5]John[4,3,2]Thomas[1]), born ca. 1823. He married Phebe Ann Marshall born May 1842 in NY the daughter of Franklin and Elvira (Brown) Marshall. (See his brother Daniel's Bio.). He died before 1875 at which time Phebe was living with her brother, Tracy. In 1900 she was still with her brothr and had had three children, two living. Cora must have died.

Children:

i. Emma[9], b. ca. 1858. Living with her mother and Uncle Tracy in 1900. Unm.
ii. Frank(lin), b. ca. 1861. He appeared in 1892 NY State cen. with a wife Mary. Not found in 1900 but in 1905 NY State cen. a Frank Hanchett, age 44, was living in a hotel in Honeye Falls, NY.

C 25. SWAN STUART[11]HANCHETT (Sidney[10]Charles[9,8]James[7]Oliver[6,5] John 4,3,2 Thomas 1), born 25 Jan. 1915 av Swan River, Manitoba, Can.; died 22 Dec. 1975 at Denver, CO. He married (1) 27 Nov. 1946, Marguerite Ella Holm, born 1 Oct. 1915 at St. Louis, MO, daughter of Oscar and Lilly (Hogan) Hoilm. They were divorced 7 Dec. 1964 and he married (2) 17 Dec. 1964, Edna Aurora Ranta, born 31 May 1917 at Maple, Douglas Co., WI, daughter of John and Aurora (Aho) Ranta. He was a salesman for Western Auto Supply Co.

In 1956 Swan was in Salt Lake City and called on Charlotte Kent. He told her that the family had had considerable family history but that it had been loaned to a relative and had not been returned. Most significantly he said that the fmily descended from an Oliver Hanchett who fought in the Revolution under Ethan Allen. The existance of Oliver, No. 74, was not known at that time and no significance was attached to his statement. However, with the discovery of Oliver and fact that Oliver served in the Revolution under Ethan's brother, Ira, (See Oliver's biography) this statement acquires importance in establishing a connection between Oliver and his presumed son, James.

Child of Marguerite:

i. James Stuart[12], b. 6 July 1950 at Superior, WI; m. 10 July 1971 at Phoenix, AZ, Bonnie Lynn Mc Donald, b. 7 May 1953 at Auburn, NY, dau. of Frederick Allan & Laura (Wilbur) Mc Donald. ## The Hansett Family

H 1. HIRAM[1]HANSETT born ca. 1802; died between 2 June and 5 Oct. 1875. He married in the Florida Dutch Reformed Church, Glen Montgomery Co., NY, 28 Dec. 1825, Anna Leroy, b. ca. 1807, daughter of Peter and Catherine Leroy.

Hiram's parentage has not been established. At first it was thought that Hiram, or perhaps his father, was a recent immigrant but the NY State census, which reports place of birth, consistantly lists his birth as Schoharie Co., NY. No earlier Hansetts have been found although some of the established Hanchetts have been recorded, at times, as Hansett or Hanset. The fact that his marriage and the baptisms of his children appear in the Florida Church in Glen, NY, where the marriage of Amanda Hanset (sic) No. 291, to Henry Voorheise was recorded, suggested that he may have been her brother and a son of John Hanchett, No. 164. However, this appears impossible for the 1810 census for this John lists no male child and in his 1820 census the male children are two under ten. Other possible parents are Luke, No. 66 and Reuben, No. 92. Nothing has been found about Luke's family but his 1810 census in Oneida Co., NY lists three sons under ten one of whom could have been Hiram. Reuben's family has been difficult to trace. He apparently died before 1810. His last known child was born in 1804 and Hiram could have been his son. Further, while Reuben is not known to have lived in Schoharie Co. he was in nearby counties. Reuben died and left a young family. Hiram may have gone to live with a relative in Schoharie Co., perhaps with a Skinner relative. No conclusion can be made. Perhaps further study will solve this problem.

Hiram appears most commonly as Hanset or Hansett and his descendants usually use the later name. However, nearly every time his name is found in the Florida Church Records it is spelled differently. In the 1830 census he apeared as Hanchet. He appears in the census in 1850, 1860 and 1870 in Duanesburg, Schenectady Co., NY and he was there in the 1855 State census. The family had then been in the country for twenty-two years but his son John, age 25, had been born in Montgomery Co. He was a wagon maker but at one time he was a postmaster. It is interesting to note how many of his male descendants were carpenters.

Children:

H 2. i. John[2], b. 15 Mar. 1827.
ii. Matilda, b. 22 Apr. 1828. Never married. Was postmistress of Duanesburg.

Appendix E

THE BLACK HANCHETTS

L. L. Linkletter, the traveling friend of Charlotte Hanchett, who gathered much useful data all over the country, talked with an old colored Hanchett man in Opelousas, LA, in 1960. Linkletter did not report the man's given name but said he had a son, Ben, who owned a restaurant there. The man was over seventy and remembered his father, who would then have been about 120 years old, told him that the white Hanchetts had brought his family to Opelousas from near Woodvill, MS, when he was a boy. No pre-Civil War census records have been found showing Hanchetts in Louisana owning slaves. However, it appears probable that the family had belonged to descendants of Seth (No. 47).

In the 1870 census a Benjamin Hanchett (black), age 35, appeared in the St. Landry (LA) Parish with wife Margaret, age 35, and daughter, Mary, age 6/12 year. In 1880, in the same place, we find Benjamin Hanchett (black), age 38, with wife Alice, age 37, Ben Jr., age 7, Andy, age 3 and George, age 1. Again in the same place, in 1900 a Benjamin Hanchett (black) , born May 1839, with wife Maria born Feb. 1841. They had been married thirteen years and in the family were: Jack Seal, step-son, born June 1882 and other children, Spencer, born June 1882, Primus, born July 1887, Lilly, born Apr. 1891 and Bertha, born June 1894. While there are descrepancies in age, it appears probable that the three Benjamins are the same man and probably the father of the old man Mr. Linkletter met in 1960. Still in the same Parish the 1910 census lists two black Hanchetts. First, Thomas, age 49 with wife Ellen, age 17. They had been married three years. In the family were children, William, age 13 and Ethel, age 11 who must be childlren of a first wife. Second, we find Andy, age 26, with wife Lucinda, age 26. They had been married four years and it was his second marriage and her first. In the family were Ben, age 9, Atlice age illegible, John age 6 and Eddy age 4. The Thomas has not been found in other census records but Andy may be the Andy, age 3, in Benjamin's 1880 family.

Mr. & Mrs. Warren Hanchett of Port Arthur, TX and his brother, Elvin and wife of Lake Charles, LA, have supplied considerable data for their families. Their father was Spencer who married (1) Amanda Hawkins and (2) Sleger Charles, who was their mother. On the basis of the above data a tentative family record has been constructed.

B1. BENJAMIN[1]HANCHETT, born May 1839, in Opelousas, LA; married (1) Margaret —, born ca. 1849. He married (2) Alice —, born ca. 1843 and (3) ca. 1887 Maria —, born Feb. 1841.
